

ABOUT TOWN.

Prof. and Mrs. Lloyd visited the Exposition of Portland Saturday.

First Class Buggy Harness, $4.65 at C. L. Hinman's.

Mr. Claude Hallett was in Portland Saturday visiting the exposition.

Special sale in Ladies Fine Dongola Button in Square or Piccadilly toes, at $1.75, former price, $2.25. Gregg's Shoe Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Caples of Portland spent Sunday and Monday in the Grove.

Go to Caples & Thomas' large double store, filled with bargains in dry goods, groceries, boots, shoes, clothing and tinware. "They buy a heap sell cheap and keep forever at it."

While driving Sunday afternoon near Mr. S. Blank's, Geo. L. Smith's horse stumbled and fell, breaking both shafts of the buggy, no other damage was done.

A fresh supply of Fancy Candies at Wells'.

Rev. A. Rogers has just closed five years of service as pastor of the Congregational church here and next Sunday's morning service will be an anniversary service. In the evening Mrs. Addison, a W. C. T. U. lecturer, will speak.

Tare seed at Harttramp Bros.

Hereafter the curfew will ring at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Cephas F. Clapp is assisting Dr. Wallace in a series of meetings at the First Congregational church in Portland this week.

The place to get your prescription filled is at the City Drug Store. Mr. Brisbine has had many years experience in this work and keeps an unbroken line of drugs, bought cheaper and can be sold cheaper than others sell.

Boys or any one else for that matter getting in the way of the fire company at drill hereafter will be likely to pass the night in the city bastille and have also a fine to pay in morning. The marshal has been ordered to arrest all offending in this respect.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Westinghouse of Glenwood were in town Thursday and Friday.

Sewing Machines and supplies are kept at Smith's Furniture store.

Mr. Barnes of Walla Walla, Wash., is visiting his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Beal and family. Later he will go to Monmouth where Mr. and Miss Beal are attending the Normal School.

All kinds of laundry work done at the American Laundry, Wirtz Bros., agents.

Mr. J. C. Clark, the druggist, went to Gervais, his old home, Tuesday, and will return Saturday.

Even Change Tobacco 15 cents a pound. Caples & Thomas.

Mr. J. M. Downing of Corvallis was in town Monday, having ridden here on horseback.

JUST OPENED:

Dress Goods and Trimmings, Capes, Jackets and Mackintoshes, Underwear and Hosiery at Haines & Bailey's.

A rig belonging to Ira Bradley of Greenville was badly smashed in a runaway, Monday, but no person was injured. The horse was stopped after a short chase, unharmed.

Mr. J. E. Sibley, manager of the Truckee Lumber Co., Hobsonville, accompanied by Mrs. Sibley, visited Mr. S. G. Hughes this week, returning today to Tillamook by McNamer's stage.

The New Hope Baptist church of Gales Creek has moved to Dilley and will hold its first meeting there Saturday, Nov. 9, at 1:30 p. m.

The funeral of J. Delitt of Beaverton occurred Tuesday. The burial was with Masonic rites, conducted by the Beaverton lodge. A large delegation of the craft from Hillsboro were in attendance.

A full line of Ladies' Capes and Cloaks direct from the factory in New York. Call soon and get your choice. Caples & Thomas.

Miss Lena Parker will deliver a temperance lecture at the Thatcherville church in the Lousignont lake region next Sunday at 3 p. m.

For a nice Umbrella go to Haines & Bailey's.

E. M. Ward has bought back the City Drug Store of J. A. Brisbine. Messrs. Ward and Brisbine drove to Portland today to make the transfer.

Haines & Bailey have the largest stock they have ever carried and their business this Fall has been exceedingly good. They carry good goods and sell them on very close margin. Call and see them.

Stationery, STATIONERY, STATIONERY, Miller Pharmacy.

Mrs. Sultina Ramsey and Mrs. A. L. Fletcher of La Fayette, Yamhill Co., visited T. J. Harris and Mrs. Large Sunday and Monday. Mrs. Ramsey is a sister of Mr. Harris.

Mrs. S. E. Crow received word yesterday that her claim for pension as guardian of the minors of Robert O. Hoffman, which has been pending for some time, has been granted.

Students—Furnished rooms, lights and wood, one block west of post office, with board. WM. WATERS.

Prof. Moses Craig, who has been in the Grove for the past month, started Tuesday for Berkeley where he will spend the winter in special study of Horticulture at the University of California.

Mrs. Hallett returned to the Grove Tuesday, having been away since last Friday.

Even Change Tobacco 15 cents a pound.

Miss Drake of Portland visited Mrs. Alexander Tuesday and Wednesday.

Rev. A. Rogers was in Portland Tuesday to be sworn in to his duties in the executive committee of the Congregational Home Missionary Society.

See Abbot & Roe for all commission business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gregg were in Portland Monday and Tuesday seeing the sights of the Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Heitzhausen returned Tuesday after a week's absence at the session of the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias in Salem, and at the Portland exposition.

Hon. C. P. Yates and Martin Manning were in the Grove Monday and Tuesday.

Bamboo goods at Smith's.

Mr. Milton Smith and Mr. Napoleon Davis, Portland attorneys, were in town Monday attending a meeting of the finance committee of the University trustees.

Editor Sanford of Cornelius was in town Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. A. A. Phillips of Cornelius was in the Grove, Monday.

15 cents buys a pound of Even Change tobacco at Haines & Bailey's.

President McClelland has been appointed one of the committee on arrangements for the Congregational Triennial council which will meet in Portland in '98.

John Hayne from Gaston was doing business in Forest Grove, Monday.

Fancy stationery at Miller's Pharmacy.

W. Kertson from Gaston was in Forest Grove last Monday.

Be sure and examine the new line of stationery at the Miller Pharmacy.

Mr. H. S. Hudson of Gaston visited the Grove, Monday.

Tillamook Cheese at Caples & Thomas.

Mr. A. Watson of Glencoe was here Monday.

Ladies' calling cards printed in the latest style at the HATCHET Printery for 50 cts. a package.

Tickets for the Shakespearean reading in our new Marsh Memorial Hall by Mr. Hannibal Williams will be on sale at Miller's drug store Monday Oct. 21. The price will be 35 cents for reserved seats and 25 cents for general admission. Mr. Williams is one of the finest readers in the country and no one can afford to miss this opportunity. He will read in Portland, San Francisco and other large cities on the coast. He will read Othello and it would add to the profit of all who attend to read the play before hearing Mr. Williams.

The case of Mr. Pickard for his son, against Mr. Lee Sparks for assault which was set for last Saturday did not come to trial, the defendant pleading guilty to a simple assault and paying a $5 fine and costs, $13 in all.

Those who have teeth to extract may avoid all the unpleasantness and pain with perfect safety, by having anaesthetics administered by C. L. Large, M. D. If it is not entirely satisfactory there will be no charge. Gas, Ether and the New Preparation administered at any one of our dentists, Dr. Nixon, Dr. Hiatt or Dr. Lyon.

Mrs. S. G. Hughes was in Hillsboro Tuesday visiting her brother, Loren Jackson who is recovering from a six weeks illness.

Considerable gravel has been hauled to improve N. Front avenue, the street in front of the HATCHET office, and it is now in good condition.

Ladies go to Haines & Bailey's for your dress goods. They sell cheap and have a large stock.

Mr. Sibley of Tillamook bought during his visit here a mare belonging to Will Bellenger to mate one he has. Consideration was $139.

Mr. Barker, of the Tillamook mill, and Mr. and Mrs. Nolan, returned to Tillamook on today's stage.

Largest stock of Boots in the county to select from at Caples & Thomas'.

Mr. Gleason of Buxton was in the Grove Wednesday.

The annual county teacher's institute which occurs here Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week will probably bring a number of people to the Grove. Those who would be willing to receive the visitors into their homes during that time are requested to leave at the HATCHET office their names, the number they can accommodate and the rates.

Climax, Star and Horseshoe Tobacco 40 cents a pound. Caples & Thomas.

Miss Annie Pomeroy is practicing at Hughes & Son's perfecting herself for a typewriting.

The bazaar of Mrs. J. N. Walker in Boos & H's building is a novelty, and with its curios and knick knacks is an interesting place to visit. It handles all sorts of things which are needed but which the regular dealers do not supply.

Dr. Lyon has moved with his family to Hillsboro where he will practice his profession of dentistry.

Go to Abbot & Roe's for harness.

Mr. T. J. Batey of Gaston was in town Tuesday.

Mr. W. H. Berry of Scoggins Valley was in the city Tuesday.

Concord grapes at Wells'.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Temple of Scoggins Valley visited the Grove Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall of Scoggins Valley spent Tuesday in town.

Mr. Dyke of Gaston was here Tuesday. Paints, oils and glass at Abbot & Roe's.

Mr. S. S. Lenox of Gaston was in town Tuesday on business.

Mr. Will Baldra's mother, residing at Reedville, visited him the early part of the week.

Stationery at Wells'.

The Home Bakery has been repapered and painted inside and out and now wears a very inviting air. Mr. Maurice, who has purchased a half interest in the business, is getting acquainted rapidly and winning many friends.

A. A. Thompson, who has been visiting his brother Alfred L. Thompson, returned to his home in Linn Co., Monday.

At J. C. Clark's drug store will be found a complete line of School Books and Stationery.

The experienced druggist, J. C. Clark, is now prepared to furnish anything in the Drug Line, and all very cheap.

40 acres, 25 bottom land under cultivation, rest easily placed so. Three-fourths of a mile from depot. All under fence. Living water. Price $40 per acre.

LANGLEY & SON.

Mr. T. G. Scoggin of Gales Spur has gone to Steamboat in Southern Oregon.

For rent—A 6 room cottage very convenient, in first class condition, good location, $8 a month. Apply at HATCHET office.—K.

Mr. S. S. Dunbar, a leading populist of Gaston and president of the political club, was in town Tuesday.

Mr. W. T. Glaze arrived home Friday from the K. P. Grand lodge session at Salem to which he was a delegate.

Even Change tobacco, 15 cents a pound at Haines & Bailey's.

The HATCHET was happily remembered at the Clark-Roe wedding with a bountiful share of the numerous cakes.

Sann Ichero Hirota will lecture in the Christian church Friday evening 8th at 7:30 p. m. on Japanese Life, Government, Education, Religion and the Late Japan Chinese War, Japanese song and selections will also be a part of the program. Mr. Hirota is a brilliant and interesting speaker well qualified to tell of his native land now attracting the attention of the whole world by its wonderful progress in civilization.

Have you seen those new style cloaks at Caples & Thomas? They are going fast. Call and select one before they are all picked over.

Mrs. Fogarty of Portland visited her place at Gales Creek Tuesday, stopping on her way at the Grove.

New Home Sewing Machine, best machine in the market, kept at the furniture store.

A. W. Broos, a Salem blacksmith, was in town Tuesday looking over the situation with a view to locating.

LADIES:

YOU CAN GET FASHION MAGAZINES AGAIN AT RAYMOND'S.

Housekeeping outfits for young married couples at Smith's. Prices, styles and quality to suit.

Dr. Geiger who has been east of the mountains on a prospecting trip has returned and was in town today.

Nice line of fancy stationery. Something that will suit the college students. City Drug Store.

Everything good to eat and drink at Wells'.

The timber and slashings in the vicinity of Cedar Mills have been on fire for several days but there has been no wind to carry the flames and they have about died out. Little valuable timber has been destroyed.

Lost—A 2nd alto Band Book at or near Dilley. Finder please leave at HATCHET office.

How to keep your furniture new.—Use Davies' Varnish Stains. For sale at Abbot & Roe's.

"THEY BUY CHEAP, SELL A HEAP AND KEEP FOREVER AT IT."

CAPLES & THOMAS'

Buy for less and can sell for less than any credit store in Washington County.

WEEKLY OREGONIAN $1.50 WEEKLY HATCHET

Every teacher should take some educational journal. Among the best papers of this class

THE TEACHERS OUTLOOK
MONTHLY—OCTOBER TO JULY

Aims to represent the latest ideas and most successful method of teaching

The school news of the county will receive special attention from the WASHINGTON COUNTY HATCHET

The Teachers Outlook and the Washington County Hatchet
BOTH FOR $1.25

Methodist Church. At 11 a. m. Mrs. S. H. Addison will give one of her eloquent lectures. The pastor will preach in the evening.

Yes, Greer the grocer has the finest line of teas and coffees in the city.

Mrs. A. L. Ingles spent Wednesday at the home of her uncle, Mr. Jesse Cornelius. Mr. Cornelius has been sick over six weeks and is in serious condition. His son, Edward, has returned from Southern Oregon where he has been since April and is staying with his father.

Aaron Wells had 17 pounds of strawberries from Mr. Mauss' place, near Greenville, on sale today. These strawberries are 12 1/2 cents a pound.

Caples & Thomas have just received a large assortment of gents' and ladies' underwear direct from the factory in Philadelphia.

Mr. Meikel of New Whatcom, Wash., was in town the early part of this week.

Midwifery a specialty. Anaesthetics administered and women confined without pain by C. L. Large M. D. of Forest Grove.

Good books, standard authors, best choice in town. City Drug Store.

The old Hinman building on the south-western corner of the campus is being moved away. Work was begun Wednesday and it will soon be in its new location on Mr. Hinman's property in the south-eastern part of the city where it will be divided and made into two dwellings. The building has long stood in its present location and is one of the landmarks of the town. Its removal will add greatly to the appearance of the campus. It is hoped the Congregational church woodshed may soon cease to mar the appearance of the church square. If the old campus fence could be removed or replaced with a single chain or heavy wire stretched from posts another great improvement would be accomplished.

A new line of stationery at the Miller Pharmacy.

The state lecturer of the W. C. T. U. will speak to the Good Templars Saturday evening for half an hour from 8:15. Friends are invited to this part of the session which will be open.

All kinds of temperance drinks at Wells'.

There will be a social dance at Parker's ball next Saturday evening, Oct. 19th. A grand time and fine music is assured to all Greenville.

Miss Cora Lee of New Whatcom, Wash., is visiting relatives in town.

Bargains in land. Eighty acres joining the town of Dilley, 60 under cultivation, good house, barn and out buildings, four hundred fruit trees and any quantity of small fruits. Living water. All for fifty dollars per acre on reasonable terms. LANGLEY & SON.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lord of Greenville were in town Wednesday.

Mr. S. G. Hughes and his guest, Mr. Sibley of Hobsonville visited Portland Tuesday.

FARMERS!
Plow Shoes at $1.25 at Gregg's Shoe Store.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Chandler Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Addison will be present at the meeting.

Mr. Dawson of Greenville was in town Tuesday.

The ladies of the Christian church will give a sunflower tea in the church parlors next Friday week, the 25th.

C. L. Hinman has just received 35 dozen whips direct from the factory bought at factory prices and will be sold accordingly. Finest stock of whips ever brought to Washington county.

Mr. Stokesberry, brother-in-law of H. H. Clark, who was working with Clark & Morgan's woodsaw, suffered a painful accident Tuesday. While sawing a gnarly stick, the saw struck a knot, the wood turned, throwing his hand against the blade and three fingers of the right hand were cut, the third finger was completely severed, the second partially and the nail of the forefinger removed. Dr. Ward dressed the wound.

Money to Loan.
From $500 to $50,000, three to five years, at 5 per cent, on improved farms. NIXON & GERRISH, Forest Grove.

Something new.—Enamel paints, all tints, at Abbot Roe's.

Last night a company of Good Templars surprised the Grand Chief Templar Mr. W. W. Breeden, and Mrs. Breeden at their home in South Park. There was a house full of them and with music and songs and the cordial attention of host and hostess they had a delightful evening. They left as soveners of their visit a pickle dish containing half a dozen silver spoons engraved "I. O. G. T." Mr. Breeden is not only chief of the order in this state but has ever been an earnest worker in Forest Grove lodge and done much toward building it up. His friends sincerely regret his removal from Forest Grove but wish him and Mrs. Breeden every happiness in their new home.

Chas. Hawk who has been at a Portland hospital for sometime has returned to Spring Hill farm, considerable improved. Mrs. Hawk is with him.

Even Change Tobacco 15 cents a pound. Caples & Thomas.

Mr. Crockett Harrison, who formerly lived here, returned from eastern Oregon Thursday, and will spend the winter in the Grove.

Fine Stationery.

A good assortment of writing papers and envelopes to choose from, full line just been received and in quality and price will be sure to please you. Miller Pharmacy.

Notice of Final Settlement.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned executrix of the last will and testament of Jacob Wirtz, deceased, has filed her final account as such executrix in the County Court of Washington County, Oregon, and said Court has appointed Monday the 18th day of November, 1895, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., as the hour for hearing such report.

Dated at Hillsboro, Wash., 16th day of October, 1895.

AGNES WIRTZ,
Executrix of the last will and testament of Jacob Wirtz, deceased. 33

Dissolution of Partnership.

The partnership heretofore existing between Melki Johnson, S. B. Gilpin and T. J. Harris, doing a real estate business at Forest Grove, Washington county, Oregon, is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

Dated this 9th day of Oct., 1895.
Melki Johnson,
T. J. Harris,
S. B. Gilpin.