

A Good Education Pays.

The large majority of our successful men in all lines have been college men. No matter what you propose to be you will be better at it if you have a college training.

Co-Educational.

Established 1848.

SITUATED IN A BEAUTIFUL TOWN FREE FROM ALL BAD INFLUENCES. EASILY ACCESSIBLE. HEALTHFUL.

Why Go East for Your Education

When you can obtain equal advantages in Oregon?

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY

If an Education is Worth Having

Why not have the best obtainable?

Four Year Courses, With its Associated Preparatory School

Able Instructors

Well-equipped Laboratories, Large Library, Established Reputation.

Tualatin Academy

AND A CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

.... EXPENSES MODERATE

SPRING TERM BEGAN WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3, 1895.

Address THOMAS McCLELLAND, D. D., President, for Catalogue or further information. FOREST GROVE, OREGON.

As Others See Us. The rumor of a new paper is confirmed.—Forest Grove Times.

A paper called "HATCHET" has been at Forest Grove. It is bright. It may never be buried.—Tillamook Headlight.

The Washington County HATCHET is the title of a new Forest Grove paper edited and owned by Austin Craig. It is a good production throughout and bids fair to be a winner.—Oswego Iron Worker.

Among new exchanges received is the Washington County HATCHET, a clean, straight republican paper, issued at Forest Grove; if the HATCHET does not get any duller, it is bound to cut its road to success.—Jefferson Review.

Vol. 1, No. 1 of the Forest Grove, Washington County HATCHET, Austin Craig, editor, is on our table. Fine in general appearance, tho' we suggest that GENERAL BOOTH might improve its politics—republican.—Pittsburg Sentinel.

The first number of the Washington County HATCHET, published at Forest Grove, by Austin Craig, has reached this office. The HATCHET is a neat sparkling paper and has the best wishes of the Record for its future wellbeing.—Sunday Record.

Vol. 1, No. 1, of the Washington County HATCHET, published at Forest Grove, is on our table. Austin Craig the man at the helm is a young fellow of very good appearance and his first copy of the HATCHET is a very neat sheet. It is to be hoped that his chosen field will justify the venture made. He ought to be able to judge as to that. Time will tell, however. One thing is evident, Washington has long been away behind Yamhill in the little matter of local papers and it is possible that the Washingtonians are becoming jealous. But Gaston, Laurel and Scholls Ferry must be heard from before Yamhill's record is equalled.—Newberg Graphic.

A copy of Vol. 1, No. 1, of the Washington County HATCHET, a bright 6-column home print paper just started at Forest Grove, is before us. Austin Craig, former publisher of the Index, a college journal for Pacific University of that city, is the editor. In politics the Hatchet will "hew to the line of true republicanism and let the chips fall where they may," and though on silver its sentiment is not expressed, yet from the understanding it expresses of the ancient history of the party and its leaders, we opine that the gold-bug minority will have to stand from under. Success, Bro. Craig.—Amity Blade.

Forth comes the Washington County HATCHET of Forest Grove, Austin Craig, editor and proprietor. It is Republican to the core and ably edited in all departments.—Capital Journal.

Vol. 1, No. 1 of the Washington County HATCHET, is on our table. It is neat in appearance, republican in politics and edited by Austin Craig. Bro. Craig was mighty hard up for a name, but perhaps the paper will survive that.—Yamhill Independent.

The first issue of Washington County HATCHET has reached our exchange table. It is a neat 6 column folio with Austin Craig as editor and proprietor. It is refreshing to see a paper that has the courage to tell where it is at, politically. Forest Grove has needed such a paper for some time. The general verdict is that there is not a fly on Mr. Craig or his little hatchet.—Peoples Searchlight.

The Washington County HATCHET, a new paper published at Forest Grove, made its appearance upon our reading desk last Thursday. The HATCHET is a neat six column folio, has a newsy local and is republican in politics. We do not know whether Forest Grove has room for a second paper or not, that is none of our business; we take great pleasure in extending the usual congratulation, and wish the HATCHET well. May it always stick to its motto—"Hew to the line, let the chips fall where they will."—Independence Enterprise.

We are in receipt of Vol. 1 No. 1, of the "Washington HATCHET", a new journalistic venture in Forest Grove, Or. Mr. Austin Craig slings the editorial quill. The political complexion is republican, judging from the looks of the first number. Bro. Craig is a pithy writer and a good news rustler. Washington county has three good newspapers, Times, HATCHET, and Independent, and all of them will succeed; as they are conducted by capable newspaper men. Bro. Craig, here is our hand.—Woodland Times.

The Washington County HATCHET published at Forest Grove, Washington County, made its bow before the public on the 12th inst. In editorial conduct the "HATCHET" will hew for the republican party. Typographically, its columns are neat, newsy, with a fair advertising patronage. There will probably be this difference between the HATCHET and pictorial part of its head: Washington could not tell a lie, but the "Hatchet" can, unless it differs greatly from the generality of newspapers. (It can, but it won't.) We gladly extend the fraternal hand to the HATCHET and place it on our X list.—Scio Press.

A Curious Accident. Two years ago, while chopping wood the young son of Mr. A. W. Mills, had a small piece of the wood about the size of a gold dollar lodge under his eye. Last Thursday Dr. Cole performed an operation removing the same. The father now carries the chip in a bottle, and takes great delight in showing it to inquiring friends.

School Bond Election. Notices are posted for a school meeting on May 18 to vote on whether the district shall be bonded for $8500—$1500 to pay off old indebtedness and $4000 to build and finish an addition to the school house. The decision to build on the present site seems to meet with general favor. The city already owns the land and there is ample room for the addition and still there will be left grounds spacious enough for all attendants of the school.

OH, FOR A DOLLAR! Oh, for a dollar, a bright yellow dollar That's made from the beautiful metal, we're told Is the only kind able to keep money stable— A bright little, tight little dollar of gold. Oh, for a dollar, a big silver dollar. All for our own to have and to hold. Although it seems funny, it's just as good money To put with our wee little dollar of gold. Oh, for a dollar, a rag paper dollar. Into a snug little wad neatly rolled. Although not so shining 'tis just as good lining For this empty old purse of ours to entold. Oh, for a dollar, just any old dollar. To subscribe for the HATCHET, the truthful and bold. We wait for the dollar, we sigh for that dollar. Be it made of green paper or silver or gold.

Market Quotations. FOREST GROVE. CORRECTED WEEKLY BY GREER THE GROCER. PRODUCER'S SELLING PRICE. Butter 15 to 20 cts. per lb. Eggs 9 cts. per doz. Lard 10 to 15 cts. per lb. Bacon-sides 8 cts. per lb. Hams 10 cts. per lb. Shoulders 8 cts. per lb. Pork 10 to 12 cts. per lb. Potatoes 20 to 25 cts. per hundred lbs. Onions 25 to 30 cts. per hundred lbs. Beans 3 to 4 cts. per lb. Apples 25 to 30 cts. per bushel. Dried Apples 4 to 6 cts. per lb. Dried Prunes 4 to 6 cts. per lb. Tallow 15 to 20 cts. per lb. Chickens, old 15 to 20 cts. per doz. Ducks 20 to 25 cts. per doz. Geese 25 to 30 cts. per doz. Turkeys 15 to 20 cts. per lb. alive. Hides 15 to 20 cts. per lb. 1/2 less for grubby or mottain. Sheep Pelts 35 to 40 cts. each. Beef 15 to 20 cts. gross weight, 5 to 6 cts. dressed. Mutton 15 to 20 cts. Pork 45 to 50 cts. per lb. dressed. Veal 40 to 45 cts. dressed. Wheat 34 cts. clean. Oats 25 to 30 cts. sacked. Hay 10 to 12 cts. baled.

A Man is known by the company he keeps, : : : : so it is said. An Advertisement also depends very largely for its value upon its associations. Printed in THE HATCHET its associations are of the best. : : : : It Pays therefore, to be an advertiser in THE HATCHET FOREST GROVE, OR.