DODGE

(By ANNE JUSTICE)
Mrs. Erin Phelan of Odell, Oregon, was at the Max Kishpaugh and Paul Justice homes on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Phelan is an old army friend of Mrs. Justice.

Bill Simmons, who drives for National Vanlines left early on Monday morning on another long haul trip.

The Capable Cooks met at the home of Mrs. Paul Slane on May 21. The meeting was called to order by the president Celia Beguein. Roll call was answered by naming our favorite drinks. We elected new officers as follows- President- Sally Reynolds, Vice Pres- Karlye Reynolds, Secretary- Celia Beguein, Reporter, Sherri Reynolds; song leaders- Christine Kishpaugh and Janet Caswell. Mrs. Slane served honey oatmeal cookies and milk and we worked on our cracker baskets. We returned home at 5:45. Next meeting will be at Elberta Simmons May 27.

Sally Reynolds of the Capable Cooks was presented a bouquet of a dozen red roses at her graduation last Thursday eve. The flowers were from fellow members and leaders of the club.

One of the most popular ways of entertaining the prospective bride is to give a shower for her. To ring a change on the inevitable kitchen, linen and bathroom themes, why not plan a bridal shower around a more original idea? Some possibilities: beach-ware, stationery, gloves, or (to take a tip from Grace Kelly's yacht shower) accessories for boats or picnics. You might design a shower to tie into the interests or future life of the girl. And have you thought of a barbecue or outdoor party for an engaged girl? Ask your guests to bring gifts suitable for outdoor cookery or entertaining.
