Now playing at the Broadway theatre Clark Gable in an exciting new western "The King and Four Queens." The lovely queens are Eleanor Parker, Jean Wiles, Barbara Nichols and Sara Shane with the added touch of famous Jo Van Fleet. Filmed in color and cinemascopes, we find Gable as a dashing scoundrel who is trying to find the hidden treasure from a big robbery in which all but one of the participants were killed. The four lovely wives were left behind along with their mother in law. She is the only one who knows where the loot is. Looking for the gold with the four lovely wives Clark has a wonderful time.
