For A Bridal Shower

Highlight a bridal shower with this delicate Spry bride's cake. Tender, snowy-white layers are leed with satiny swirls of luscious frosting—simply decorated with glimmering silver dragées and pink rose buds. Glamorous, yet simple, this beautiful light cake is one any bride-to-be will be proud to cut. Here's the recipe.

"Bride-To-Be" Cake
2-1/2 cups sifted cake flour 1/2 cup less 1 tablespoon water
1-1/2 cups sugar 1/2 cup less 1 tablespoon milk
4 teaspoons double acting baking powder 2 teaspoons vanilla
1 teaspoon salt 2/3 cup Spry
5 egg whites, unbeaten

Sift first 4 ingredients into mixing bowl. Add water, milk and vanilla. Drop in Spry and beat 300 strokes (3 min. by hand or on mixer at low speed). Scrape bowl and spoon or beater several times during mixing. Add egg whites and beat 300 strokes (same as before). Bake in two 9" heart-shaped pans in moderate oven (375°F.) 25-30 min. Spread fluffy seven-minute frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake. With silver dragées, outline interlocking small hearts in center. Press pink sugar roses lightly into frosting around rim.

A Call For ME?

Milwaukee, long famous as the U. S. beer capital, adds another distinction—mobile telephones in rented cars. Here Milwaukee's "Miss Transportation of 1958," Sharon Aylne Engeldinger, tries out this Avis Rent-a-Car System innovation as William Orsh of Avis Milwaukee office explains how simple the mobile 'phone really is. With a girl as pretty as "Miss Transportation" at the wheel, the telephone should ring often!
