MOTOR CONVICTIONS ARE ON INCREASE
District and Municipal courts and justices of the peace throughout the state of Oregon, reported 11,912 driver convictions during the month of November according to figures released today by the Department of Motor Vehicles. This is nearly one thousand more than were reported for the same period in 1957.
247 persons received mandatory license suspensions for driving while intoxicated, an act automatic with a conviction. Additional suspensions of one year were ordered in 89 cases for drivers found operating a car while already under a previous suspension.

New Lowrey Home Organ Has Many New Musical Features

Beginners and experts alike will find Lowrey's new Heritage model an exciting organ to play. In addition to deep, true organ tone, it plays with many instrumental "voices," such as guitar, harp, chord, or vibraharp, which the player calls up at the touch of a tab. Touch-tabs which provide instant voice changes make it especially versatile and easy to play. With the help of Lowrey "Mini Music" a beginner starts playing pleasing tunes right away. Estacada Elec. is introducing this new Lowrey organ this week with a special open house and demonstration.
