

ABOUT TOWN.

Henry Burchell is putting up a dwelling house on his place, adjoining A. B. Todd's. The frame is already up and the lumber to complete the building on the ground.

Aaron Wells expects to have done by the end of the week a building in the rear of his confectionery store to be used as a candy factory and workshop. The present workshop will be used as an ice cream parlor.

One week from Friday May 3, there will be a musical and literary entertainment for the benefit of the Free Thought library. Keep the date open, it will be worth going to.

Rev. W. F. Cowden, formerly state evangelist of Oregon, preached Tuesday evening in the Christian church in the interests of the missions.

$200 to loan for 2 or 3 years.

SCOTT & Co.

The Forest Grove band will accompany the Odd Fellows in their parade to the M. E. Church on the anniversary Friday and the orchestra will have part in the program. Practicing has been going on every night this week in preparation for the event.

Gene E. Larimore the painter has an announcement in another column. Have you read it?

Bargains in land. Eighty acres joining the town of Dilley, 60 under cultivation, good house, barn and out buildings, four hundred fruit trees and any quantity of small fruits. Living water. All for fifty dollars per acre on reasonable terms.

LANGLEY & SON

Forest Grove Band. Uniformed, nineteen pieces. Meets Wednesday and Friday of each week. W. Baldwin pres.; L. C. Greer, Secy.

Any one having copies of our second issue—April 19—for which they do not care will confer a favor by leaving them at our office. The edition of 2500 copies has been exhausted and there is still demand for them.

Tom Madigan's is the place to get your creamery supplies and tinware of all kinds. Roofing and spouting a specialty.

A drill call about 7 p. m., Friday, brought out the members of the Hook & Ladder company. After a quick run the public school was reached, the ladder run up and buckets speedily passed to the roof of the building, then the recall was sounded and the apparatus returned to its quarters. The boys are getting very expert in handling the apparatus.

Haines & Bailey are prepared to offer the highest prices for sheep and goat wool, either in goods or cash. Be sure and give us a call before selling.

Lots in College addition going fast at $100 to $150 per lot. Call soon or best will be taken.

LANGLEY & SON.

Mrs. Narcissa White Kinney gave a very interesting talk before the students at chapel Wednesday morning.

160 acres of land for $100.

SCOTT & Co.

The Miller Pharmacy makes a specialty of compounding prescriptions, which are put up with the utmost care and filled from the purest material.

Saturday afternoon a team of cream colored horses driven by Albert Lockow, their owner, started at something, threw their driver from the wagon and took a short run. No damage resulted either to driver or team.

A move is on foot in Scoggins Valley to build a Presbyterian church. Tom Sain offers two acres of land and Geo. Temple offers to give $100.00 and a bell. No doubt sufficient funds will soon be raised to build a nice church. Arrangements are being made to have preaching in the Valley twice a month.

The citizens of Forest Grove will be treated to an evening of genuine fun on Friday, April 26, at Vert's hall. Prominent ladies of the city will present to the public the doings of the last legislature. Bills, clerkships, etc., etc., will receive due attention. Local matters will claim a share. More fun in one evening than is often had.

Harry Westcott and John and Frank Wagner caught 195 trout, all good size, the first of the week. Some of them came to the HATCHET and we know it is true.

Mr. Maury, of the Dilley schoolboard, was in town, Monday looking over the public school building to get suggestions for the addition soon to be built to the Dilley school.

A fine dairy ranch at Beaver, Oregon, most all on the Nestucca river bottom, sixty acres fine meadow, cheese factory, large stock barns and everything complete. For sale or trade for valley property. Address, F. C. Faland, Beaver, Tillamook county, Oregon.

The best timber in County for sale at lowest prices at W. H. Lyda's mill. Call on Mark Noble of Forest Grove for terms.

The place to get tropical fruits and vegetables of all kinds and ice cold drinks is at Well's.

Lost—A ladies' tortoiseshell hair comb, between the Grove and Catholic Church. Finder will please return same to J. Gregg's shoe store and receive a reward.

The Home Bakery has an addition 18 by 30 built to it, giving more room for the bakery and also for parlors for serving ice cream. The new oven is now completed and ready for use to turn out bread. During its building the bread had to be baked in Hillsboro and while the new oven was drying out, but it is now ready to do good work.

Delphos lodge knighted one esquire Saturday night.

Midwifery a specialty. Anaesthetics administered and women confined without pain by C. L. Large M. D. of Forest Grove.

Hillsboro Rebekah lodge will celebrate the Odd Fellows' anniversary by a social followed by supper.

Peter Lind and not Peter Smith is the third member of the firm soon to start the wood working plant at Cornelius. W. A. Goodin and Ed Friday are his partners in the enterprise.

Dr. C. L. Large reports a daughter born to the wife of Millard Crosby at Gales Creek, on the nineteenth.

Go to Wirtz Bro's for a quick and easy Shave. City Shaving Parlors.

J. A. Dolstrum has been busy painting, papering and graining the interior of Geo. Smith's residence and it has a very tasty appearance.

Doctor C. L. Large reports a daughter, weighing fourteen pounds, born to the wife of William Wilkes, of Dilley, the 25th inst.

Washington county is represented in the populist $1000 campaign fund by the following $10 contributors: L. A. Rood, N. J. Walker, W. D. Hare and J. C. Hare, Hillsboro, and A. O. Brown, Cornelius. Their money as well as their hearts is in the cause.

Sunday there was a green flag put up in front of one of the houses in South Park where there was sickness.

Sixty dollars will buy a nearly new tubular "Newton" wagon; thirty-five dollars more a good three and a quarter inch lumber wagon. Boos & H.

Painters are at work touching up the fences about Dr. Ward's handsome grounds.

Scott & Co. will write your insurance policies in four of the strongest Co's in the world.

Mr. Blaker, who has become well and favorably known to the Grove people while here putting in the heating apparatus in the new college building, has decided to locate here and go into business. A good assortment of second hand furniture, which is to be his line, has been put into his store, second door south from Wirtz Bros. barbershop, and is being touched up and put in good condition. Mr. Blaker has excellent opportunities for buying cheap and will undoubtedly do well here. Forest Grove is a good location for any enterprising business man.

When you go fishing don't forget to call at Wells' and examine his hooks, lines and poles.

Mr. Gammie and H. D. Jones attended Ladd & Reed's sale of draft horses in Portland last week. The animals, thirteen in all, were registered Clydesdales and fine looking but there were no buyers. After a team had brought $340 and a mare, whose half-sisters were sold two years ago for $500 each, had gone for $100 the sale was postponed. Cox & Minor had a sale of driving horses at the same time and sold thirteen at from $70 to $80 a team.

40 acres, 25 bottom land under cultivation, rest easily placed so. Three-fourths of a mile from depot. All under fence. Living water. Price $40 per acre.

LANGLEY & SON.

The following are reported on the sick list: Mrs. N. J. Walker, Mrs. Melki Johnson, Mrs. Taylor Raines, of Gales Creek; Baby McDonald, of Hillsboro.

To insure sure indemnity in case of loss. To have sure indemnity in case of loss is to insure with Scott & Co.

Fourteen bicyclers from Portland visited the Grove Sunday and took dinner with Mrs. Sloan. Now that warm weather is on the Grove is a pleasant spot to visit, escaping the city heat and living at a convenient distance.

Some near sighted individual mistook the portrait of George Washington on the HATCHET building for a representation of a glass of beer and came over to refresh himself but was disappointed.

See the ad. of C. E. Anderson, of Cornelius, in another column. It will interest you whether you reside near him or are merely passing through the town.

See our ladies' line of tan oxfords, $1.00. Gregg's New Shoe Store.

H. V. Gates has signed the contract for an electric light plant at Kalamath Falls, Or. Gates is just home at Hillsboro from a California trip.—The Sun.

H. W. Scott & Co. would like to correspond with parties having good timber land for sale.

Hartampf Brothers are having the recent addition to their feedstore neatly painted in harmony with the rest of the building.

Persons wishing teeth extracted painlessly should go to Dr. Large. He will administer chloroform, either of the new preparation at either dentist's. No charge to the patient if not satisfactory.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Mrs. J. D. Merriman and Miss Sharpless, of Hillsboro, visited the Grove Tuesday.

F. M. Brown, of Lincoln county, Kansas, has been visiting W. P. Thomas, his brother-in-law and J. L. Striplin who is an old friend. Mr. Brown expects to start homeward in about a week having been absent nearly three months. He has come to know Oregon pretty thoroughly, travelling through a large part of it in his carriage.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Huston were in the Grove Tuesday.

Hon. C. P. Yates, of Manning, was a welcome visitor to the HATCHET Wednesday. Mr. Yates stopped in town for a short time on his way to Hillsboro on business.

Rev. J. S. Griffin was at the Grove several days this week.

John Baxter was in town Monday.

A. Powell, of Gales Creek, was in town Monday on business. He will build a good dwelling at once on his farm.

Warren Williams, from Hillsboro, and S. T. Crow, with their families, went up Dairy creek fishing last Sunday and caught 150 nice trout.

Asbury Kurtz, of Cedar Mills, was in town Tuesday on a visit to his cousin, T. C. McNameer.

Mr. Hendricks, of near Cornelius, one of the old residents of Washington county, visited the HATCHET office, Tuesday.

Rev. J. S. Griffin, of near Hillsboro, was in the city Tuesday.

John Brisbane, of Gaston, visited the Grove Tuesday.

Dr. Linklater, of Hillsboro, was called to the city professionally Monday.

John and C. B. Buchanan, of near Cornelius, spent Saturday evening in town.

John W. Bailey of Hillsboro wheeled over to the Grove Saturday.

Geo. Best, brother-in-law of W. P. Thomas, and four friends from Gaston, left Saturday by wagon for the mines of Southern Oregon.

Mr. Paul, who lives near the head of Lousignot lake, visited the HATCHET, Saturday.

Mr. Dennis of Upper Scoggins Valley called on the HATCHET, while in town Saturday on business.

J. R. Dallas of Gales Creek was a visitor to the sanctuary, Saturday.

Hon. T. H. Tongue has been retained as city counsel for this year.

E. B. Sappington left Monday for Carlton to enter in business there.

Mrs. Porter Tupper has been ill but is now improving.

Ed McDonald, of Dayton, Wash., made a short stay in town this week visiting his parents.

Mr. Chester Sloan drove to Witch Hazel Sunday to see the horses there.

Mrs. M. J. McMahon, of Portland, is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. N. J. Walker, who has been sick during the past week, is improving.

J. Wheelock Marsh, editor of the Times, visited Portland Saturday.

Mark Harrison, of Tillamook, brother of our assessor, was in the city Monday on his way to Portland.

Mrs. James Dempsey, of Greenville, was in the Grove Tuesday.

Mr. Hyatt, one of the proprietors of the former Haines & Large mill, was a visitor to the sanctuary Tuesday.

Mrs. E. H. Marsh returned Tuesday from Hood River where she has been visiting her daughter.

Henry Reyercraft, of near Cornelius, was in the city Monday.

Sam Aplin and C. W. Odell of Dilley were in town Monday.

H. W. Dhondt, who lives in the new Bondville, was in town Monday.

Ben Griffin, of Wapato, who has recently traded for the J. W. Brown tract of land East of town, was in on business Monday. He intends moving down some time this week.

Photos that are LIFE LIKE Portraits That Almost Speak Works of Art. Those are what you want and what you get of - - - - - GLEASON, Artistic and Attractive. And only 75 cts. a doz.; it will be a dollar pretty soon though and you had better have it done now. OVER THE POST OFFICE, FOREST GROVE.

Notary Public Fire and Accident Insurance Justice of the Peace Loans, Collections J. I. KNIGHT, General Fire Insurance ... and Loan Broker, HILLSBORO - - - - - OREGON.

E. C. Hughes and wife, and Mrs. and Miss Dennis, of Hillsboro, were in town Wednesday.

Fred Smith, managing editor of the Kalama (Wash.) Bulletin, spent Wednesday evening of the growth of temperance sentiment. Clear, logical and interesting it made a strong impression on the large audience who had gathered in the Cong. church to hear her.

Notice. All persons owing bills or past due notes to the Forest Grove Door and Lumber Co. are requested to call at said company's office and make immediate settlement. A. HINMAN, Assignee.

Warning. Now is the time to buy your sugar for putting up fruit before the advance. 5 cts. a pound, $5.00 per sack, for the best quality at Caples & Thomas.

A new lot of garden tools and hardware just received at Boos & H.

Buggy dusters, just what you want for summer, in great variety, in new stock, at C. L. Hinman's. Call and look them over and ask the prices. It will surprise you how cheap they are.

Mr. B. L. Griffin sold his farm south of Gaston, last Monday, to Mr. R. W. Lancefield. The sale was made by Melki Johnson & Co., our popular real estate agents.

$500 to loan for 1 year. SCOTT & Co. Notice to Owners of Dogs. Notice is hereby given that the dog tax of the city of Forest Grove, Or., will be due on the 1st day of May, 1895. The tax is $1.00 for male dogs and $0.50 for females per year. Anyone allowing a dog to run at large without paying the license is liable to a fine. All owners of dogs must pay said tax in accordance to the law of said city to the recorder.

R.I.P.A.N.S ONE GIVES RELIEF.

DRUGS ARE DANGEROUS Unless put up by a skillful druggist. Mr. MILLER has had many years experience in filling prescriptions and is thoroughly competent. All reliable patent medicines kept in stock. Toilet articles in endless variety. Stationery, too. In price, in assortment and in quality, the leading house: * * * * * At Dr. Via's old stand.

THE MILLER PHARMACY, FOREST GROVE. NEAT TURNOUTS Well kept horses, handsome harness, attractive and comfortable carriages — are much pleasanter to ride in, don't you think so? They cost no more. Just go to Jones for your rig. Saddle horses that will suit you. Our bus meets every train. Glad to have you ride in it. Our stables will take good care of your horses if you choose to leave them with us while in town. JONES THE LIVERYMAN. FOREST GROVE.

When You Buy A house, you make sure the title is clear. When you paint it, or have it papered why not be as careful and have a workman do it for you? And by the way, I am making a specialty of fine carriage painting. See! GENE E. LARIMORE, Box 261. FOREST GROVE.

MELKI JOHNSON, S. B. GILPIN, T. J. HARRIS, Notary Public. MELKI JOHNSON & Co., REAL ESTATE AGENTS, Special Bargains in Twenty and Forty Acre Tracts in Washington, Yamhill and Tillamook counties. FOREST GROVE - - - - - OREGON.

McNAMER'S MEAT MARKET SELLS ONLY THE BEST OF Meats, Sausages, Fish and Poultry The Country affords, in Great Variety and at Moderate Prices A General Shipping Business, Wholesale and Retail, Done in All Kinds of Dressed Poultry, Fat Hogs, Spring Lambs and Veal Calves. BUYER AND SELLER. TELEPHONE, Market 20 s. Farm 20 c. FOREST GROVE.

BANK OF FOREST GROVE FOREST GROVE, OREGON Established, 1889. Incorporated, 1894. CAPITAL $50,000.00 GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS Foreign and Domestic Exchange Bought and Sold. Collections Made on all Accessible Points and Promptly Remitted. DIRECTORS: A. HINMAN, J. A. MACRUM, R. F. FURDY, M. BISHOP, E. W. HAINES, D. C. STEWART, C. M. KEEP.

C. E. ANDERSON'S MEAT MARKET AND BAKERY. Fresh Meat, Sausage, Hams, Bacon, Lard, Cash for Hides. Butter, Bread, Pies, Cakes, Cookies, Candies, Nuts, Etc. Open at all hours six days in the week and 9:30 on Sunday. First door east of Keim's store. SEE THE WHITE SWAN.