WAYNE SMITH WRITES OF ACTIVITIES ON THE U. S. C. G. C. NORTHWIND IN ARTIC

Sunday, December 28, 1958
Dear Folks:
Well it's morning, exactly 15 minutes after Saturday. I just got the boat engineer watch, have to stay up until four this morning to run the boats for flight quarters. It is very bright out now and will be all night. We reached McMurdo Sound this morning. Kind of late getting here because of two ships we escorted down kept getting stuck in the ice. Then the Nespelin (an oil tanker) broke one blade of one screw in the ice and reduced our speed to 6 knots. It was really a slow trip down.
We haven't received any mail since we left New Zealand. So far I have received one letter from you (in San Diego) and one from grandmother in New Zealand.
At the present time they don't know where we are going. If we are to stay here for about 6 or 7 days a group of us from the ship want to climb Mt. Arabus. It is an active volcano, approximately 13 to 14 thousand feet in height, completely covered with ice and snow and has never been climbed. Navy personnel tried it last year and never came back. If that is true, we probably won't be able to go. The trip would take about 5 or 6 days. Of course its still all talk.

Monday, Jan. 5, 1959
Well they are taking mail out tomorrow so will finish this up. It is 5 in the morning now. We got mail a couple of days ago. I received 3 packages from you and two letters from you. Thanks a lot but it must have cost an awful lot. I sure hope it didnt wreck your budget. I haven't bought any Christmas gifts but have some souvenirs for you.
Christmas day we had a wonderful dinner and Santa Claus came also. On New Years eve we were at Little America so that evening we had a party on the ice and roasted beef steaks, seal steaks and penguin. The seal and penguin meat were delicious. Played basketball, volleyball and baseball. At Little America we moved the ship to the bay ice (as we do everywhere) and on New Years morning it broke up. We left that afternoon and came to McMurdo Sound. At the present time we are going to Cape Hallett and back here, then to Lyttleton and back.
Yesterday I went to church services held on the ship by a Navy Chaplain. We had communion at the same time and Mother I feel much the better for it. I haven't had the time or energy before to write but there has been no mail going out either, until now. I dont know of much else to write. Last week they moved me back to the after berthing compartment to be M. A. A. They figured that if I had to sleep there I would make the firemen (peons) sleeping there clean the place up. It was a real hole. When they inspected on Saturday they said it looked "damn good."
Just now heard about 3 o'clock yesterday a plane crashed here killing one instantly, one died later and all the other three are on the critical list.
