

ABOUT TOWN.

The program of the state Sunday school convention, in session this week at Portland, had on it, for Wednesday, a paper "In Teaching" by Prin. H. L. Bates.

Forty acre fruit ranch to trade for town property by A. B. Thomas.

This morning a young man named Elmer Pomeroy, living at New Astoria was found drowned in a net on the south side of the government jetty at Fort Stephens.

D. C. Stewart was kicked by a pony Sunday but received slight injury and is around as usual.

Ice cream and ice cream soda at the Home Bakery.

Over in Forest Grove, Washington county, Austin Craig has established an excellent journal and given it the name of the HATCHET.

Big stacks of ties are to be seen all around the Cornelius station and are being constantly added to, indicating the early return of the tie-preserving plant.

H. W. Scott & Co. would like to correspond with parties having good timber land for sale.

Doctor C. L. Large reports the following births. To the wife of Thad Parker, the seventh inst. a son.

To the wife of Joseph Vaughn, the seventh inst. a young detective.

The Independence Amateur Athletic club will give a Bicycle Tournament at Talmage race track, Saturday, May 23 at 2 p. m.

Lost—A lady's gold watch, hunting case, on the streets Monday evening. Finder will receive a liberal reward by returning to the HATCHET office.

Suppl. Bond reports thirty would-be teachers at this examination. And still they come.

Haines & Bailey are prepared to offer the highest prices for sheep and goat wool, either in goods or cash.

Henry A. Dougherty, a deaf mute and his family are camped near Cornelius, having journeyed here from Texas.

Bedroom sets in cherry, ash and maple from $21 to $13 at Baker's Second Hand Store.

An aesthetic haircut administered, and whiskers anapitated without pay by Raymond the barber.

Joe Foussignout, brother of those recently arrested in this county and an ex-convict, has been convicted at Oregon City of burglary.

Take your grain to Hartampf Bros. and get the highest price for it. Baled hay and all kinds of feed for sale.

Mayor Hughes is planning to build a house for next year's use, to put snow in. It will be double-walled and the space filled with sawdust.

40 acres, 25 bottom land under cultivation, rest easily placed so. Three-fourths of a mile from depot. All under fence. Living water. Price $40 per acre.

LANGLEY & SON.

The Ladies of the Relief Corps will give the Inter-State Milkmaid convention in the near future. It will be of great interest.

The Forest Grove party of the Buxton Lumbering Company has returned. Theodore Wirtz and Andrew Shoch came back Friday, and Harry Crosley, Robert Hartampf and David Wirtz Saturday.

Persons wishing teeth extracted painlessly should go to Dr. Large. He will administer chloroform, ether or the new preparation at either dentist's. No charge to the patient if not satisfactory.

Washington Co., Or., has thirteen dairies, and cheese factories. They are all paying institutions. Cheese and butter is made in each dairy, and all of them have gained a reputation for making good butter and cheese.

Married—Sunday afternoon in Portland by the Rev. Thos. Boyd, Bertha Lambert, daughter of Mrs. M. Mendenhall, to Edward J. Boos. Mr. E. Mendenhall was best man and Miss Lena Boos bridesmaid.

Hartampf Bros. pay the highest market price for all kinds of grain and baled hay and all kinds of feed for sale at their store on Pacific avenue.

"To discontinue an advertisement," says John Wannamaker, the largest advertiser in the world, "is like taking down your sign. Standing advertisements when changed frequently, are better and cheaper than reading notices.

Patronize home industries, particularly the newspaper that is printed at home.

I. C. McNamer's stage attempted the trip to Tillamook Tuesday but was prevented by high water at the Wilson river crossing.

To insure is sure indemnity in case of loss. To have sure indemnity in case of loss is to insure with Scott & Co.

A telephone message that Brady, the California train robber and murderer, had been seen at Greenville put Sheriff Ford to a little inconvenience last week.

Pigs for sale at C. H. Rowe's, Forest Grove.

Schubert Quartette has been invited to Gladstone Park and Prin. Bates has been especially asked to take a leading part in the music.

Advanced.—Every body knows that sugar always advances in price in fruit season. The time has come to lay in your supply or pay more for it later on.

The Young Woman's Foreign Missionary society will give a literary entertainment and supper at the Methodist church, Friday, May 17, 8 p. m.

Bargains in land. Eighty acres joining the town of Dilley, 60 under cultivation, good house, barn and out buildings.

Fred Sigenthaler, son of the creamery man at Cedar Mill, suffered a badly broken arm recently.

Midwifery a specialty. Anaesthetics administered and women confined without pain by C. L. Large M. D. of Forest Grove.

Rev. I. D. Driver, the eloquent and able divine, will give his renowned lecture on "Bob Ingersoll and the Devil Combined," in Forest Grove, Friday, May 24, 1895.

Scott & Co. will write your insurance policies in four of the strongest Co's in the world.

James Lee, living near Gaston, was taken through the city by deputy sheriffs on the way to Hillsboro Wednesday evening.

Almost given away, one of the best little homes in Forest Grove, 1 1/2 acres of land—3/4 acre of strawberries, good young orchard in bearing.

A. L. Geiger intends running a stage this season half way to Tillamook three connecting with Mr. Stilwell from the other end.

Bargains in land near Forest Grove, large and small tracts, for any purpose and at any price.

Senator Dolph's daughter, Mrs. Richard Nixon, and maid are at Mrs. Gregg's for a few weeks' visit.

Dr. Ward and Mrs. Gregg drove to Portland Wednesday returning the same day.

Miss Minnie and Zula Warren visited friends in the Grove the first of the week.

Mrs. Richard West of Greenville is very sick.

We buy cheap and sell cheap, sell a heap and keep forever at it and here is the secret of our success.

Lots in College addition going fast at $100 to $150 per lot. Call soon or best will be taken.

LANGLEY & SON.

L. O. G. T. District lodge met here Tuesday.

Indian War Veterans of 1855 and 1856 will learn something to their interest by calling on J. I. Knight, Hillsboro, Or.

The Miller Pharmacy makes a specialty of compounding prescriptions, which are put up with the utmost care and filled from the purest material.

The Willamette Association of Congregationalists will meet in Forest Grove May 20 and 21.

Married—Sunday afternoon in Portland by the Rev. Thos. Boyd, Bertha Lambert, daughter of Mrs. M. Mendenhall, to Edward J. Boos.

The Willamette Association of Congregationalists will meet in Forest Grove May 20 and 21.

Married—Sunday afternoon in Portland by the Rev. Thos. Boyd, Bertha Lambert, daughter of Mrs. M. Mendenhall, to Edward J. Boos.

The Willamette Association of Congregationalists will meet in Forest Grove May 20 and 21.

PURELY PERSONAL.

J. W. Baxter of Gales Creek was in the city Friday.

Mr. S. A. Long, editor of the Hillsboro Argus, honored the sanctum with his presence Saturday. Always welcome. Come again.

Ira E. Bradley of Greenville visited the HATCHET office while in town Monday.

C. M. Keep, T. S. Keep, Geo. Keep and John Wagner started Tuesday morning via McNamer stage line for Wilson river on a fishing trip.

Mr. Mitchell of Vernonia editor of the Nehalem Journal visited the sanctum while in town Tuesday attending the district lodge I. O. G. T.

Miss Hattie Stimson of Portland is in the Grove.

J. Adrian Merriman of Hillsboro was in town Saturday.

W. S. Ingles who has been sick for a week and over is about again.

Messrs. Colstock, Wilson Taylor and Dolbins, of Hillsboro, were in the city Friday.

Fred E. Raymond has gotten a new white spring hat.

M. H. Rice returned to the city Saturday from Salem where he has been stopping for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, of Streeter, Ill. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith.

W. S. Hudson of Gaston called at the office Wednesday on his way to Hillsboro.

J. E. Berst, a Hillsboro meat man was in town Saturday returning by bicycle and horse.

W. J. Partlow, W. W. Williams, J. H. Smith, L. W. House, J. W. Wall, L. E. Long, Geo. Schulmerich and E. L. James were in the Grove Saturday night attending the K. of P. lodge.

Adam Bell and J. L. Voss were in Hillsboro Wednesday on business.

Mr. Manning of Manning was in the city last Thursday.

Mr. Gray, Mr. Jackson, and Mr. Briggs, of Dilley, were in the city last week.

Henry Bamford of Hillsboro visited the HATCHET office Friday.

Mr. Bewling of near Gales Creek called at the HATCHET office while in town Friday.

Willis Ireland of Greenville was in the Grove Friday.

George Temple and Harry Ball of Scoggins Valley were in town Saturday.

Mrs. J. C. Buchanan of Cornelius visited the Grove Saturday afternoon.

T. M. Jackson and a timber man from Portland spent two days last week on the head waters of the Tualatin. They had to turn back on account of the deep snow which was seven feet in places.

Jim Lee, Mr. Greenler and Mr. Tease of Patton Valley went to Wilson River last week on an elk hunt.

Mr. Cox, who has been living on the Sim Lee ranch in Patton valley, has moved back near Hillsboro where he formerly lived.

So many of his friends have congratulated him on leaving that Leslie Greer has decided to stay in the Grove a little while longer.

Mrs. McClelland has been asked to take charge of the music at the summer school at Gearhart Park.

Mr. Northrup of the Hillsboro House was in town Monday.

Mrs. T. Ritchie of Greenville was in the city Thursday.

Mrs. Melki Johnson is quite sick.

Senator Dolph's daughter, Mrs. Richard Nixon, and maid are at Mrs. Gregg's for a few weeks' visit.

Dr. Ward and Mrs. Gregg drove to Portland Wednesday returning the same day.

Miss Minnie and Zula Warren visited friends in the Grove the first of the week.

Mrs. Richard West of Greenville is very sick.

We buy cheap and sell cheap, sell a heap and keep forever at it and here is the secret of our success.

A Poor Joke.

A bonfire of old barrels on the campus caused some one to think the college buildings were on fire and so he turned in an alarm.

The Ladies Hall.

The fine four story building known as Ladies Hall, a picture of which is shown in connection with the article on Pacific University, serves as a home for the institution.

AT THE 'VARSITY.

Pres. McClelland returned Saturday from Condon, Oregon, where he has been attending the annual conference of the Mid-Columbia Congregational Association.

A very interesting oration, entitled "Destiny of Man", was delivered by Prin. Bates at chapel on Thursday. Prof. Ferrin and a division of his engineering class spent Saturday at Mount Scott, where they were engaged in a practical survey work.

Ernest Rands returned Monday night from his lightning trip to Portland and Oregon City.

Charles Bemo Bradley stayed over Sunday at his home near Greenville.

Several young men attended a prayer meeting at Cornelius last week. "That is right, Hartley. Nothing like having the last word. Ha-ha-ha!" The college correspondent of the Times "is getting his work down to a cute. The only mistake in the last issue was" that the gentleman did not know the difference between the Times and the Index.

The greatest feature of the commencement week will be the academy graduating exercises on June 18. The faculty has decided to give to each graduate an opportunity to display his oratorical ability.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, of Streeter, Ill. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith. W. S. Hudson of Gaston called at the office Wednesday on his way to Hillsboro. J. E. Berst, a Hillsboro meat man was in town Saturday returning by bicycle and horse.

W. J. Partlow, W. W. Williams, J. H. Smith, L. W. House, J. W. Wall, L. E. Long, Geo. Schulmerich and E. L. James were in the Grove Saturday night attending the K. of P. lodge.

Adam Bell and J. L. Voss were in Hillsboro Wednesday on business.

Mr. Manning of Manning was in the city last Thursday.

Mr. Gray, Mr. Jackson, and Mr. Briggs, of Dilley, were in the city last week.

Henry Bamford of Hillsboro visited the HATCHET office Friday.

Mr. Bewling of near Gales Creek called at the HATCHET office while in town Friday.

Willis Ireland of Greenville was in the Grove Friday.

George Temple and Harry Ball of Scoggins Valley were in town Saturday.

Mrs. J. C. Buchanan of Cornelius visited the Grove Saturday afternoon.

T. M. Jackson and a timber man from Portland spent two days last week on the head waters of the Tualatin.

Jim Lee, Mr. Greenler and Mr. Tease of Patton Valley went to Wilson River last week on an elk hunt.

Mr. Cox, who has been living on the Sim Lee ranch in Patton valley, has moved back near Hillsboro where he formerly lived.

So many of his friends have congratulated him on leaving that Leslie Greer has decided to stay in the Grove a little while longer.

Mrs. McClelland has been asked to take charge of the music at the summer school at Gearhart Park.

Mr. Northrup of the Hillsboro House was in town Monday.

Mrs. T. Ritchie of Greenville was in the city Thursday.

Mrs. Melki Johnson is quite sick.

Senator Dolph's daughter, Mrs. Richard Nixon, and maid are at Mrs. Gregg's for a few weeks' visit.

Dr. Ward and Mrs. Gregg drove to Portland Wednesday returning the same day.

Miss Minnie and Zula Warren visited friends in the Grove the first of the week.

Mrs. Richard West of Greenville is very sick.

We buy cheap and sell cheap, sell a heap and keep forever at it and here is the secret of our success.

A bonfire of old barrels on the campus caused some one to think the college buildings were on fire and so he turned in an alarm.

The Ladies Hall.

The fine four story building known as Ladies Hall, a picture of which is shown in connection with the article on Pacific University, serves as a home for the institution.

MELKI JOHNSON, S. E. GILPIN, T. J. HARRIS, Notary Public.

MELKI JOHNSON & Co., REAL ESTATE AGENTS, Special Bargains in Twenty and Forty Acre Tracts in Washington, Yamhill and Tillamook counties. FOREST GROVE - - - - - OREGON.

DRUGS ARE DANGEROUS Unless put up by a skillful druggist. Mr. MILLER has had many years experience in filling prescriptions and is thoroughly competent. THE MILLER PHARMACY, FOREST GROVE.

NEAT TURNOUTS Well kept horses, handsome harness, attractive and comfortable carriages — are much pleasanter to ride in, don't you think so? JONES THE LIVERYMAN, FOREST GROVE.

McNAMER'S MEAT MARKET SELLS ONLY THE BEST OF Meats, Sausages, Fish and Poultry The Country affords, in Great Variety and at Moderate Prices A General Shipping Business, Wholesale and Retail, Done in All Kinds of Dressed Poultry, Fat Hogs, Spring Lambs and Veal Calves. BUYER AND SELLER. TELEPHONE, Market 20 a, Farm 20 c. FOREST GROVE.

County Taxes. Sheriff Ford has already paid into County Treasurer Sappington, on the tax account, $40,188.86 out of a total levy of $81,493.45. Some warrants have been turned in too.

Methodist Church. Next Sabbath is the sixth anniversary of the organization of the Epworth League. At 11 a. m. Mr. T. S. McDaniel, of Portland and president of the Portland District League, will address the congregation.

Hillsboro's Deestrick Skule. Tuesday night prominent society people rendered the "Deestrick Skule" in a manner very acceptable to the large assemblage at the Opera House.

Surprised. Thirty or more Grove friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gates, Jr., joined by a dozen from elsewhere, surprised them at their pleasant home north of the city, Saturday evening.

Two Ways. Who buys the cheapest, the merchant that gets his goods on long time or the merchant that buys for cash? Which one can sell you the cheapest, the one that sells to everybody on time or the one who sells for cash?

A Good Time Coming. The recent raise in wages in Pennsylvania indicates a condition which the people of this region would like to see here. But Oregon in reality has little cause for complaint.