The War.

Fighting has been raging during most of the past week in Philippines with increased vehemence. The insurgents are giving way before our army falling back in the interior, and when pressed disappear only to pop up some other place to give battle.

The Oregon troops were in these latter fights. We have no accurate account of the casualties to our troops at the present. Indeed it is not at all likely that we shall ever know what has befallen our men in Philippine.

Another Battle.

We have room only to say another battle was fought on the 27th in which 2 Oregon boys were killed and eleven wounded. The killed were Stranden and Hays B. Taylor. The Oregon wounded were Dan Bowman of Pendleton and Geo. Grace of Lafayette.
