To the Editor: Our A. P. A. friends having again emerged from the dungeon with their platform...

What is the meaning of the word 'true Americanism' as defined and understood in your order? Do you hold that an infidel, an agnostic, a Jew, a Catholic, or a believer in revealed religion...

Do you hold it to be in accordance with the principles of our government and a profitable mode of political procedure that you should be an 'interested party'...

We denounce the republican party for its entire failure to perform any promise it made to the people of Oregon in the year 1896...

We demand the reduction of official salaries to correspond with the reduction in the wages of labor and the prices of products of labor.

The change of time, via the Northern Pacific and Burlington route, effective Sunday, April 20th, enables passengers to leave Portland...

reasonable? Are you not ashamed that you did it? If the Reverend Boardman, or any of his staff, will answer the above questions he will assist in spreading the light.

WATERVILLE, May 2, 1896. Editor REGISTER: Please allow me, through your most valuable paper, to ask our Populist brethren and our liberal friends to make our candidate as comfortable as possible...

This departure from the truth is probably due to the excited condition of mind of the adolescent Register youth consequent on the prospect of a further union of reform forces...

We know the youth of the Register is excited over the prospect of another union of reform forces and the chance of having some of the other reformers cut off...

The greatest fault of the Salem Journal could be traced up to such names as Dr. Mearns, McElroy, Miller and Skinner, who is in favor of them in the same article...

And the A. P. A. prognosticates that before this campaign ends, if the Register persists in his course of personal assaults and offensive insinuations toward Mr. Baker...

J. H. Veatch Declines. J. H. Veatch, the people's party candidate for sheriff, has withdrawn from the race...

Tommy Tongue is 'spell-binding' people for from two to three hours each at each place he is billed to speak.

After stating that he had expected to go as a delegate to Chicago and try to get the Democratic party to 'throw off its rottenness'...
