SQUARE DANCE FESTIVAL IS HUGE SUCCESS

The Square Dance Festival held last Saturday night on the new City parking lot behind the city hall was a huge success. Over 500 square dancers were in attendance with as many as 30 squares dancing on the huge concrete slab at one time. Everyone had a fine time and are looking forward to another festival.

Another added treat was the barbecued beef served by the members of the Estacada Rod & Gun Club. Harold Norton deserves most of the credit for his mass barbecuing invention which curled over a 100 lbs. of deliciously cooked beef at one time. The club made money too. Credit is extended to the promoters of the Festival and Barbecue.

Mrs. Pinkley's daughter, Mrs. Ruth Damewood and 7 sons of Glendale, Oregon, came on a visit from August 5 to 17. The same day 2 of Mrs. Pinkley's came, Mrs. Clara Mullen of Pendleton and Mrs. Mildred Slumpo and daughter from Port Washington, Wis. They had not seen each other for 40 years. A younger sister came last summer she hadn't seen in 30 years. Mrs. Damewood took Mrs. Shampo to Mt. Hood and around the Loop on the old highway. They plan on coming back and like Oregon very much. Mrs. Pinkley's daughter Mrs. Jane Aull of Portland; Mrs. Rachel Golden of Estacada and Blance Perry Peterson and son Arthur of Estacada also visited.

LINN HOUSE IS BURNED IN SPRINGWATER

A house owned by Elmer Linn in Springwater burned down last Wednesday night, August 13 following a misguided burning of a fescue field. The Linnns were living in another house on their place at the time.

NETHERLANDS — Captain Ziya Tansen stands on the superstructure of his ship, the only part of the Turkish freighter Aydin above water.
