Eagle Creek

By Margaret Ross
George Suter and Roy Gaylord accompanied by Phil Gentemann of Springwater, left Portland by special train last Saturday as Estacada H. S. delegates to the national convention of Future Farmers of America at Kansas City, Mo. The boys expected to return home this coming Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brackett last week welcomed the return home of their son Paul from the armed services. He has now enrolled at Portland State College. Their daughter Jean came out from Portland for a week end visit with her family.

Carl Ronnow Sr., left last Sunday to return to his home in Oakland, Calif., after a month's visit here with his son and family.

The Jesse Whislers during the past week welcomed a second visit with Fern's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Barnum, who are presently returning to their home in Salt Lake City, after touring the west coast. Another houseguest over Sunday was Mrs. Myrtle McCafferty of Portland. Also Lee Proctor made his first week end visit since resuming studies at OSC.

Weekend visitors of Dora Clesler included her daughter and son-in-law, Zola and Frank Black and granddaughters Doris and Karen Crane from Cottage Grove, daughter and son-in-law, Opal and Bill Gardner of Salem, and also her brother Herman Brackett and his wife and daughter Mary, from Rufus.

Mrs. Homer Glover spent five days early last week in Hermiston visiting with Mrs. Gertrude Sanders.

Florence Cloninger returned last Thursday from a week of hunting at Spray on the headwaters of the John Day. Friday dinner guests of Mrs. Cloninger were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rigden and children of Portland. Mrs. Cloninger's brother F. E. Davis of Forest Grove has been here since Friday helping her harvest her nut crop.

Houseguest of Mrs. Wm. Dunstan during this past week was Mrs. Vina Feyerabend, a former neighbor from Portland.

Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Frank White were Mrs. Edith Miller and a friend of hers from Portland. Mr. White is now sufficiently recovered from a slight stroke of 3 weeks ago so as to be able to do some of his own work again.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Hank Suter drove to Klondike in eastern Oregon to visit a cousin of Hank's. Emory Ford of San Diego was visiting in Eagle Creek last Sunday. He formerly operated the Eagle Creek garage. He had been widowed since then, has recently remarried and was accompanied on this trip by his new wife.

Another local resident who visited here last week at the Lonnie Smiths was Harry Wright, one time owner of Eagle Creek store. He is now employed with Reynolds Aluminum in Troutdale.

Mrs. Ed Reha has sold her home to Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wymore.

World Fellowship Circle met Wednesday of last week at the home of Madge Smith. The group voted to change its meeting date to the second Tuesday of each month.

Ernest Douglas is still in demand as an experienced hunter of big game. Sept. 4 he was called by a Wasco County rancher to come and help find a cougar. It was quite a trek and Mrs. Douglas waited at their tent at Bear Paw campground while the men drove into the Deschutes area. They got their cougar before too long, and Ern Douglas chalked up another for his record.

Garfield News

(By Lella Gordon)

Garfield Grange met on the regular date with Rena Davis as L. A. S., Ken Palmateer as A. S. and Roy Maxwell as Steward. Mary Poppino was obligated in the 3rd and 4th degrees and Jack and May Lacey were obligated in the 1st and 2nd degrees. Chmn. Roy Gordon read Mr. Inskeep's report on the Termites; Legs. Chmn. reported on the National Granges new permanent address and urged everyone to vote at the Nov. 4 election. He said if you don't vote don't speak if it don't turn out as you wish. He also reported that only 60 percent of registered voters go to the polls. Home Ec. Cmn. was absent. The Sec. gave the report on the last meeting. The quilt is about 1-3 finished and more workers are needed to finish it before Booster night. Lucy Middleton, Youth Chmn. reported the hospital equipment at the American Legion hall. It is available to any one in the Estacada School district without charge. The men have been working on the well house and Pete asked for volunteers to put on the siding and the new windows. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Klaetsch and children returned from a vacation and hunting trip to Prinville. Not much luck hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Steele had dinner at the Rollie Poppinos the 5th. It was the first time Mrs. Steele had been visiting for a long time as she has been confined to her home by illness nearly all summer.

At the reception Friday eve at the Grange hall for Mr. and Mrs. John Ledgerwood (LaDonna Anderson) about 100 were there to wish them happiness and to view the many lovely gifts.

Visiting and having dinner at the Jim Lambs Wednesday were two cousins, Salina Lamb and Mary Lamb both of Logan, Kansas. They were accompanied by Mary's son in law, Tommy Smith. He had driven their car for them. They had been visiting Salina's daughter Pearl Payne in Albany. Other dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Josh Courtain, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burke; and Gary, all of Estacada and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Danforth and Teddy of Oregon City. Mrs. Roy Britt formerly Letha Fay Courtain was there for a short - visit during the day.

NEEDS HELP!
ELMER DEETZ
Independent Candidate
For STATE SENATOR
Canby, Ore. Phone 3229

Send a man with American principles to the Oregon Legislature. Able - qualified - trustworthy! A proven friend of consumers, the working people and farmers. Deetz stands for good government at the lowest cost to taxpayers and is opposed to giving legislative powers to boards and commissions.

Elmer Deetz will be responsive to your problems, your interests and he will be unfettered by dictation from party politicians. Deetz will be completely free to work for you.

In the operation of his independent-one-man campaign Deetz needs the aid and support of the people he wishes to represent in the state legislature.

Volunteer workers desiring the right for freedom to work and run their own affairs the American way are needed to assist the Jug Dairyman in distributing campaign literature.

Workers in supporting a man who will allow only his conscience to dictate his representation of the people's interest can join in the campaign to support Deetz by contacting him at Canby 3229.
