County Fair Opens Aug. 20th

CANBY —The 52nd annual Clackamas County Fair will open Wednesday morning, Aug. 20 for four days of exhibition, competition and nightly rodeo performances. The hourly program through Saturday night was practically completed this week and entries already were being received in the livestock department.

The first livestock was entered by Donald Bischof of Stafford, who last year had two grand champions among his registered Hampshire sheep. Final date for livestock entries is 5 PM Saturday, August 9, but others may be accepted later than that if stall space is available.

The county court this week ordered repainting of the new floral exhibit building in the fair grove, where a county-wide flower show will be conducted during the fair under Federated Garden Club rules with Mrs. Vernon Ellers as supt. The flower show last year proved to be one of the leading attractions of the fair.

The Clackamas County Horsehoe tournament will be held Thursday, Aug. 21, not Saturday, August 23 as announced in the fair premium book. The date was changed to avoid conflict with the state tournament which will be held at Salem Aug. 23-24.

Rodeo Producer, Craig Landeen reported that plenty of contestants are lining up for the saddle bronc, bareback, Brahma bull riding, bulldogging, calf roping and other events. Among those who will be in the lists at Canby are the 1957 all around cowboy champion Jim Groves of Brooks, Alberta, and Harry Charters of Melba, Idaho, who won the all around championship last February at Houston, Texas, fat stock show, in which there were 612 contestants.

Another rodeo feature will be Bullfighter Duane Fuips battling Brahma bulls U. S. rules. Landeen also is arranging between the acts calf-riding competition for boys aged 9 to 12. Any boy may enter with written consent of his parents. A special chute will be built where boys and calves cannot come into contact with wild horses and bulls.

No extra admission will be charged for the nightly rodeo shows. Admission to the fair grounds will include access to everything going on in the grounds except carnival attractions.

An added feature this year will be a special exhibition of new foreign and sports automobiles. Clackamas County dealers already have signed up for display space for the latest imports from France, Germany Italy and England as well as two American makes and others are expected to enter the lists.

Space has been reserved immediately inside the main entrance for the sports car show.

For Flea-free Feline

A cat's nine lives can be a lot more comfortable and healthy if kept free of fleas. Cats attract fleas just as dogs do. However, to get rid of fleas on a cat, make sure to use a "cat flea powder," warns the Sergeant's Pet Care Center of Richmond, Va. It can be obtained at any drug or pet center. A dog flea powder usually contains ingredients unsafe for cats because they lick their fur.
