STATE REPUBLICAN CLUB.

State Secretary Wells Talks of the Coming Convention.

If indications are not at fault, there will be a large and enthusiastic gathering of representative republicans in Portland next month to attend the meeting of the state league. Secretary Wells is receiving notifications of the election of delegates daily and is filing them away for use at the meeting. About May 1 he will send out notices to all clubs that have not by that time sent in a list of delegates, reminding them of the meeting. In response to a query as to what was new in league circles, he said: "There has been a revival in republican enthusiasm that is simply marvelous, considering the fact that there is no campaign at hand. All over the state new clubs are being organized and old ones remodeled or strengthened. The senatorial contest seems not to have had the disintegrating effect predicted, but rather to have aroused republicans to the fact that harmony in the party must be preserved for the great contest of 1896, only a year hence. National questions so important are to be settled that local differences must be buried and disgruntled persons must pass over their grievances for the general good. I have just had printed 1000 copies of the constitution and by-laws recommended for adoption by local clubs, and am sending them in every mail to persons calling for them in organizing new clubs or in putting old ones on a more permanent footing. Fine and large as was our club organization last year, it will be very much strengthened this year because of the meeting to be held. This of itself should make the meeting desirable, but there are other reasons for holding it. "The state organization here has not been closely enough connected with the national league in the past. It has not contributed to the support of the national organization, nor have the local clubs helped to support the state club. All this should be remedied, in order that better work may be done, and the full benefits of organization be derived. A new state constitution has been drawn up and is being considered by the executive committee for recommendation to the league at its meeting. This is the result of the experience of the committee in managing the club during the past year, and is calculated to render the state organization permanent and continuously active, and more in harmony with the national league. It provides for small yearly dues from local clubs, based upon their membership, and gives clubs representation in the league only in proportion to the membership upon which they have paid dues. This will be but a light tax upon each club, and yet will furnish all the money necessary to render the league a powerful and continuous influence for good in the party, and keep the organization from becoming dormant or dying out. "I am preparing a republican league register, that will show who have been and are now the working members of the party in Oregon. It will contain a complete roster of clubs, with the names of their officers and number of members; also the names of all republicans who have served as delegates to the league meetings, to the state nominating convention, as members of the state central committees, as members of the state legislature, in official positions of any kind, as well as those who, while they have not held official positions, are known as active working republicans in their respective localities. This will embrace fully 3000 names. The effect of such a publication would be to increase pride in party organization and stimulate its members to even more active efforts for its success. It is such things as these that make a club organization of great value in keeping party enthusiasm alive and in stimulating its members to constant work. The cost of such a publication would be considerable, but I have no doubt republicans throughout the state generally would gladly contribute the necessary money, realizing the benefits to be derived. "No place for holding the meeting has yet been selected. This will be done when the probable number of delegates that will attend has been learned. If the clubs are all fully represented there would be something over 1000, and it would require a very large hall to accommodate them and the large number of spectators that would be present. The Exposition building or the Armory might be rented. If a much less number were to come, a smaller place would do. The committee will wait till a few days before the meeting to decide this matter. Arrangements are being made with the railroads for reduced fare to all delegates.—The Sun.

Neat and attractive printing makes a fat bank account—such as is done at the HATCHET Printery for instance.

In the Churches.

A special Easter service was rendered at the Congregational church last Sunday morning. The church was most beautifully decorated with flowers suitable to the occasion. The sermon by Rev. Mr. Rogers was peculiarly adapted to Easter and was interesting and instructive. The chorus was composed of the following voices: Misses Stewart and Parker, soprano; Miss Jones and Mrs. Bates, contralto; Messrs. Larimore and Marsh, tenor; Miss Clara White Cooley, organist, and rendered in excellent manner the program.

Organ Prelude—"Marche Pontificale," Lemmoist Miss Cooley.
Choir Call—"Lift Your Glad Voices".....Mount
Choir.
Organ Offertory—"Stellano".....Hoptins
Miss Cooley.
Anthem—"God Hath Appointed a Day".....Tury
Choir.
Bass Solo—"Jesus the Victor".....Stoney
Prof. E. Bates.

Easter at the Christian church was observed by a special exercise. A good audience listened to Mr. Wells' able delivery of Prof. Drummond's "Greatest Thing in the World." The blackboard illustrations impressed it very forcibly on the minds of the hearers.

Easter Sunday at M. E. church.—In the morning the services were given over to the children of the Sabbath School, at which time the following program was carried out.

Music by choir accompanied by full orchestra.
Grand Selection—Orchestra.
Opening Address—Written by Frank Gordon.
Read by Miss Stebbins.
Exercises by Primary Class—Consisting of scriptural texts interspersed by songs.
Easter Address—James Gates.
Select Reading—Mrs. Esther Kane.
"A Boy's Troubles"—Master Howard Thomas.
Recitation—"Mexican Maiden's Message"—Mildred Watters.
Address—By Pastor, Rev. D. A. Watters.
Closing Address—Lawrence Loumanson.
Invocation—E. Bates.
Benediction of three angels.

In the evening the Rev. Dr. Gue, presiding elder, preached the sermon and administered the communion.

Prof. Green's Recital. One of the largest audiences ever in Forest Grove assembled in the Congregational church, last Saturday evening, to witness the second recital of Prof. Green's pupils.

The first recital was held some time ago in the M. E. church, and at this second recital the pupils all showed marked improvement under the careful and pains taking instruction of Prof. Green.

Space will not permit of a detailed report of the program, but special mention must be made of the numbers rendered by the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Smith and Master Chas. Walker, both of which called forth hearty encores.

Prof. Green is a teacher of uncommon talent and ability and appreciation of his efforts was fully attested by the large and enthusiastic audience which greeted him. Following is the program in full:

- Sonata (first two movements). Miss Cora Purdin.
- March. Miss Edna Purdin.
- Overture for two violins and piano. Miss Pearl and Master Raleigh Walker.
- Last Idea of Von Weber, piano. Master Fred Vroman.
- Bellsario, duet for piano. Miss Lola Venen and W. H. Greene.
- Sonatina for violin. Miss Myrtle Smith (aged 6 years).
- March, duet for piano. Mr. Bert Copple and W. H. Greene.
- Lombardi, duet. Miss Mabel Hinman and W. H. Greene.
- Branzi, violin solo. Master Charlie Walker.
- Anvil chorus, duet for piano. Miss Pearl Walker and Raleigh Walker.
- Sonatina for piano, 4 hands. Miss Myrtle Smith and W. H. Greene.
- Sonambula, piano, 4 hands. Master Charlie Walker and W. H. Greene.

Salmagundi Party.

A very attractive Easter party was that given by Miss Nellie Russell to some of her young lady friends at her home Saturday afternoon. The receiving rooms were prettily decorated with ivy and Easter-tide flowers and with guests and hostess in charming Easter garb made a beautiful scene. With contests of skill the young ladies amused and amused themselves during the afternoon. A basket of fragrant hyacinths was bestowed upon Miss Stevens for lifting in half a minute five potatoes from a dish with a diminutive spoon, Miss Tongue who threaded forty needles in two minutes was rewarded with pansies and Miss Kate Meyers, the champion at authors, with tulips. Miss Bessie Evans gave an interesting recitation. Then dainty tables were spread with choice viands and the guests refreshed themselves. Misses Bertha Tongue, Edna Moreland, Hattie Stevens, Grace Streeter, Mabel Hinman, Kate Meyers, Anna Meyers of Portland, Charlotte Graham, Mary Bailey and Betty Thorp were the favored ones.

GALES CITY.

All are much pleased with the HATCHET's first issue. The editorial is calculated to correct the delirium, make us considerate, and engage us to new aims and powers. There will be special services at the First Christian church next Sabbath, W. H. H. Adkins, pastor. New scholars registered at school this week are Miss M. Seaman and Miss A. Smith. We wish to correct the statement made in last issue. Instead of J. R. Dallas harranging the populists it was the Rev. S. S. Dallas. John will ever be found on our side of the fence. Jas. McRoberts says that their school under the management of Miss Roe is doing nicely. Chas. Temple, Jeweller, will be found in the Lilly block. Miss Kane of Portland is visiting friends and relatives. Populist meetings every two weeks. We are making preparations for a good time one week from next Sat. It is rumored that an eastern syndicate is about to buy the old tannery plant. Straws show from which way the wind blows. When there is a row going on our police are always at the restaurant. It seems to be about the only time they ever eat. Merchant Ilter gives 105 coppers for a silver dollar to subscribe for the HATCHET. Married: Jno. Martin to Jennie McCoy. Best wishes accompany them on their journey o'er life's sea. Our yell is Boom la rik, boom la rik, Whoopla, whoopla, Gales Creek!

Fire Drill.

Monday night those who were not in the secret were disturbed by the pealing of the fire bell. Hardly had the last tap died away before the door of the gymnasium opened and the new fire truck appeared and moved on by stalwart arms and speedy feet, then disappeared in the direction of the sash and door factory. Quickly the other members of the "Alert Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1" caught the truck and grasped the rope. Then a mad flight. Some say it was a world's record race, anyway when the destination was reached many of the team had to sit down on the ground and rest before they were able to assist further. The ladders went to the top of the roof in short order and the firemen swarmed up them—the one or two who were able did, the kept on resting. When Chief Clark thought it was about time the fire had been extinguished he gave orders to turn off the water, the ladders were re-packed and the apparatus started for its quarters. The return trip was made in good time by the aid of new drawing material. At the fire house the roll was called and only a few were found absent. Loss fully covered by insurance—$25 each. One or two who were not sure footed tumbled by the way but the truck was swerved to one side and avoided running over them. One of the boys started in time for the fire but forgot his quarter and had to go back for it. Altogether the first fire drill was a success. A real fire would not have had time to get much headway before the firemen were on hand and with their present equipment they would have been able to overcome it quickly. Insurance rates ought to be lessened a little now.

Congregational Y. P. S. C. E. Social.

Mrs. H. D. Jones entertained the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church, at her home last Friday evening, in her usual happy manner. A short business meeting at which the following officers were elected, preceded the social. Pres't, Miss Anna Roe. Vice Pres, Miss Belle Clark. Secretary, Miss Bessie Thorp. Treasurer, Mr. Treve Jones. After the election, the evening was spent most enjoyably, in charades and games of various sorts. During the course of the evening Miss Bessie R. Evans recited twice responding to two enthusiastic encores. The next social will be held with Mrs. J. L. Gregg, at a date to be announced later.

In Case of Fire.

A box with glass front has been placed at the left side of the hook and ladder room, gymnasium building. This box is to hold the key of door and to be broken open only in case of an emergency. Lodge printing, letter heads, envelopes, cards, applications, etc., we do cheaply and attractively. We figure without charge. HATCHET Printery, Printers, Publishers and Engravers.

IN FRATERNAL CIRCLES.

Happenings Among the Lodges of Washington County.
Forest Grove Lodge has the honor of having made the greatest gain in membership since the last grand lodge session of any K. of P. lodge in the state.—The Sun.
The Grand Lodge of Oregon, I. O. O. F., convenes in Salem this year during the early part of May. Washington lodge will be represented by Brothers Greer and Joe Bailey. Forest Rebebah lodge's delegate to the State Rebebah convention, which meets at the same time and place, will be Mrs. Boos.
Two new Rebebah lodges were instituted last week in this state—one at Philomath, 73, and one at North Yamhill, 74.
J. F. C. Brown, a member of Phoenix lodge, K. of P., is sick at his home in Mount Tabor Villa.—Portland Sun.
Kingsbury lodge, no. 53, K. of P., of Monmouth, now defunct, will be resurrected in the near future.—Portland Sun. Probably some Washington county Knights will attend if it is done.
Odd Fellows will have a new lodge at Gold Hill before the close of this week.
Washington lodge, I. O. O. F., has the third degree for one candidate Monday. There is prospect of work for some time.
Forest Grove lodge No. 110, I. O. O. F., at its last meeting, elected as delegates to the district lodge Meslames Alice Pratt, Ella Brecken, Lizzie L. Griffin, E. H. Parker, Ann Smith and T. J. Thorp, and Messrs. Strowbridge, A. B. Todd, C. H. Weffel, and D. Elston, and alternates, Mrs. E. C. Smith, Misses Lulu Johnson, Lena Parker and Nettie Peterson, and Messrs. T. J. Thorp, Wilbur Johnson, I. C. Walker, David Smith, Peter Lind and W. P. Thomas.
Oscar Baldwin, W. P. Thomas and Julius Martinazzi were initiated into the mysteries of Good Templarism Saturday by the Forest Grove lodge.
Washington lodge, I. O. O. F., had a visitor Monday from No. 110, Mr. Kerclheim. Bake Oven.
Quality lodge A. F. and A. M., Hillsboro, conferred the Master's degree on two Fellow Crafts Saturday.
The Grand Chief Templar, I. O. G. T., has promised to present to the lodge initiating the most candidates this quarter a fine set of officers regalia. The Forest Grove lodge has taken in about twenty-five so far and two meetings yet remain. Their chance of winning it seem very fair.
Delphos lodge, K. of P., knighted three esquires Saturday evening and conferred the second rank on one page.
Delphos lodge, K. P., will work the third rank. Visiting brethren are expected from McMinnville.
The preamble and resolutions which appear below were adopted by Washington lodge I. O. O. F. some time ago but the copy to be published in the county was mislaid. Brother Odell was a lifelong Odd Fellow and an active member of Washington Lodge No. 48 and Washington encampment No. 24 at the time of his death. The lodge room and charter were draped in his honor and for thirty days the brothers wore the black and royal purple mourning appropriate to one of his rank. His mortal remains were taken to Vinton, Iowa, and there laid to rest beside his wife according to the beautiful ritual of the order he loved.
Whereas, in obedience to Divine will Merrit G. Odell, P. G. and P. C. P., has been removed from earth and its associations, and
Whereas, During the time Almighty God in his unfeeling goodness suffered him to remain among us, he was always active in works of Friendship, Love and Truth and lived the principles we profess of Benevolence and Charity, be it
RESOLVED: That as Odd Fellows we shall keep ever green the remembrance of his virtues confident of meeting him again at the coming of that day to which hope looks forward with ardent joy when the tears and woes of this life shall be submerged in the healing tide that flows from the eternal fountain of divine peace and love.
RESOLVED: That as we mourn a brother's loss with those who have been bereft of a good and loving father we commend them to the kindly keeping of our Heavenly Father who, though he cause grief yet has compassion according to the multitude of his mercies and will be their shield and stay.
RESOLVED: That this preamble and resolutions be spread upon the minutes Washington lodge no. 48, I. O. O. F., a copy sent to our deceased brother's family, and a copy to the Pacific Odd Fellowship and a county paper for publication.
