

Timely fall rains filled the lake behind Portland General Electric company's newly completed North Fork dam providing sufficient flow in the Clackamas river to spill the water shown tumbling back into the river on the downstream side of the dam. Late Saturday afternoon Nov. 22 PGE President Fray M. Warren Jr., threw a

Disney Film Heads Broadway Fare

Now playing at the Broadway Walt Disney's first true life fantasy, 'Perri' the life story of a squirrel in nature's own ways. This sometimes comical, suspenseful but always heart warming story will play for two days only Nov. 26 and 27. This film will be accompanied by the academy-award winning featurette 'Wet-back Hound'.

Friday and Saturday a cinema-scope color picture starring Robert Taylor and Richard Widmark 'THE LAW AND JAKE WADE' starts with the excitement of a jail break to free the west's most notorious criminal; builds to tension when the killer kidnaps the sheriff and the girl he loves and is climaxed by a deadly gun duel. Second feature 'Wolf Dog' starring Jim Davis and Allison Hayes. A cinema-scope picture about an ex-convict, a boy and his dog. A tale of thrills an action on a Canadian ranch. Thrill-packed adventure aptly describes this film.

Sunday thru Tuesday Walt Disney's technicolor production of 'THE LIGHT IN THE FOREST' starring Fess Parker, Carol Lynley and James MacArthur. A white boy raised by the Indians returns home to find himself in strange surroundings. His efforts to adjust himself are hampered by his uncle who hates Indians. His uncle beats him and shoots his best friend. This drives the boy away but he returns with his bride to be to claim his land and settle down.

ATTEND SILVER ANNIV. CONVENTION OF PACIFIC COOPERATIVES

Delegates from Gresham Cooperative, local member of Pacific Cooperatives, attended the recent silver anniversary convention of Pacific Cooperatives recently in Portland, November 17-19. Attending from this area were Frank S. Battaglia, vice-president and voting delegate, and Richard H. Wilcox, secretary-manager of the local cooperative. One local man, Mr. Battaglia, reported that the convention consisted of reports on how the regional wholesale cooperative was progressing in the field of farm supplies. At the meeting, Pacific general manager, Charles Baker, told the delegates that Pacific has made great strides in the development of petroleum and fertilizer sources.

A report was given announcing that Pacific Cooperatives, representing its 119 member farm cooperatives throughout the three Northwest states, is part owner of the new $15 million phosphate plant being constructed at Georgetown, Idaho.

Representing the local women at the Hen House Fair division of the convention were Mrs. H. E. Harmon of Route 1 Eagle Creek and Mrs. Wayne Waugh of Portland.
