

Eagle Creek

(By Margaret Ross)

News note of the hour: It seems that the flu or cold germs hit most of us sooner or later. However two of our neighbors have had recent trips to the hospital for other causes. Mrs. Mary Bucovech returned home last Thursday after undergoing major surgery two weeks ago. Marvin Dunstan was taken to the Veterans Hospital in Portland Wednesday, Oct. 12, with a serious back ailment.

Having recently returned home with his German wife, he was preparing to move into the Fletcher house near the home of his parents, when the trouble became suddenly apparent. Mrs. Florence Glover and her sister Hazel Lowe of Portland, spent 5 days last week visiting Lincoln Beach at the home of Mrs. Lowe's son Forest and his family.

Visiting the Jesse Whislens over the weekend were their daughter Marian and her children from West Linn, while her husband Kenny Hasket was on a hunting trip. On Tuesday, Oct. 15 Grover Douglas of Hood River was in Eagle Creek visiting his sister Mrs. Matilda Baker; his brother Ward Douglas and also Mrs. Dora Clester.

Houseguest of the Clesters over Wednesday was Adele Hildahl of Portland; who also called on Hazel Beers.

On Saturday the Bill Gardner came from Salem and drove Mrs. Clester and Nola to Rufus to visit relatives.

Weekend guests of the L.O. Gerbers were the Ray Shaver (daughter) family of Oswego. The Mel Jordans last week moved from Eagle Creek to Powell Valley.

Eagle Creek Ladies Aid at its Oct. 16 meeting voted to hold its annual bazaar and chicken dinner on Friday, Nov. 22 at the church. Each member is reminded to prepare items for the bazaar. The next meeting date will be Nov. 12.

Westminster Fellowship will have its annual 'trick or treat' for overseas relief on Halloween, Oct. 31 beginning the trek at 6:30 P.M. Sewing needs, medical supplies and other items will be collected and sent to the American Friends Service Committee for distribution. Any Eagle Creek resident not called on but wishing to contribute may bring items to the church afterwards.

Correction: W. F. Holloreen party will be held at Eagle Creek school not at Estacada, as was erroneously stated on invitations.

On Monday Mrs. Wm. Dunstan visited in Forest Grove with her mother who is ailing and in Portland with her sister who is critically ill.

As the close of the deer hunting season neared a number of local people made jaunts into the wide open spaces. In the John Day country during the past week Lewis Rivers and his son Bud camped a few days and brought home two big ones. Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey and young sons Richard and Stevie spent the weekend in the same area. Enroute the Baileys left small Susie and Freddie in Wishram, Wash. with grandma Christine. Holbrook. Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Douglas spent the weekend camping in Tygh Valley.

Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Douglas were Mrs. Douglas' nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fritch of Portland.

On Monday Florence Cloninger received a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Knox of Portland, formerly of Boring.

On Saturday Mrs. Cloninger's niece, Betty Okert of Portland, visited her.

EAGLE CREEK CARNIVAL THIS FRIDAY P. M.

Just a reminder to Eagle Creek kids and their folks Friday is the annual Halloween Carnival and masquerade party at 8 P.M. at the school. Costume prizes, eats and lots of fun. Others outside of Eagle Creek are welcome too. All are reminded to bring along some small cash. Proceeds are used by the Mothers' Club to help equip Eagle Creek School.

George Notes

Mrs. Joe Weiderhold Mrs. Jack White nee Helen Cox was honor guest at a bridal shower Thursday evening at the Ed. White place. Nickie White and Bonnie Howell were hostesses. Appropriate games were played before the presentation of gifts to the honoree. She received many useful and beautiful gifts. Refreshments were served to the following guests: Judy Carlson, Caroline Durham, Lola Harrington, Sheryl Wienrich, Linda Chamberlin, Bonnie Howell, Carole Smith, Mrs. Betty Rhoades, Mrs. Roy Rhoades, Mrs. Earleen Ruhl, Mrs. Luillie Klinker and Mrs. Charles Cox. Sending gifts were Billie Ann Sagner, Frankie Fowler, Sharon Cutsforth and Lorraine Rhoades.

Last Monday some old Ardenwald neighbors visited at the Oscar Forseth home. They were Cliff Davis and Capt. Earl Weir. Capt. Weir was known for a number of years as the youngest captain on the river.

Friday Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hyde of Portland were luncheon guests at the Joe Wiederhold home.

Friends visiting at the Austin Moe home Saturday were their niece and amily, Mrs. Howard Stern from Troutdale and her father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Starkey of McMinnville. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Comyate of Portland also called on Moe.

Saturday luncheon guests at the Oscar Forseth home were Oscar's niece and family Mr. and Mrs. Jack Joliff and daughter Virginia and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Joliff all of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bishop and three daughters of Rainier spent the weekend with Grandpa and Grandma Forseth. Sunday Mrs. Forseth's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Patton were dinner guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Vannoy of Portland were Sunday visitors at the Elmer Timm home.

SQUARE DANCE NEWS

The Merry Mountaineers dance of Oct. 19 was well attended with a large group from Troutdale, Portland and other cities.

A large majority of the Merry Mountaineers were either sick or hunting.

Clyde Wherry our caller was also hunting. Edna and Clyde Barnhart o the Windy Whirlers called for us.

There is to be a dance at Troutdale and also (I believe they said) Rock Creek Grange hall at 123rd and Stark this Sat. night. Both are masquerade parties but you do not need to go masked if you don't want.

Hope some of you will go out to the Grange hall as most of those people belong to our club.

Our next dance will be Nov. 2nd. Hope you are all well by then and able to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bellek returned a few days ago from a six weeks trip in which they were in 26 states visiting relatives and friends. Former County Commissioner Bernard Schoesburg was taken to the Oregon City hospital Saturday night.

WIN

A NEW ELECTRIC DRYER

Make dolls out of clothespins? . . . why of course, the modern homemaker just pops her clothes into an electric dryer so she has no need for clothespins. So take a wooden clothespin (either type) and dress it up like a doll. Attach a tag with your name and address and mail or bring it in to your nearest PGE office. You might win a new electric dryer. Do it tonight . . . it's fun.

The meek are not those who are never at all angry, for such are insensible; but those who, feeling anger, control it, and are angry only when they ought to be. Meekness excludes revenge, irritability, morbid sensitiveness, but not self-defense or a quiet and steady maintenance of right. —Theophylact
