SENSATIONAL SERMON.

Dr. Acton Predicts a Revolution in This Country. Seattle, May 26.—J. H. Acton, pastor of the First Unitarian church, in preaching the baccalaureate sermon in the university of Washington today, developed a sensation by picturing the present condition of the world in the darkest possible colors, and prophesying a speedy revolution in the United States, which, he said, would be accomplished "at the cannon's mouth, if need be."

Wanted to Lick Corbett.

Little Rock, Ark., May 25.—Pugilist Corbett narrowly escaped losing his life at the hands of a wild-eyed crank, armed with a revolver, at Hot Springs yesterday. As he was walking along Central avenue, a man suddenly sprang from a doorway, and, facing the pugilist, demanded to know if his name was Corbett. "I am going to lick you right here,"
