Farm Employment Service Information Now Available Locally at Schmidt's

Ted Huff, manager of the Oregon City office of the Oregon Employment Service has announced that Charles E. Saywell will again handle the farm labor program for Clackamas county. Saywell will be assisted by Frank Waller, Jr. who has been calling on farmers of the area to determine their labor needs, particularly in the seasonal harvest of strawberries. They have also been contacting schools of the county and registering youngsters for berry and bean picking jobs this summer.

Farmers are urged to place their orders for strawberry pickers early and to be realistic about their needs, Saywell cautioned. On the other hand, prospective platoon leaders are asked to register at the Employment Service office at Oregon City, Sandy or Estacada.

Dick Schmidt, insurance agent, will again handle farm labor problems in the Estacada, Eagle Creek, Garfield, George and Porter areas. Forrest E. Erickson of the Springwater Store will be the farm representative in the Springwater district.

Hazel Murray of Beers-Murray Real Estate Office at Sandy will again handle farm labor problems in the Sandy, Boring, Bull Run and Dover areas.

Rev. Marion Ravan Completes 6 Years

Rev. Marion Ravan is completing his 6th year as Pastor of the Assembly of God Church of Estacada. The first Sunday he was here the attendance at Sunday School was 18. During the past year the average attendance has been in the seventies. Also during this period the membership of the church has increased over four times. At the annual business meeting last week he received a unanimous vote of confidence to serve the church the coming year.

In the spring of 1956 a building program was launched and an annex containing 4000 feet of floor space was built. This includes Sunday School class rooms, Junior Church auditorium, kitchen and office space. Many hours of labor as well as money was donated for the annex.

The church has a Boys' Club for boys 9 to 12 years of age. They meet every Friday night under the direction of Bill Griggs; they have handcraft, recreation and conduct a business meeting.

There is also a Girls' Club, sponsored by different women of the church.

Rev. Ravan takes an interest in civic affairs and is a member of the City Council.

Fourteen Graduate at Eagle Creek

A large crowd of friends and relatives crowded Eagle Creek school to witness last week's graduation of 14 8th graders. Cecelia Paine, top scholar of the class, gave the valedictorian speech. Carol Zuber, second ranking scholar, gave the class welcome. Most of the graduates took some part in the program. Sheriff Joe Shobe gave the address; Rev. Vernon Ross the invocation. Diplomas were presented by Henry Suter, chairman of the school board.

Nine students of the school received awards for perfect attendance during the year. Larry Lindland received his award for the third consecutive year.

Members of the Mother's Club prepared attractive decorations and refreshments, which were served afterwards.

Wm. Dickman, principal and teacher of the 7th-8th grade class, made the announcement that he will not be returning to Eagle Creek next year. His successor has not yet been named.

TWO ONE CAR ACCIDENTS NOTED AT EAGLE CREEK

Saturday night Eagle Creek had two one-car accidents. The first was minor, just requiring a tow car to pull it out of the ditch, with no damage to car or its teen-age occupants. The second was the car of Douglas and Lavonne Holbrook, of Wishram, Wash., who were coming from the Estacada high school alumni dance, to spend the night with Lavonne's parents, the Lewis Rivers. Their car skidded off the highway, overturning into the ditch just south of the Eagle Creek intersection. The car was demolished, but neither Doug nor Lavonne was hurt.

Mrs. Currin spent the afternoon Saturday visiting with her husband in Oregon City. He is feeling quite well.

MARIAN GULD INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

The last meeting of the Marian Guild for this season was held Tuesday evening May 19th. Mrs. Marguerite Keller conducted the installation of new officers who are: Mrs. Lynn Gilleran, president; Mrs. Mary Nehl, vice president; Mrs. Julia Dernoek, secretary; Mrs. Natalie Mueller, treasurer.

Mrs. Alma Jones, on behalf of the outgoing officers, thanked the Guild for their cooperation and promised continuing support for the new officers. Outgoing officers are Mrs. Alma Jones, president; Mrs. Clara Schleicher, vice president; Mrs. Eileen Merrick, secretary; Mrs. Frances Durand, treasurer.

Following the meeting, Mrs. Keller gave a most interesting demonstration on flower arrangement. She stressed particularly, the importance of flowers in the liturgical year.

Hostesses for the evening were the retiring officers.

ELMER DEETZ FILES FOR STATE SENATE SEAT

ELMER DEETZ

Elmer Deetz, Canby Jug dairy man, filed his declaration of intention as an independent candidate for one of Clackamas county's two seats in the state senate.

At the state bureau of elections in Salem, he received a petition form which must be filed with the signatures of approximately 1500 registered voters of Clackamas county, within 70 days of the November 4 election.

If the petitions are completed according to law, his name will go on the November ballot with those of State Senator Monroe Sweetland and Rep. Richard E. Groener, Democrats and Republican candidates Zenas A. Olson and Gladys H. Young.

Elmer Deetz served as a Representative from Clackamas Co. in the 1955 legislature. He won his seat in the same election in which Oregon voters repealed the state milk marketing act, against which Deetz had carried on a long campaign. In the November, 1954, election, he received the largest vote cast for any legislative candidate in Clackamas county.

Robert Reynolds of Scotia, Calif., Florence Lazott of Rohnerville, Calif. and Mrs. Frank in Reynolds of Fortuna, Calif. are here for the high school graduation exercises and to visit with the Ira Reynolds family and with other relatives.

Mrs. Bob Bartholomew and son from Eugene were here recently visiting her parents, the Earl Odells.

A Message For Memorial Day

We Will Not Forget

by His Eminence, Francis Cardinal Spellman

MEMORIAL DAY! Our prayers of gratitude incense the heavens for those whose lives have bought our freedom upon the altar of war's cruel sacrifice. Forget the valiant dead? We can not breathe one breath or live one moment which has not been bought by their heroic blood. We can not, we will not forget.

But what of the living heroes, the four million who wear the wounds of selfless struggle, the living veterans disabled for our sake, who daily die the living death of pain? Shall they have no part in our remembrance on this hallowed day? These are they who with virile valor faced the advancing foe, with calm courage stood their ground, with forthright fortitude bore the wracking wounds—and won the victory that America might live in the wholeness and unity of freedom's peace. These are the four million who rode into the valley of death and endured the maiming blows of bitter conflict that the wounded world might be healed by the blessed balm of liberty.

With sorrowful heart often have I seen them—those once crushed upon the battlefields of Europe, broken upon the broad Pacific's isles, torn asunder on Korea's heart-breaking hills. Proudly they will carry their scars of battle to the grave, yet wonder they must at our unmindfulness. Shall they, then, be forgotten on this day of memories? Shall they who bled to save us all not know the thanks and help of those they saved?

America, God-blessed land, embrace your injured soldier sons. In the blessed Name of Christ, Whose wounds were borne for us, hold out your hands to console, to strengthen, and to heal our veterans disabled by the brutal strokes of war. Take to your heart those whose hearts poured out their purple blood for us, for peace, that freedom's holy light might never dim.

(Written especially for the D. A. V.—the Ident-a-Tag organization)

DARREL JONES WRITES OF PRIMARY ELECTION

To the Editor of the Clackamas County News, Estacada

Now that the night-long vigil is over and the returns are in and we are once again facing the problems of the present, I realize that I owe a great many people more than was apparent on the surface of the recent campaign.

I think you know that in the three and a half years I have held the office of Commissioner, I have always tried in all ways to do my very best; if there have been failures, there have also been successes. In all instances I have tried to avail myself of the best counsel obtainable in the particular field of endeavor. Your sound advice and that of many of the people in your area has proven of great value to me and to the other members of this Court.

The counsel, cooperation and integrity of Commissioner Stan Ely and Judge Ed Latourette and the support and sound advice from the fine people of your community are contributing in a large part to the solid progress of Clackamas County. Sincerely, Darrell Jones, Commissioner.

Seven P. G. E. Co. Recreation Parks Open to the Public in Our Area

Seven of eight outdoor recreation areas maintained by Portland General Electric company, in conjunction with hydro electric projects are open for what will probably prove the busiest summer in history, according to J. H. Goggin, community relations manager.

Most popular of PGE facilities that last year were host to more than 50,000 people, is Austin Hot Springs, some 60 miles east of Portland on the Clackamas River. Also on the Clackamas below Austin Hot Springs, are Lake Harriet, upstream from the Oak Grove hydro plant, and River Mill park at the dam of the same name.

Largest of the recreation areas is Timothy Lake, a reservoir created by PGE high in the Cascades. Three campgrounds are open at Timothy, reached by auto over the Clackamas River highway via Estacada and later when road conditions permit, over the Skyline route off U. S. highway No. 26. Two of the Timothy camp, Gone Creek and Hood View on the south shore, are designed for 300 overnight campers.

A few miles east of the city of Sandy, Lake Roslyn park is open, with added facilities, including hot water, electric cooking unit, and a ball field. PGE's newest park, the 16-acre Pelton playground, built at a cost of over $100,000 a mile upstream from Pelton dam on the Deschutes river, is not open due to slide conditions in the park area. Boating facilities are open to the public providing access to eight-mile long Lake Simnustus formed by the dam.

A ninth PGE campground is under construction behind the North Fork dam on the Clackamas river where a new 4-mile lake will be formed by the dam later this year.

Poppy Sale Is Huge Success

The members of Carl Douglas Unit American Legion Auxiliary wishes to thank the people of Estacada and communities for their generous support of our poppy sale last Friday and Saturday. The money received will be used in Oregon and in this community to aid veterans and their families. We say sincerely thank you everyone.

291 Attend H. S. Alumni Banquet

The banquet of the Alumni of Estacada Union High School was held at the Grade School cafeteria Saturday evening. There were 291 served. This is the same number who were present last year.

The Parent Teachers Association served a delicious meal of roast turkey and dressing and all the good things that go with it. Steve Lins entertained the group with a piano solo.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: Sim Dunlop, president; Don Faust, vice-president; Darlene Alexander, secretary and Marilyn Walters, treasurer.

After the banquet the evening was spent dancing in the Grade School gym.

Good Week Shows at Broadway

Now playing at the Broadway Theatre, ending Thursday night a picture so unusual that it is recommended for adults only. "The Bad Seed" a shocking story of a woman's love for her man—and for her child. Suspense will shake you as you delve with the story teller into the minds of the characters.

Friday and Saturday a picture filmed in Oregon on the slopes of Mt. Hood "Oregon Passage" with John Ericson as the Indian fighter with lovely Lola Albright as the major's wife. An exciting story from start to finish.

Second big hit—Lovely Molly Bee (the singing sensation) and her teen-age sweetheart, Allen Reed Jr. in "Going Steady" A cute romantic comedy of two kids who decide to get married after a basketball game.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday—Highly enjoyable entertainment with Rita Hayworth, Frank Sinatra and Kim Kovak in "Pal Joey." A picture in cinema scope and technicolor. Very nice songs and dances by Sinatra and Novak with excellent background added by Miss Hayworth.

Starts next week "Decision at Sundown" plus "Time Limit"

Estacada Ford Has New Manager

Harry Briggs, veteran automobile man, is assuming the management of Estacada Ford and Mercury, Lloyd Weir, owner. He has been sales manager of Harbor Motor Co. in Portland.

Mr. Briggs has been with the Ford organization for 20 years. He has been a Clackamas County resident for the past year at Sunnyside.

Chuck Baker has recently resigned as Estacada Ford manager and is presently enjoying a much deserved vacation in Montana. His future plans will be announced on his return next week.

Owen Smith is confined at home under Dr. Prices care due to a skin disorder, apparently it has been very painful. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Only winners of this award, presented annually in more than 6200 secondary schools throughout the country, are eligible to compete for Science Scholarships sponsored by the Bausch and Lomb Optical Co. at the University of Rochester.

The internationally famous Rochester, N. Y. optical firm provides for three or more scholarships annually, with flexible stipends based on financial need and with a total combined value of $9,000.

The Science Award Medal is presented upon graduation. However, the winner must be selected at an early date because applications for the scholarships must be filed with the University before March 1. The selection of the winner is based upon scholastic achievement in science, with incidental consideration of general academic standing, qualities of leadership and extra-curricular activities.
