The Washington county Sunday school union held two days' session in Gaston this week commencing Friday morning and ending Saturday evening. The convention was organized by electing Rev. D. A. Watters of Forest Grove president. The address of welcome delivered by E. H. Jeter of this place was well received, the response by Rev. Watters was also good. After the convention was organized a motion was made and carried that all present be considered as delegates and requested to take part in the convention. Delegates from all parts of the county were present and every subject that pertains to the good of the Sabbath school was well discussed by such speakers as Rev. D. A. Watters, Rev. Dick, Rev. Beauchamp, Rev. Pratt, Mrs. A. A. Carter, E. H. Jeter, Mr. and Mrs. E. X. Harding and many others. The entertainment given by the Sunday school children of Gaston is deserving of special mention. The house was packed to its utmost capacity and strict attention was given throughout. The convention was harmonious throughout. It was decided to hold the next meeting at Hillsboro. A vote of thanks was given to the Gaston people for the hospitality extended to the delegates from abroad.

The Gaston public school closed last Friday. Mr. Thomas the principal has moved to Forest Grove. We were in hopes Mr. Thomas would be retained in the school.
