HUGE HIGHWAY JOB IS NOW UNDERWAY
The largest concentration of heavy equipment ever assembled on a highway job is in use on the southwest Oregon coast where a record 1,000,000 cubic yards of earth and rock are being excavated along 16 miles of the Gold Beach-Brookings section of Highway 101.
The four sections of the new

27.5 mile, two-lane highway that are now under contract lie between the Pistol River and Brookings.
The terrain in this area is spectacular. Canyons ranging from 100 to 200 feet deep are being filled. Thomas Creek Canyon, over 360 feet deep, will be spanned by a metal 340-foot high structure, the highest in the state. The bridge and surfacing of the highway are expected to be completed in 1961.

The new road passes through 10-mile long, 1,477 acre Sam Boardman Park, exposing beaches and coves that in the past have been accessible only to a handful of hardy hikers.
The new highway, when finished, will eliminate the Gold Beach-Brookings section of old Highway 101 with its 206 curves of over 20 degrees. The relocated high way will allow the present travel time of over one hour of hard driving to be cut to 40 minutes or less.

probably going to Bible School. He will be getting to come home either the 14th or 17th of October. Mrs. Bob Bennett and three girls of Cottage Grove spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kiggins.
