

A SET RULES.

Suggested By a Man Who Has Amassed a Fortune.

A set of rules for young men to follow are those laid down by a man who built up an immense business, the ramifications of which extended all over the United States. They will bear perusal, and are as follows:

Keep good company or none. Never be idle.

If your hands cannot be usefully employed, attend to the cultivation of your mind.

Always speak the truth. Make few promises.

Live up to your engagements. Keep your own secrets, if you have any.

When you speak to a person look him in the face.

Good company and good conversation are the very sinews of virtue.

Good character is above all things else.

Your character cannot be essentially injured except by your own acts.

If anyone speaks evil of you let your life be so that none will believe him.

Never get drunk, therefore do not drink intoxicating liquors.

Ever live (misfortunes excepted) within your income.

Make no haste to be rich if you would prosper.

Small and steady gains give competency, with tranquility of mind.

Never play at a game of chance. Earn money before you spend it.

Never run in debt unless you see a way to get out again.

Never borrow if you can possibly avoid it.

Do not marry unless you are able to support a wife.

Never speak evil of anyone. Be just before you are generous.

Keep yourself innocent if you would be happy.

Save when you are young, to spend when you are old.

Read over the above maxims at least once a week.

A Perfect Balance

Of mind and body was the Roman idea of perfect health. They defined this balance as "a sound mind in a sound body." A weak or sickly body tends to drag down the mind to its own level. Keep the body in health and the mind will take care of itself. The health of the body depends mainly on two things: A sound stomach and pure blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery preserves the balance of health, because it makes the stomach strong and the blood pure. People who had not had a well day in years, nervous of body, depressed of mind, have been perfectly cured by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery."

"During the summer and fall of 1861 I became all run down," writes Charles H. Bergant, Esq. of Plain City, Madison Co., Ohio. "My nerves were out of order and stomach was out of order. I wrote to Doctor Pierce for advice. He said I had general debility, and advised Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I used six bottles, and since I stopped taking it, about one year ago, I have not taken any medicine of any kind, and have been able to work every day. My appetite is good. I do not feel that burning in the stomach after eating and my blood and nerves are in good shape."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.

Unloading.

This paper is glad to announce that it has about unladen a lot of surplus lumber which we took on when we assumed to supply the paper to parties who had unexpired subscriptions to the Record at the time we bought out Mr Moore.

We wish to state for the information of parties concerned that during all these months, in several cases running beyond a year that we have supplied the paper not one cent has been realized by us by way of compensation, and therefore it is a matter of relief to us to know that we have filled our contract and can dispense with the prosecution of a profitless job.

That Century?

Let the Broad-Axe have its say. Here it is.

January 1 of 1900, does not signify that we have completed the 1900th year, but that we are upon the first day of the 1900th year 1900. But the twentieth century cannot begin until the 1900th year is completed, which will be on December 31, 1900. So the Twentieth century will begin Jan 1, 1901.

A Modern Parable

And there was a man and his wife and several little children who dwelt in a poor tenement house in a rich little city, where wealth, ease, and comfort abounded. And many churches and schools and professed christians were within in this city. Even a Divinity school was therein.

And this poor man was sick, and his wife and children had but scant raiment, to cover their bodies, nor food to eat nor fuel to make them a warming fire.

And behold a preacher passed along by this sick man's house looked in and went on his way. And a self righteous Eugeneite passed this house on the other side, and left the sick man and his family to their fate. But behold a good man from Coyote, known as Ben Owen for short who was a native of the land, and was a despised Populist, a free silverite, a patron of the Broad-Axe who never lets his subscription run out, and a true christian passed along by this sick man's humble abode and looked in and at once had compassion on the man and his family, and straightway hastened to load up the delivery wagon with meat flour and such other delicacies as the family need, and paid the cash out of his own pocket for the stuff. Now the question is who is neighbor to this poor man and his family?

And did Ben Owen do by this man and his family as he would have others do by him under similar circumstances? And where will Ben be when the Judge shall say on that day "Come ye blessed of my Father inherit the Kingdom, for I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger and ye took me in; naked and ye clothed me; I was sick and ye visited me?" See 25 chapter of Mathews.

We call especial attention to Mr Hubble's card in this issue and can recommend him as the right man in his place. This we know from years of experience with him in his line of business.

Call For Meeting of Democratic Central Committee.

Our correspondent at Blachley last week asked us to state through this paper "how the delegates to the Democratic County Convention will be apportioned?"

In reply we will say this is a matter which will be determined by the County Central Committee, we presume a meeting of which is called as published in the Guard to meet the 27th of January 1900, a copy of which is published below.

"The members of the Democratic Central Committee are hereby called to meet at the Court House in Eugene, Oregon, on to-wit: Saturday, the 27th day of January 1900, at 1 o'clock, P. M. for consultation concerning primary meetings and other matters."

L. L. STEVENS, J. J. WALTON,
Secretary. Chairman.

It will be noticed from the "call" that it concerns Democrats only, and has no reference to members of either the Populists or free silver Republicans, hence the Broad-Axe is unable to say just what course political events will take. One thing is certain; and that is if the people of the county do not want a repetition of the last four years in the county administration, with increased taxation, and county indebtedness with nothing to show for it, they would better bestir themselves. The old ringmaster and party hacks are just now quite active setting up their stakes. The cards are being shuffled. The ring is doing the shuffling, the ring will cut the cards, the ring will deal them, and the ring will hold the trumps, if the people independent of party affiliation do not take an active part in the game.

Oak Hill Items;

January 9, 1900.

The stage passed this way Monday going to Eugene. I guess the Cantrell lane is too much for it.

Mr H A Bower had his land surveyed yesterday.

Messrs Jo and Norman McFall visited with their parents in Eugene Saturday and Sunday.

Mr Kimery and family who are stopping with Mr McFalls here went to visit his parents last Friday near Irving and returned yesterday.

Several of our farmers are intending to put in flax the coming spring in this vicinity.

Quite a lot of wood is being cut in this neighborhood on the Powell hill, Christiness, Volney Hemenways and Mr Tralers farms.

Mr Wm Mathews and family visited at C W Powells Sunday.

Mrs Malett and Mrs Traxler and Miss Shepherd visited with Mrs J W Neets the past week.

There is to be an oyster supper to which quite a number are invited at Mr Christners next Friday evening.

Mr Traxlers Sunday school at Oak Hill have purchased a new stove which was set up last Saturday.

Mr L E Haggard went to Fall creek recently. SAMBA.
