

Eagle Creek

(By Margaret Ross)

A flash fire last Saturday afternoon destroyed the barn on Ken Shoup place. Mrs. Shoup and her son Milton had left home shortly before the fire was discovered by neighbors who were alerted by an explosive sound. Old hay was stored in the leaky barn which had not been used for a long time and spontaneous combustion was suspected as cause of the fire. Eagle Creek firemen called to the scene prevented spread of the fire to nearby buildings.

Last Saturday eve Mr. and Mrs. E. Leroy Meyers attended the wedding in Portland's Mt. Tabor Presbyterian Church of their granddaughter Janet Elaine Meyers to John Turpstra. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Meyers of Portland. The groom comes from southern Calif. Accompanying the Roy Meyers to the wedding was their daughter Evelyn from San Francisco who will remain here with them until after Easter.

Z. P. Coop returned home on Wednesday of last week from the Veterans hospital in Portland where he spent over a month following surgery on his fractured leg.

Four generations of Smiths spent the weekend together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Smith. Their son E. A. Smith and family came from Newport. His son and daughter in law Mr. and Mrs. Allison Smith came from Portland with their own small son. Allison, a student at Lewis & Clark College has recently been appointed to the Portland police force.

Joanne Burnett and Miss Joyce Fuller last Thursday drove to Pullman, Wash. where they were delegates to a regional workshop of the Kappa Delta sorority. Saturday they were overnight guests of Miss Helen Parton in Hermiston. Sunday eve the three girls returned to the Shirley Burnett home for supper after which the Burnetts drove them to Corvallis to begin their spring term at OSC. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Burnett and their son Tom were dinner guests of Mrs. Maude Burnett in company with Walter Foster and Mrs. Bernice Howell of Clackamas. Visiting Mrs. Burnett on Monday eve were her son Ronald Burnett with his wife and their daughter and son in law Carolyn and Al Downey of Portland. Sunday afternoon visitors of the Shirley Burnetts were Miss Dorothy Epperson and daughters Karen and Marty of Portland.

Last Friday eve Mr. and Mrs. Paul Still and Mrs. Maude Burnett drove to Portland to visit

Major and Mrs. Luther Felker. Mrs. Vernon Ross spent Monday in Portland and attended a luncheon of Presbyterian ministers' wives.

The so-called German measles has been going around our area recently with reports of epidemic status in Clackamas County. Children are not the only victims. Lee Proctor's college vacation was somewhat specked with this affliction.

This Saturday eve's monthly social night at Eagle Creek Grange hall will feature potluck supper to which everyone is invited. A free will offering will be taken.

The Westminster Fellowship is planning an Easter sunrise service to which the community is invited. The setting will be the Frank Tacheron farm, which offers a fine view of both Mt. Hood to the east and the valley of Eagle Creek to the west. Time 6 AM. In case of rain service will be held at Eagle Creek church. A fellowship breakfast will be held at the church after the service.
