

ABOUT TOWN.

The John Baldwin and M. D. Markham Fishing company brought in over sixty good sized speckled beauties Wednesday.

Born—To the wife of H. N. Gable, of Greenville, a son.

Died—At Tigardville, Chas. S. Gault, aged 38 years and 6 months, died Wednesday at the residence of C. F. Tigard. Funeral was this morning.

Sixty dollars will buy a nearly new tubular "Newton" wagon; thirty-five dollars more a good three and a quarter inch lumber wagon. Boos & H.

Bids will be received up to May 15 for building a new school house at Verboort.

Mrs. White has filled her millinery parlors with the latest spring styles of hats and bonnets, and it has a very attractive appearance.

A baseball game took place on the campus grounds Saturday afternoon between the county champions—the local nine—and a team from Cornelius. Score resulted in the Grove's favor, 19 to 13. Quite a large number witnessed the contest.

Brown the carriage painter has a beautiful new sign which shows his very artistic work.

The citizens of Forest Grove will be treated to an evening of genuine fun on Friday, April 26, at Vert's hall. Prominent ladies of the city will present to the public the doings of the last legislature. Bills, clerkships, etc., etc., will receive due attention. Local matters will claim a share. More fun in one evening than is often had.

Hear the medal contest, admission, silver contest, free, gold ten cents.

When you go fishing don't forget to call at Wells' and examine his Looks, lines and poles.

Forest Rebekah lodge initiated two candidates Wednesday night. Visitors from Hillsboro Rebekah lodge were present.

The place to get tropical fruits and vegetable of all kinds is at Wells'.

The log drive of Chas. D. Young on the 1st of which has been expected for some time has not yet arrived.

Mrs. A. E. Barker goes to McMinnville this week to begin preparations for an entertainment for the benefit of the First Secular church of Yamhill county, which to fill her regular appointment on Sunday morning.

Forest Grove Free thought library and reading room is open every Thursday and Friday afternoon and evening.

This month closes the first half of the year of our public library. The work has been a success beyond our proudest hopes. Interest is increasing and those who looked upon the institution as a mere curiosity are now convinced of the merit of the work.

- 1. Part of a hill—Brow.
2. Union of youth and...
3. A beverage—T.
4. Jewish place of a...
5. A tropical fruit...
6. A wild animal—S.
7. A bill of exchange—L.
8. Part of a...
9. A...
10. A...
11. A...
12. A...
13. A...
14. A...
15. A...
16. A...
17. A...
18. A...

Boos & H. have received their spring stock of clothing, good in quality, of latest style and will not be undersold.

The recorder of Hillsboro is trying to get various notaries in the county to adopt a regulation form of mortgage which will save time and bother in copying. There are some objections to the form, in that it leaves too much to be written in and it is not iron clad, but it is shorter.

See our ladies' line of tan oxfords, $1.00. Gregg's New Shoe Store.

The novel painting of the HATCHET building has excited considerable comment and generally favorable. The HATCHET is different from other papers and doesn't copy any one. It does its best in its own way.

Ladies' tan oxfords, hand turned, latest spring style at $1.25. Gregg's New Shoe Store.

The principal horses at the Witch Hazel farm have been worked for nearly a month. Two horses took up the valley with to Witch Hazel last week.

Sell cheap, Sell a heap, and keep forever at it. Now is your chance to lay in your sugar for the fruit season before the advance. CAPLES & THOMAS.

The county convention of the Washington county W. C. T. U. will meet in this place April 23 and 24 in the Christian church. First session will open Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Public are invited to attend these meetings.

Why do Hillsboro people come to Forest Grove to get their rigs painted? Because Brown the painter does the best work in the county.

Forest Grove can now boast of having a first class Photo-engraving Co. who will produce work equal to any ever done in the east or anywhere else. Some of their work will be on exhibition in this office in a few days.

Buy cheap and sell cheap and here is the secret of our success. A nimble sixpence is better than a slow shilling. Bargains that are bargains go quick and the price goes back into new goods to be again turned into cash. Drop in and see the bargains and ask questions. Probably we can open your eyes and post you on present values. CAPLES & THOMAS.

160 acres of land for $100. SCOTT & Co.

The gold medal contest will be held in the Congregational church, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The contestants will be from different parts of the county.

Boos & H. are getting in a large and well selected Spring stock of shoes.

Friday evening a silver medal contest will be held in the Christian church at 7:30 o'clock.

Lots in College addition going fast at $100 to $150 per lot. Call soon or best will be taken. LANGLEY & SON.

Mrs. Marcina White Kenney, of Astoria, state president of the W. C. T. U., will be present during the session of the county convention and will deliver an address Wednesday evening in the Congregational church.

How is your sewing machine. All machines neatly and promptly cleaned and repaired at Henry Wirtz's.

W. A. Goodin, Peter Smith and Ed. Friday have leased the Cornelius wood working plant and will commence operations about the first of the month. Furnish work, mouldings and hand work will be in their line. They have a good equipment and are thorough workmen.

Tom Madigan's is the place to get your creamery supplies and the ware of all kinds. Roofing and spouting a specialty.

Two weeks from Friday May 3, there will be a musical and literary entertainment for the benefit of the Free Thought library. Keep the date open, it will be worth going to.

$200 to loan for 2 or 3 years. SCOTT & Co.

Mrs. A. E. Barker goes to McMinnville this week to begin preparations for an entertainment for the benefit of the First Secular church of Yamhill county, which to fill her regular appointment on Sunday morning.

Forest Grove Free thought library and reading room is open every Thursday and Friday afternoon and evening.

This month closes the first half of the year of our public library. The work has been a success beyond our proudest hopes. Interest is increasing and those who looked upon the institution as a mere curiosity are now convinced of the merit of the work.

Mrs. A. E. Barker, Librarian.

Bargains in land. Eighty acres joining the town of Dilley, 60 under cultivation, good house, barn and out buildings, four hundred fruit trees and any quantity of small fruits. Living water. All for fifty dollars per acre on reasonable terms. LANGLEY & SON.

Andrew Miller, an employee of the Sash & Door Factory, had the tip of his thumb cut off by the mill knife. Dr. Large dressed the wound.

Midwifery a specialty. Anaesthetics administered and women confined without pain by C. L. Large M. D. of Forest Grove.

The Hillsboro station has been turned into a freight depot and a new waiting room and ticket office is being put up. A telegraph operator will probably be stationed there. When the construction crew finishes there it may come to Forest Grove and make similar improvements here. Surely there is need of them and business enough from here to warrant the outlay.

Go to Wirtz Bro's for a quick and easy Shave. City Shaving Parlors.

Mr. C. Fritz is still taking Photographs at the rate of $3.00 per dozen for Cabinet size but you will receive $3.00 worth of Artistic work.

Dr. C. L. Large reports a son born to the wife of Earnest Bondshu, living north of Forest Grove, on the 17th.

40 acres, 25 bottom land under cultivation, rest easily plowed. Three-fourths of a mile from depot. All under fence. Living water. Price $40 per acre. LANGLEY & SON.

The Populist club of Gaston will hold its regular meeting Monday evening. Rev. Mr. Anderson will address the meeting.

Persons wishing teeth extracted painlessly should go to Dr. Large. He will administer chloroform, ether or the new preparation at either dentist's. No charge to the patient if not satisfactory. $600 to loan for 1 year. SCOTT & Co.

There were about fifty from Forest Grove that attended the services at the Catholic church last Sunday.

"Many a good advertiser would lapse into an advertised desuetude if the affable advertising solicitor did not come around just so often and revive his ebbing inspiration—much to the benefit of the advertiser."

PURELY PERSONAL.

Mr. Wilcox of Cornelius was a visitor at our office Monday.

Prof. Moses Craig of Corvallis was in the city Friday, stopping off on his way home from attending the Maundy Thursday Mystic banquet of the Masonic Rose Croix chapter.

Mr. Northrup, the genial proprietor of the Hillsboro House, visited the HATCHET Monday.

Mr. Wallingford, of Porter's nursery, called at the HATCHET office Monday.

John McDonald, of Portland, connected with the Northern Pacific Railway, spent Sunday with his parents.

M. S. Eads and Ross Lamson of Portland Sundayed in the city.

The Misses Belle and Marie Clark paid Portland a visit the latter part of last week.

Mr. Jerome Porter who has been confined to his house for some time was seen out recently driving a pair of two-year-olds—a most welcome sight to his many friends.

E. Austin Bond, teacher of the Scoggins Valley school, was home over Sunday as usual. Out of 35 enrollment the attendance has averaged 32 since his term opened—a pretty good showing for the teacher and evidence of his ability to interest.

J. M. Jones, teacher at Gates Creek, spends his Sundays at the Grove. The school is prospering there as it needs must with a good teacher.

Mr. Wilson, of Scoggins Valley, stopped in at the HATCHET office while in the city Saturday.

C. W. Ransom was about again the first of the week after a week's illness.

Mr. Button, of the New York Life Ins. Co., was in the city Friday and Saturday on the company's business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lancefield were in Portland part of last week and returned Saturday.

H. H. Clark left Tuesday for Southern Oregon to join his brother who has found a location where mining is profitable. Mr. Clark has not yet decided the length of his stay but may be gone until fall.

Mr. Kirchner of Bake Oven was in the city over Sunday.

Principal H. L. Bates will preach at the Christian church next Sunday evening.

Charles Vaughn, a member of the P. bridge crew and brother of the deceased, lost two of his fingers Saturday while working on the bridge at McMinnville.

Yates of Manning was in town Sunday on his way to Hillsboro to return Wednesday.

J. S. Bemus, of Greenville, has been seriously ill for some time.

H. N. Gable, of Greenville, was in the city Thursday and visited the HATCHET office.

Dr. F. A. Bailey, of Hillsboro, and T. R. Cornelius, of Cornelius, Washington county, are at the St. Charles. —Thursday's Sun.

E. B. Sappington leaves Monday morning for Carlton where he will engage in business. His family will remain in the Grove and Mr. Sappington will be here often himself.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Odell, of Dilley, were in the city Wednesday night.

Mrs. Dennis, Mrs. Lampkins and Mrs. Phelps, of Hillsboro, were in the city Wednesday night.

Mrs. D. A. Watters, conference secretary of Oregon W. C. T. U., has been absent in Portland several days of the past week attending a branch missionary meeting.

Miss Gladys Jones now that her brother has left the Grove will make her home with Mrs. J. L. Gregg.

Mrs. J. L. Gregg leaves for North Yamhill to-day to attend the wedding of Miss Daisy Stott.

Mr. Lydia, the well known mill man of Gates Creek, visited the HATCHET office while in the city Saturday.

Mr. P. Ford of Beaverton was in the city Wednesday.

Walter Best of Gaston is going to start for the Southern Oregon gold mines Friday.

J. L. Old, of Portland, was registered at the Western house Monday.

Lewis Wilcox, wife and son, of Scoggins Valley visited the Grove Saturday.

Mr. A. P. Venen has returned from Portland.

C. E. Bace of Portland who put in the heater in the new college building has gone back to Portland.

R.I.P.A.N.S. ONE OF THE BEST. Photos that are LIFE LIKE Portraits That Almost Speak, Works of Art, Those are what you want and what you get of GLEASON, Artistic and Attractive. And only 75 cts. a doz; it will be a dollar pretty soon though and you had better have it done now. OVER THE POST OFFICE, FOREST GROVE.

DRUGS ARE DANGEROUS Unless put up by a skillful druggist. Mr. MILLER has had many years experience in filling prescriptions and is thoroughly competent. All reliable patient medicines kept in stock. Toilet articles in endless variety. Stationery, too. In price, in assortment and in quality, the leading house. At Dr. Miller's old stand. THE MILLER PHARMACY, FOREST GROVE. NEAT TURNOUTS Well kept horses, handsome harness, attractive and comfortable carriages—are much pleasanter to ride in, don't you think so? They cost no more. Just go to Jones for your rig. Saddle horses that will suit you. Or any other very train. Glad to have your tables will be glad to choose to LIVERYMAN.

The Secret Out. "To do a splendid thing, simply to do a common thing better than other do it."—Phillips Brooks. If you mean a splendid job of Mail Papering or Tinting you must have a workman to do it for you. GENE E. LARIMERE, Box 261, FOREST GROVE.

MELKI JOHNSON & Co., REAL ESTATE AGENTS, Special Bargains in Twenty and Forty Acre Tracts in Washington, Yamhill and Tillamook counties. FOREST GROVE OREGON.

McNAMER'S MEAT MARKET SELLS ONLY THE BEST OF Meats, Sausages, Fish and Poultry The Country affords, in Great Variety and at Moderate Prices A General Shipping Business, Wholesale and Retail, Done in All Kinds of Dressed Poultry, Fat Hogs, Spring Lambs and Veal Calves. BUYER AND SELLER. TELEPHONE, Market 29 a, Farm 20 c. FOREST GROVE.

Born—To the wife of William Thompson, a son. It's better to be happy than to be rich and better to go to Caples & Thomas for your shoes than to pay higher prices for poorer shoes at a credit store. Buggy tops, cushions and lazy backs repaired at C. L. Hinman's harness shop by an experienced workman. Dash leather and carriage trimmings constantly on hand. Notice to Owners of Dogs. Notice is hereby given that the dog tax of the city of Forest Grove, Or., will be due on the 1st day of May, 1895. The tax is $1.00 for male dogs and $2.00 for females per year. Anyone allowing a dog to run at large without paying the license is liable to a fine. All owners of dogs must pay said tax in accordance to the law of said city to the recorder. JOHN A. STRIFLIN, City Recorder.