CLACKAMAS COUNTY NEWS

DODGE

By Anne Justice
The Dodge Community Club met Friday eve at the Community hall and discussed plans for painting the outside of the hall. Various other subjects were discussed. Refreshments were served. Next meeting, the annual election of officers will be held. All members urged to check to see if their dues are paid and to attend this meeting.

The Dodge teenage club held a dance and taffy pull at the hall Saturday eve. All had an enjoyable evening. The teenagers are now busy making plans for a hayride in the near future.

Wed. P. M. the Capable Cooks held the first meeting of the new 4H year at the home of their leader Mrs. Justice. Plans were discussed for entering the Springwater Fair and for a Mothers tea. New officers took over their duties, they are Celia Begulien, pres. Sheri Reynolds, vice pres., Karyle Reynolds, reporter, Sally Reynolds, sec., Christine Kishpaugh, Janet Caswell and Kathy Davis, song leaders.

Christine Kishpaugh, Scott and Kevin Justice have been ill this past week. Tom Stroeder is sporting an inflamed eye as result of being hit in eye by a flying eraser at school.

Jack Kishpaugh spent several miserable days at home last week suffered from an injured back.

Eagle Creek

Everyone is glad to hear Bob Storey has returned home from the hospital much improved.

The Walter Smiths spent the week end at the beach. Paul and Lillian Still had the pleasure of caring for Audrey's two little boys last week.

Kenneth Ronnow and a college classmate spent a few days during the week at the beach.

Mrs. Adelle Hildahl and Mrs. Turner visited Dora Clester recently. Mrs. Hildahl just returned from a trip to Norway and Switzerland and entertained the Cesters with pictures of her trip.

The D. D. Hunt family have moved into the Bush property.

They have two children in school. World Fellowship Circle met on Sept. 10 at the church. Mrs. Olmstead was hostess. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Madge Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ronnils from Couer d' Lene, Idaho visited the Ed. Johnsons. Mrs. Ronnil is an uncle of Mrs. Johnson.
