Eagle Creek

By Margaret Ross
A surprise shower was given for Sylvia (Mrs. Tim) Leedham last Thursday evening at the Eagle Creek school. Cohostesses were Mrs. Bill Fletcher and Mrs. E. R. Anderson, assisted by Mrs. Virgil Courtain. 20 ladies feted the guest of honor, and 6 others also sent gifts. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Mabel Paine (Sylvia's grandmother) of Cathlamet and Mrs. Frances Leedham (Tim's mother) and three of her sisters, from Portland.

A farewell party was given for Mrs. Ed Reha on Wednesday morning, Nov. 5 at the home of Mrs. Len Verburg in Barton. 12 ladies of Barton and Estacada each presented the honoree with a pretty hankie. Mrs. Reha, having sold her home to Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wy-more moved last Sunday to S. E. Portland.

Last Friday night the Earl Wilsons entertained a group of teenagers of Barton church, the Seniors for Service, also their advisors, and their new pastor, Rev. Glen Frye and his family. The jubilant party, numbering 31, gathered after the successful football game at Estacada.

An interested company of relatives and friends gathered at the Lonnie Smith home on Saturday evening, Nov. 1, to view the Arctic slides shown by their grandson Wayne of his recent Coast Guard expedition. Wayne spent the weekend here, accompanied by a fellow officer from Boston. Also visiting were the Ernest Smiths of Newport, Loretta Sagner and the Roger Sagners of Portland. Local guests were Mrs. Evelyn Bryan and Mrs. Jesse Whisler and daughter Nancy.

Week end houseguests of the Tony Buhlingers were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rolstad of Bremerton. Mrs. Rolstad, a sister of Tony, also visited with her mother Mr. Mary Buhlinger. On Sunday they were dinner guests of the George Bales.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brackett went to Eugene last Sunday to visit friends.

Mrs. Wm. Dunstan last Monday visited her mother Mrs. F.N. Haney in Forest Grove.

Visiting the Glen Carters on the weekend of Nov. 1 were Curly's brother in law and sister Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lacey and children from Dallas.

Kenny Ronnow came home last Sunday from Forest Grove for the first time this fall to celebrate his 21st birthday. He was accompanied by three of his college friends.

Among those who returned for Estacada high school's homecoming football game and dance last Friday night were Lee and Frank Proctor and Fred Gaylord. Fred is now living in Portland while attending Portland State College. Lee and Frank stayed over the week end with the Jesse Whislers.

Mrs. Ambrose Paul Pearson returned home last Thursday from a Portland hospital where she had been receiving three weeks of treatment for a back injury in an auto accident. The accident had occurred on Oct. 13 near Clackamas in a car driven by Mrs. Homer Juker of Estacada. Mr. Pearson is employed at Roseburg. Caring for the five Pearson children at home during their mother's absence were Alice (Mrs. Richard) Hess and Miss Mildred Loucks.

Carlton Dudley returned last week from an elk hunting trip in eastern Oregon accompanied by his two brothers. They saw no elk but lots of big buck deer. On their deer hunting trip; earlier they found the elk grazing happily. We figure someone must have posted a calendar out there in wild life language to warn them of hunting seasons.

Eagle Creek's official school census for the current year was taken during the last week of October by Sibyl (Mrs. George) Baley, who is the clerk of the local school board. She reported that there are 164 children and young people, between the ages of 4 to 19 residing in this district. Of these 86 are attending Eagle Creek Grade School. Hers was not an easy job, but we are told that Sibyl's friendly spirit made her a welcome visitor at many homes, especially some seldom-visited homes on the lonely by-ways of our community.
