HENRY DAY A DEFAULTER

Deputy Sheriff H. Day, who it is unnecessary to describe as there is no one in the county better known, decamped October 20th taking with him $2,110.49, money, collected by him as taxes. A warrant has been issued for his arrest, and a reward of $100, has been offered by the county for his apprehension. When last heard from he was in Portland Sunday October 22. A more unexpected occurrence has not happened in Lane county since the defection of Tom Craig, as postmaster of Eugene; nor has a more affecting circumstance ever taken place. Mr Day, comes of most respectable parentage on each side of the family, and is related to a large circle of people in the county who stand high in community. We forbear further comment at present, and shall wait in the hope that time will develop matters more favorable to all concerned.

Mr Withers says the county shall not lose a farthing on account of his deputy as he will make every cent good. Mr Withers deserves the sympathy of everyone.

Since the above was in type Mr Withers has refunded the money embezzled by Day. Rudolph Wenger of Eugene lost his life suddenly Tuesday by falling against the saw of the Eugene Lumber Company while in motion. Mr Wenger's head was nearly severed from the body, and one of his arms badly mangled before the motion of the saw could be stopped. Mr Wenger was a German, and had been employed in the mill some seven years. He was about 46 years of age, and leaves a wife and seven children.

William Coleman, the well known colored manager called "Cole," died at his room over Wald's restaurant Thursday forenoon at 10 o'clock, after a brief sickness aged 49 years. "Cole" was brought to Lane county with his grandmother, by James Southworth, who was one of our early pioneers, residing near Frank, in Lane county, in the year 1833. He was born in Missouri in 1850, a slave, and was purchased by Mr. Southworth.

In 1850 he was presented by Mr Southworth to Joseph Teal, who was a prominent merchant here at that time. About 1850, Mr Teal turned the boy over to John Wheeler, since Governor, who took him to his farm on Pleasant Hill and kept him for several years. Afterwards he returned to Eugene lived with several different parties for years, until in recent years he had depended principally upon Wm. Renshaw. Mr. Teal named him after the respected pioneer, Wm. Coleman, deceased.

Trouble At Sweet Home. J. P. Hahn and Albert Weddle, both of Sweet Home, got into an altercation last Saturday evening October 21, in which Weddle was seriously stabbed by Hahn.

The Cattle Market. Spring calves are selling now at from $11 to $12 per head. Steer yearlings at $18 to $20 per head. Cows at 24 cents per pound on foot, and steers at 4 and 4 1/2 cents.

LOST OVERCOAT. An overcoat good as new, was lost on the road from head of tide on the Siuslaw to Eugene about the 5th or 6th of October. The finder will please send the same to the Broad-Axe office by the stage and get a suitable reward.

LADIES. Who desire dressmaking done should call on me, and get our special bargains. From this date until Thanksgiving we shall be able to do all kinds of work belonging to our trade at prices unequalled.

FROM THE WIRES. ROBBERS AT SUMPTER.

Sumpter, Or., Oct. 25.—The saloon of Baldwin & Allright was held up by two masked men about midnight and a game which was being conducted in a back room was relieved of $174. There were seven men in the room when the robbers entered. None of them was armed except the bartender, and his revolver was taken from him. After compelling the bartender and players to stand up against the wall, the robbers took all the money in sight and escaped through a back door.

Colville, Washington, Oct. 25.—Mrs. Nannie Madden Brown is now on trial for her life in the superior court, the case coming up yesterday, and the work of securing a jury continuing today, with failure so far to provide the necessary 12 men. Mr. Brown, October 10, shot and killed her husband, L. J. Brown, a dance-hall and saloon-keeper at Northport. She discovered him in a locked room with another woman, of whom he had become enamored, and when he came to the door she killed him.

FEUDS IN KENTUCKY. London, Ky., October 24.—Tom Whitmore and Dan Parker were ambushed yesterday on Horse creek, enroute to the Clay county circuit court. The former was killed and the latter wounded. Bob Travis was killed at Hamlet. A report states that A. Philpot enroute to the Manchester court, was ambushed and killed at Pigeon Roost today. Trouble is reported on Sexton's creek between the White and Baker factions. Circuit Judge Eversole, fearing assassination, did not go to Manchester, and the opening of court was delayed. The Griffins and Philpots are present in large numbers, heavily armed. Manchester is crowded, and the situation looks grave.

Tacoma, Oct. 25.—Last night Mrs. Eva Llewellyn was awakened by a burglar ransacking her room. Springing out of her bed she ordered him to put up his hands and relieved him of several articles he had stolen from her. She then notified the police who arrested him.

J. R. Willard, who killed Perry near Salem the other day was held by Justice Johnson to appear before the grand jury for murder in the first degree, says the Journal of October 30th.

Juan Garcia, a Cuban, and his sweetheart, Miss Rosie Mahoney, daughter of a prominent publisher, were found dead in the road near Peoria Ill. Garcia had shot the girl and then himself.

SLUM IN SHITTEN BARK. There has been a slump in the shitten bark market. Bark is flat, and in demand. The gathering of this bark has been quite an industry, especially in some of the coast counties, for several years past, and many of the gatherers have derived quite an income from it, as 3 cents, and sometimes 4 cents per pound, was paid for the bark. The greater portion of the bark is exported, and the yearly demand for all purposes has been about 400 tons. This year about 1,000 tons has been gathered, and the business has been overdone, and the bark is worth only about 3 cents per pound in New York; and when any can be sold here it brings only about 14 cents per pound, and the demand is very small.

A SUCCESSFUL FARMER.

We copy from an exchange the following; which we can verify as substantially correct, as the editor of the Broad-Axe is personally acquainted with the party named: Baxter Young, of Lane county has shown what can be accomplished by thrift and energy on an Oregon farm. A little less than 13 years ago he purchased a small farm on Fall Creek, about 15 miles southeast of Eugene. He has been adding to that farm year to year, until he now owns 1443 acres of land. Most of the land was purchased at a very low price, and he has cleared since moving there 530 acres. The soil is excellent, and after clearing off the timber he has sown grass seed and obtained an excellent stand of grass, upon which he has turned cattle. He purchased a number of goats to assist him in clearing the land, as they eat the young shoots and prevent the growth of brush. He now owns 200 head of goats, from which he this year obtained 600 pounds of mohair, which brought him about 30 cents per pound, or $180.

Last spring he sold $1400 worth of beef cattle, and he is always able to obtain the highest market price for his beef, owing to their being well fattened on grass. On a part of his farm, among the stumps, he has sown oatgrass. This he raises for seed, and he is now marketing his crop, which for this year amounts to 9000 pounds, which he sold for 81 cents per pound, or $765. He is obliged to cut the orchard grass with cradles, and after gathering the crop turn his goats in for the winter to eat off the growth of brush and put the land in good condition for another crop. He also markets smaller quantities of produce from time to time, obtaining a revenue of not less than $2500 per year from land which but a few years ago was nonproductive, and which cost him but little aside from his own work.

Nothing new since my last. Hard times are closing in. There is a great scarcity of small coins for change. One-half of the sheep have been sold and driven from the country. The weather has been very changeable the last ten days. It snowed 4 inches deep the 11th which laid on the ground three days. Has been raining the last two days. The new hotel will soon be completed. The railroad will be built to Cross Hollow early in the spring which will help this country out greatly in the way of getting in freight, and shipping out stock. There is some talk of throwing the Blue mountain range into a government reserve. CALIENTE.

SORGHUM CANE. We notice that Mr Kirkpatrick of Eugene has this year demonstrated the fact that a fine quality of sorghum cane can be grown here, and a first class syrup produced from same. Mr Kirkpatrick this season planted six acres to sorghum near Eugene which grew to perfection, of which he is producing an excellent quality of syrup. Why not others go into the industry?

BRIEF MENTION.

Locals scarce. Nice fall weather. Roads getting good. Wheat 44 cents at the mill. Dr. Lowe, optician, with Joe Loeky. Call on Sam Friendly for your fall goods. Overton's for wall paper, oils and paints. Wood wanted at the Eugene Photo Studio. Bicycle tires $1.50 at Matlock & McClanahan's. A V. Peters is closing out at very low figures. Sundries, repairing, etc., at Matlock & McClanahan's. Attorney Kissinger is confined to his room with a tedious attack. A letter from Mr. Tipton of Blachfy is crowded out this week. The Eugene-Florence stage line will henceforth be three times a week. There is much demand for cattle of all grades, and at good prices. Z. M. Brown the cattle man of Prineville was in town a few days this week. Buy an X-Ray Sulky plow and be happy. Sold by McClanahan & Simpson. See our clubbing list and secure your winter's reading on most favorable terms. X. X. Rays Gang plow, the best on earth—See them at McClanahan & Simpson's. The new Pitts lever harrow never breaks or loses a tooth; see them at F. L. Chambers. The small pox is in Albany. Three cases are reported one of which a Mr. Perkins will die. Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our aid, address the "Patent Record," Baltimore, Md. Ted Perry was shot and killed October 24, on a farm four miles south of Salem, by J. A. Willard. There is a demand for all the teams and laborers on the Mohawk branch of the railroad, and at good wages. Pure Whiskey Harper Perfect Whiskey Harper every bottle guaranteed Harper. Sold by C. Hodge, Eugene, Oregon. Peter Johnson and George Weider returned from Bohemia last week, where they have been several weeks opening a mine. We are glad to see our optician Dr. Watts back from Portland where he had been to attend a meeting of the profession. Gilbert Gibertson was shot for a bear near Glendale October 29, and crippled for life, by one Chris Hagne a boy 17 years of age. A complete stock of buggies, spring farm wagons on hand; also some good bargains in secondhand buggies, etc. at F. L. Chambers. Mr. C. Calvert Smoot, of the First Baptist Church of Eugene, was ordained into the ministry of that church in Eugene October 29. Rev. James Howard of Halsey will locate the present year at Dillard Oregon but will preach once a month for the church at Elmira. The third carload of Bain wagons sold this year by F. L. Chambers speaks for itself as to the popularity of the "Bain" Day no other. Superior stoves and ranges need no further recommendation than to state there are hundreds of them giving perfect satisfaction in Eugene and Lane county. See them at F. L. Chambers. J. H. Briggs of Hadleyville visited us Friday and got another year's supply of AXES, which will do him much service clear up to the presidential and State elections. John's head is level.

Don't forget to call on Frank Chambers when you want a fanning mill, a bicycle, a buggy, a wagon, any kind of seeds, or just "any old," or new thing. Other plows which are on the market claim to be as good as the Oliver but none of them claim to be any better. A carload of Oliver's just received at F. L. Chambers. The time is now here for the farmer to begin sowing his fall wheat, but he should not do so until he gets one of those "Monitor" drills—seeders at F. L. Chambers. The rain is over; so now if you are going fishing, buy your fishing material of F. L. Chambers. His prices are right and his stock is complete. Joseph Willard shot and killed T. D. Perry at Liberty near Salem, Oct. 26, over turning a heifer in a stubble field. Perry had rented from Millard. Perry, the coronor's jury finds, was not justified in the killing. We notice that our Johnny Howe was in Lebanon a few days ago, measuring up people for their suits of winter clothes. Johnny is a rustler from away back and you will make no mistake if you order a suit through him. It is a well known fact that all classes of hardware have advanced very materially in price, but F. L. Chambers had a large and well selected stock, bought before the advance which he is now giving his customers the benefit of. The Arizona Williams News says deer are so plentiful in its vicinity that several nimrod's thereabouts have absented themselves from their wives after the game to such an extent as to endanger several suits for divorces. We notice going through the papers that "Governor Whiteaker is lying very low at his home in Eugene and not expected to live." This is untrue. Governor Whiteaker is as well as common and is seen at the postoffice daily for his mail. J. C. Bushnell of near Eugene presented this office with a fine sample of dried prunes of the Petite variety. Mr. Bushnell mentions called our attention to an article clipped from the Broad-Axe written by H. B. Miller, president of the Horticultural Association in which a great many sweeping misleading and untrue assertions are made, calculated to damage the fruit growers of Oregon. When we have more space and time we shall refer to this matter farther.

A Fan. A Fanning Mill that will take out wild peas and everything else quick; bring in a sample of your dirty grain and try it. F. L. CHAMBERS. THE NEW YORK WORLD. The most widely circulated "weekly" newspaper in America is the Third-Week edition of The New York World, and with the Presidential campaign now at hand you cannot do without it. Here are some of the reasons why it is easily the leader in a dollar a year journalism. It is issued every other day and is to all purposes a daily. Every week each subscriber receives 18 pages, and often during the "busy season" 24 pages each week. The price is only $1.00 per year. It is virtually a daily at the price of a weekly. Its news covers every known part of the world. No weekly newspaper could stand alone and furnish such service. The Third-Week World has at its disposal all of the resources of the greatest newspaper in existence—the wonder of modern journalism—"America's Greatest Newspaper," as it has been justly termed—"The New York World." Its political news is absolutely impartial. This fact will be of especial value in the Presidential campaign coming on. The best of current fiction is found in its columns. These are truly some of the reasons; there are others. Read it and see them all. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the Broad-Axe together one year for $1.45. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00.
