

ABOUT TOWN.

A mammoth apple weighing 22 ounces, unblemished and of beautiful color has been sent to this office. It is of the "Wolf River" variety and from Mr. James Palmer's farm, three miles north of Greenville. There are ten trees in the orchard.

First Class Buggy Harness, $4.65 at C. L. Hinman's.

Mr. W. S. Hudson has traded his Gaston property, reserving two lots, to Mrs. Story for her house on First street, and has moved into his new dwelling.

Special sale in Ladies Fine Dongola Button, in Square or Piccadilly toes, at $1.75, former price, $2.25. Gregg's Shoe Store.

Mr. T. J. Harris has moved into the dwelling north of where he has been, on First avenue.

Mrs. McNamer has moved into the house on the corner of First street and First avenue.

Go to Caples & Thomas' large double store, filled with bargains in dry goods, groceries, boots, shoes, clothing and tinware. "They buy a heap sell cheap and keep forever at it."

A fresh supply of Fancy Candies at Wells'.

Mrs. Joe Watt moved Saturday into the Davey house on Fifth street.

S. A. Walker has returned from Chemawa where he has been employed in the government Indian Training school and is back in the Grove to stay.

Haines & Bailey sell Even Change tobacco for 15 cents a pound.

The new derrick has been raised in the Forest Grove Stone Co's quarry and everything now is in good running order.

Leipziger Nachrichten, Gewand-Haus.—In Herr A. Aamold, the audience made the acquaintance of a performer of great talent. Although still very young, he has a wonderful command of the technique of his instrument, and his tone on the violin is of rare sweetness and power. All who listened to his playing last night predict for him a great future. Aamold at Vert's Hall, Monday, Oct. 14.

John Dallas of Gales Creek was in town Tuesday. He expects soon to go to Portland and pass the winter there.

Tare seed at Hartrampf Bros.

Mr. Martin of Gales Creek was in town Tuesday.

The Sister Superior of St. Mary's Home at Beaverton was in the Grove Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Levar of Salem are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stokes for a few days.

The place to get your prescription filled is at the City Drug Store. Mr. Brishine has had many years experience in this work and keeps an unbroken line of drugs, bought cheaper and can be sold cheaper than others sell.

Abel Cohen, the Tillamook merchant, passed through the Grove Tuesday on his way home.

Mr. Martin of Portland, representing Hunniman DeHart & Co., spent Tuesday shooting with Mr. Geo. R. Hughes.

Yes, Greer the grocer has the finest line of teas and coffees in the city.

Mrs. S. G. Hughes spent Tuesday in Hillsboro.

S. G. Hughes has just finished wiring Mr. W. H. Crosley's new residence, for electric lights.

All kinds of laundry work done at the American Laundry, Wirtz Bros., agents.

Geo. Bacon, driver of McNamer's Tillamook stage, reports the Wilson River bridges nearing completion and expects to cross them both on his trip tomorrow.

J. W. Russell of Portland stopped in town Friday.

JUST OPENED:

Dress Goods and Trimmings, Capes, Jackets and Mackintoshes, Underwear and Hosiery at Haines & Bailey's.

Albert Peck of Wilcox, Neb., was in town Saturday.

H. R. Lynes of Jefferson was in the Grove Saturday.

See Abbot & Roe for all commission business.

Mr. F. Darber of Oregon City was in town Saturday looking for men to assist him in a 16,000 cord wood contract which he has taken from the Oregon City paper mills.

Bamboo goods at Smith's.

Grand Chief Templar W. W. Breeden accompanied by a number of Forest Grove Good Templars, will visit Gales Creek Friday evening to organize a lodge there.

John Pringle of Vernonia was in the city Thursday.

Zena Haines of Gales Creek was in town Thursday.

I. R. Hogan of Portland was registered at the Western House Thursday.

15 cents buys a pound of Even Change tobacco at Haines & Bailey's.

W. H. G. Travors of Portland was here Friday.

Fancy stationery at Miller's Pharmacy.

Mr. Ranes of Gales City was in town today.

Dr. C. L. Large reports a daughter born to the wife of Mr. John Barrow, who resides on the farm of Mr. Ed. Kearney on Gales Creek, on the fifth inst.

Paris Le Deux Mondes.—Herr A. Aamold is one of the favorite pupils of Monsieur Hubert Leonard, our great violinist. He played on a beautiful Guarnerius, and scores a great success, the audience calling him out three times. Aamold at Verts Hall, Monday, Oct. 14.

Stationery at Wells'.

Mr. David Keen has built a new sidewalk in front of his property on Main street.

Stationery, STATIONERY, STATIONERY, Miller Pharmacy.

Dr. Lyon and family went to Hillsboro Saturday.

Ladies' calling cards printed in the latest style at the HATCHET Printery for 50 cts. a package.

Mrs. J. E. Barnett of The Dalles, state superintendent of the Juvenile Temple, I. O. G. T., was the guest of Mrs. W. W. Breeden over Sunday.

E. E. Miller, of the Portland law firm of Miller & Miller, was in the Grove Tuesday and Wednesday, visiting his sister, Mrs. Aaron Wells.

Nice line of fancy stationery. Something that will suit the college students. City Drug Store.

Miss Blanch McNamer was called to Portland Monday as a witness in a trial going on there in which Mr. Thos. H. Tongue is seeking to recover some property sold by him for a note and which the defense claims has passed out of the hands of the purchaser, who now refuses to honor the note.

40 acres, 25 bottom land under cultivation, rest easily placed so. Three-fourths of a mile from depot. All under fence. Living water. Price $50 per acre.

LANGLEY & SON.

The Pacific Coast Engraving company is doing a good business and one that is growing rapidly. The half tone engravings are just as true to life as photographs and really more artistic. A set of views on the Columbia recently sent out were especially well executed and have received many compliments.

Have you seen those new style cloaks at Caples & Thomas? They are going fast. Call and select one before they are all picked over.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church will give a literary entertainment Friday evening, October 18. Sann Ichiro Hirota will deliver his lecture on "The Rise of Japan." Miss Lena Parker will give a recitation, followed by an excellent musical program.

LADIES:

YOU CAN GET FASHION MAGAZINES AGAIN AT RAYMOND'S.

Mr. John Hines sold his farm west of Greenville, containing 80 acres, last Friday to Anton Planner, consideration $1350. The sale was made by Melki Johnson & Co., Real Estate Agents, Forest Grove, Oregon.

Miss Lena Parker lectured Friday in Cornelius and on Saturday in Gaston. Both lectures were well attended.

Those who have teeth to extract may avoid all the unpleasantness and pain with perfect safety, by having anaesthetics administered by C. L. Large, M. D., if it is not entirely satisfactory there will be no charge. Gas, Ether and the New Preparation administered at any one of our dentists, Dr. Nixon, Dr. Hiatt or Dr. Lyon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Adams of Kalama, Wash., have been visiting Mrs. Adams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Woods, Mr. Adams has disposed of his interest in the Bulletin and will confine his attention to the school superintendency for the present.

Miss Blanche Harding of Gaston is visiting at Rev. J. M. Beauchamp's.

Ladies go to Haines & Bailey's for your dress goods. They sell cheap and have a large stock.

The Tillamook stage Monday was followed for half a mile by a panther, six miles this side of the north fork, but finally the horses distanced the big cat. Driver Bacon now carries a shotgun on his trips.

Charles Davy, a Portland football man, was in town Wednesday.

Go to Abbot & Roe's for harness.

George H. Durham, a Portland attorney and one of the second class graduated from P. U., visited Com. T. G. Todd at his farm above town over Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Parrish of Wilbur, Wash., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Barrett of Greenville.

Concord grapes at Wells'.

Mr. Nolan, the Tillamook broker, came over on Monday's stage.

Mrs. George Sloan is visiting friends in Portland.

Mrs. and Miss Moore, of Lafayette, mother and sister of Mr. E. W. Haines, are visiting friends here.

Paints, oils and glass at Abbot & Roe's.

Among the instructors at the coming annual institute will be Supt. Ackerman and Profs. Gafke and Wetzell, of Portland. State Supt. Irwin will be present and will deliver an address Thursday evening.

Mr. Fletcher presented the HATCHET Wednesday with some finely flavored Crawford peaches, from his ranch near Gales Creek, which the office fully appreciated and for which they would express thanks.

W. W. Breeden offers for sale for cash any or all of their carpets, furniture, garden tools, etc.

For a nice Umbrella go to Haines & Bailey's.

Miss Martha Brown who has been visiting her sister during the summer returned to her Portland home Wednesday.

Senators Mitchell and McBride are expected to come to the Grove next Monday morning and pass the day with Representative Yates of Manning, looking up the case of the quadrant people. The senators will return in the evening.

Good books, standard authors, best choice in town. City Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Westinghouse of Glenwood were in the Grove Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Scofield of Glenwood spent Friday and Saturday in the Grove.

M. H. Lowrey of Gaston was in town Wednesday.

Messrs. Southern and Hall of Scoggins Valley was in the city Wednesday.

Largest stock of Boots in the county to select from at Caples & Thomas'.

Mr. P. H. Roberts of Scoggins Valley was in the city Wednesday looking somewhat the worse for his recent encounter with the bear.

Mayor Hughes went to Tualatin Wednesday to cry a sale.

San Francisco Examiner.—We have heard different violinists at different times, but for beauty of tone, Aamold exceeds anything we have ever heard. Aamold at Verts Hall, Monday, Oct. 14.

For Sale.—Clean Out Straw.

Geo. F. Naylor.

Mr. Hannibal A. Williams, the celebrated Shakespearean reader, will read Othello under the auspices of the college, Oct. 25. This will be a rare opportunity to hear one of the best readers in America. Mr. Williams has received the highest endorsement from leading college presidents, clergymen, newspapers and critics of the East, and Forest Grove is fortunate in being able to secure him.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bowly drove to Portland Tuesday and returned Wednesday.

For rent—A 6 room cottage very convenient, in first class condition, good location, $8 a month. Apply at HATCHET office.—K.

San Francisco advices report that frost has damaged the California potato crop and that there is likely to be a scarcity there. Potatoes will probably bring a good price later.

Mr. Martin Bailey has recently lost eighteen fine speckled Hamburg chickens. It is also said Mr. Brown and Mr. Myers have lately lost blooded fowls. Whoever it is that has taken them he is evidently an expert in poultry for he takes only the best. About a year ago similar losses were suffered.

Even Change tobacco, 15 cents a pound at Haines & Bailey's.

New Home Sewing Machine, best machine in the market, kept at the furniture store.

Sewing Machines and supplies are kept at Smith's Furniture store.

An action was begun in Justice Hughes' court by Mr. Pickard for his son against Mr. Sparks for assault and battery. Mr. Sparks was employed by Mr. Knox on work requiring immediate attention and as Mr. Knox went his bail the trial was laid over until Saturday.

Recently a Forest Grove man assaulted a young man, a minor, whom he found walking with his wife and sister. A trial in the justice's court is all at present. The case will probably develop at the trial.

A 6 lb. basket full of strawberries from the Mauss place near Greenville was brought in to Caples & Thomas today. The berries are of the second crop and fully ripened.

The real estate firm of Melki Johnson & Co. has dissolved partnership, Messrs. Gilpin and Harris retiring. Melki Johnson will continue the business alone.

TOBACCO

Per Pound
Even Change	15 cents
Star	40 cents
Climax	40 cents
Horseshoe	40 cents
Caples & Thomas.

"THEY BUY CHEAP, SI KEEP FOREVER AT IT." CAI

Buy for less and can sell for less Washington County.

WEEKLY OREGONIAN $1.50 WEEKLY HATCHET

Every teacher should take some educational journal.

Among the best papers of this class

THE TEACHERS OUTLOOK

MONTHLY—OCTOBER TO JULY

Aims to represent the latest ideas and most successful method of teaching

The school news of the county will receive special attention from the WASHINGTON COUNTY HATCHET

The Teachers Outlook and the Washington County Hatchet

BOTH FOR $1.25

roof of the Western House has repaired and tarred.

Ealdwin A. H. Gates, M. G. Gilman another went to Columbia Monday on a fishing trip. They to bring back a thousand pounds

Shoes at $1.25 at Gregg's Shoe

Furnished rooms, lights, one block west of post office, Wm. Waters.

St Petersburg News, Russia.—A soloist of the evening, is a virtuoso in the true meaning of the word. His playing of Sarasate's "Swissens" enraptured the whole audience at Verts Hall, Monday.

Mrs. D. Mac Lachlan and of Tillamook, were in the Wednesday.

Eighty acres joined to Dille, 60 under cultivation, use, barn and out buildings, fruit trees and any quantity of fruit. Living water. All for $1000 per acre on reasonable terms.

LANGLEY & SON.

The Photographer, has engaged by Miss Stella Lyon, of the Wilkes' school, to come day and photograph the school news given fully will here a feature of the HATCHET.

Geo. Smith was in Portland over

Miller of Rickreall was in the city.

A little adlet placed with careful hand makes a mighty difference in this pleasant land.

Fine Stationery.

A good assortment of writing papers and envelopes to choose from, full line just been received and in quality and price will be sure to please you. Miller Pharmacy.

To Students.

To Rent. Unfurnished rooms in new house convenient to college at reasonable terms. Inquire at HATCHET office.

All kinds of temperance drinks at Wells'.

To Exchange.

Timber Land to trade for land near Forest Grove or Forest Grove city property. Inquire of Melki Johnson & Co.

For Rent.

Very desirable furnished rooms with or without board. References given and required. Inquire at HATCHET office.

HATCHET AND OREGONIAN $1.50 A YEAR