

THE BROAD AXE.

PUBLISHED WEDNESDAY BY J. P. Amis... OFFICE: ROOM 112 THE BUCKLE BUILDING, COR. WILLAMETTE AND BROAD STREETS.

The Georgia Outrage.

Contrary to our usual custom we publish in another place one of the most horrible tragedies ever situated in any land or sea having any pretense to civilization.

It's a Go.

The Eugene Broad-Axe solicits an exchange with the Plaindealer. It's a go, Bro. Amis, although your paper puts us in a very bad humor every time we read it.

Editorial Miscellany.

And now a late dispatch from Manila says that the insurgents are suing for peace, and a later one disputes it. Hope the first is true.

Did Not Hang.

At 5 o'clock p. m. of Thursday a telegram was received by the sheriff of Douglas county from Gov. Geer informing him that he had commuted J. M. Oberman's sentence to the pen for life.

Wool Is Bull.

Portland, Or., April 25.—Judications point toward an extremely sluggish wool market, with no dealings between July and August.

A Storm In Iowa.

Osaka, April 27.—A special to the Bee from Osaka, Ia., says a terrific wind storm, followed by rain and hail, swept the Soldier valley last night.

The Mortgage.

Put this up over your front door and read it every day until you have made up your mind never to give of your own free will, a mortgage upon your home.

A Woman's Town.

At a recent city election at Beattie, Kansas, two tickets were in the field, one composed of women and the other of men.

Oak Hill Items.

The weather has been very rainy this past week. Misses Edith and Elsie Hagard were guests of the Misses Neels Sunday.

Communicated.

Irving, Or. Apr. 24, 1899. Editor Broad-Axe:—Dear Sir: In a recent article in your paper under title of "The County Poor" I notice you cast some reflections on the county court as well as on some individuals.

Hundred Persons Killed.

St. Louis, April 27.—A special to the Globe-Democrat from Kirksville, Mo., says: A gathering storm that had been threatening all afternoon broke upon Kirksville at 6:20 o'clock tonight in all the fury of a cyclone.

A Degraded Couple.

A shocking scene occurred on the streets Sunday April 23d when a man and woman drove through town at a breakneck speed. Both were intoxicated. They were intercepted near the court house by Marshal Stiles and the man, who gave his name as Hiram Smith, of Harrisburg, was placed under arrest and locked up.
