Arriving on Saturday for a few days' visit were Ola's step father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Newt Haney of Forest Grove. Driving them here were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Tower and Mrs. Florence Haney of Cornelius. Saturday night guests were Dr. and Mrs. Jim Base (the Dunstons daughter Barbara) from Portland. More guests joined the family party on Sunday including Marvin and Corda Dunstan. Mr. and Mrs. Hank Suter and George last Sunday drove to Cannon Beach and south to Tillamook accompanied by Jim Buhlinger. Currently visiting the Ora Gaylords are Ruth's nieces, Mildred and Ruth Ann Shaner. The girls father Lloyd Shaner works for an oil company in Venezuela. During the school year the girls live with an aunt near Marysville, Calif. Recent houseguests of the

Dick Day family include relatives from Marysville and cousins from Mt. Vernon, Wash. Mrs. Days father from Marysville, has also come for a few weeks visit. Visiting here from Spokane, Wash. are Margaret and Glen Bredemeier and their two daughters who arrived last weekend to camp at Timothy Meadows for a few days. Mrs. Bredemeier is the daughter of Gertrude White and sister of Catherine Wilson, Almeda Whitehead and Bud White. Last Sunday afternoon Mrs. Mary Buhlinger accompanied her sons Tony and Andy to see Andy's newly acquired cabin near Rhododendron. On the same afternoon Emma Buhlinger entertained her brother in law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Test of Portland. Late that day De and Starley Buhlinger Smith left for Corvallis, where they will stay while De attends summer school at OSC. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Shoup and Mrs. Shoup's son, Milton Garrison have moved from Eagle Creek to the coast area. Mr. Shoup, who was previously employed with Oregon City Ford has purchased Kelly's Grocery between Otis and Rose Lodge. Rev. Vernon Ross and Mrs. Maude Burnett have been in Portland this week attending the annual Presbyterian Synod held at Lewis & Clark college Westminister Fellowship young people had a picnic at Bonnie Lure Park last Sunday. Wednesday night of last week Joanne Burnett was persuaded to accompany her brother Tom to the Broadway theatre in Estacada. To her astonishment, she was winner of $200 given away by the theatre. In lieu of the strawberry festival in previous years sponsored by Eagle Creek Church Ladies' Aid a pot luck picnic is to be held at Eagle Fern Park this Friday evening, June 27 beginning about 6:30. Everyone is invited. A silver offering will be taken.

Misses Pamela and Judy Colson returned home last Saturday after spending a week visiting at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Meade.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Elwood (Jean Barrett) of Yuba Linda, Calif. are the proud parents of an 8 lb. 12 oz. boy, born June 18th. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Rivers of Eagle Creek are the maternal grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fourier and Jan and George Jr. recently returned from an enjoyable trip East. They went by plane to New York City, where they rented a car and saw much of the city. From there they went to Washington, D. C. After visiting many points of interest they went to Pontiac, Mich., and drove a new bus home.

George Fourier, Jr. is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Brix at McMinnville.

They say if you live long enough you can see everything. Local folks were startled Monday morning to see the American flag upside down on the U. S. Forest Service headquarters in Estacada. Evidently, someone must have goofed.

Swimming classes under the Estacada recreation program for children 8 to 14 years of age will begin July 8th. There will be two classes; one on Monday and Wednesday; another on Tuesday and Thursday.

lessons covering a five week period. The bus transportation is sponsored by the Estacada PTA. Sign up for swimming lessons at Mayrose's.
