Gossip. "Remember this, young man, be careful what you say about a woman's char acter. Think how many years she has been building it, of the toils and privations endured, of wounds received, and let no suspicion follow her actions. The purity of the women is the salvation of the race, the hope of future greatness and the redemption of man. Wipe out her purity and man sinks beneath the wave of despair, without a star to guide his life into the channel of safety. Think then, before you speak, and remember that any hog can root up the fairest flower that ever grew; so the vilest man
