Washington based game with which the paper began, however appropriate to the time, was later superseded by the game which has since its day been familiarly known as the Hatchet and is played with the same rules as those which have been in vogue since the first issue of the paper. A large illustration of the game is given in the Hatchet and will have out a newspaper which shall be as easy to keep in the lead and as true to the people's interests as the Hatchet printed in the old days.

The Hatchet with its four pages of news has been eagerly sought after and its response to this demand will be another advance in its development. Next week's Hatchet will contain four pages full of local news and with its four pages filled with the latest news and world's news, with some general news and with fascinating reads.

Its pages will be found something to interest every member of the family. The Hatchet's career has been short but it is successful and now stands in its improved and enlarged form as the leading paper of one of Oregon's richest and most prosperous counties.

Competition the Life of Trade. Since the Hatchet started in our editorial career, we have found it necessary to move from the old building to the new one. It is a building which is well adapted to the needs of the business and is a credit to the city.

Some Matamoras Prunes. We are in receipt of a package of some of the finest prunes we have ever seen from Mr. C. V. B. Russell of Forest Grove, Oregon. In a letter which followed the package Mr. Russell says: "I send you by mail a sample of our prunes grown and dried by us and I tell you we think them very fine. You get some lady friends of yours to stew them, put in 1/2 sugar, cook slow, then put them in a bowl with good cream, then take two spoons and go for them. If they are not good say so. We have today for our strawberries, blueberries, and have the second crop this season. How is that? Oregon leads the world for fruit. I see your folks make a big noise about your apples but we folks in this valley do not think much of apples. I think from the looks of this part of Oregon that it was not far from this grove when Eve ate the apple and so we have turned our attention to prunes and pears. Mills county is a good country but Washington county Oregon will be in the lead in a few years. Well, I have health once more and this country looks better to me than it did at first. Iowa is all right but Oregon will in the near future with her resources lead all the states in the Union. You want to come out and look at it. It will do you good."—Mills County (Iowa) Tribune.

The Colored Concert. Glasgow's colored concert company gave an excellent entertainment in Yette hall Saturday evening under the auspices of the band. The house was crowded and it seemed as though every one in town was there. The program was well rendered and the performance artistic but a general complaint was that the jubilee element did not predominate. The few times when choruses were given the audience was tumultuous in its applause. The dancing met general favor too. It did not seem natural, however, when one came expecting darkey glee and plantation melodies to hear conventional duets, trios and quartets. To be in harmony with their music the dancing should have been minuets instead of breakdowns and shuffles. This was the only drawback. Everything was given in good style and enjoyed. It was a $65 house and met the band twenty odd dollars which they richly deserve for their enterprise in bringing so good a troupe here.

Money to Loan. From five to $5000, three to five years, at 6 per cent, on improved farms. NIXON & GERRISH, Forest Grove.

Honesty in Politics. "The prevailing impression that to be a successful politician a man must be a dual character, a sort of Dr. Jeckyl and Mr. Hyde, as it were, is a mistake and founded in error. AT THE VARSITY.

Last Saturday was a busy time for the foot ball men of the state. The Willamette University team defeated the State Normal at Moscow. The second normal of Portland University beat Newberg College with a score of 6 to 0.

While the members of Portland University and its team distinguished themselves in the Portland-Tacoma game. The struggle between the State University and Corvick was a vexatious one to all those who expected to see a good game, as the O. A. C. team fell an easy victim and was badly defeated with a lopsided score of 40 to 0.

This proves that either Eugene has an extraordinarily strong team or the Corvick boys were "in it" at all. But you must remember that the Agricultural College has the best coach in the state, Ex-Capt. Downing of Stevedore. After this humiliating defeat, Capt. Downing will doubtless train and instruct his team to the very best of his ability and will try to make a new team out of it.

So our team will not find any map or pudding when they tack the Corvick line. We have a very good team this season—a team which may be a credit to P. U. before the season is over. But they need more practice and more training. They must have a strong second team to back against. There ought to be at least fifteen young men in this institution who will promise to come out every afternoon and play against the first team. Come, boys. We must win the pennant!

The Varsity team will play with Pacific College at Newberg next Saturday. Prof. Marsh, Ferris and Bates attended the Exposition Saturday. Roy Bart of Hillsboro was here Friday.

Mrs. Adams of Spokane Falls visited her son Frank at Mrs. E. H. Marsh's. Miss Hingley, a former student, attended the Institute and visited her college friends. Chas. Gritmacher, Trese Jones's chess Wilson, Thaddeus Hancock and John Miller drove down to Portland Friday night. They attended the Exposition, took in the foot ball game, elected, yelled and shouted till they got hoarse and then they came home.

State Supt. Irwin led the exercises at chapel Friday morning. The programme for next Saturday night at Gamma Sigma: Oration by Geo. L. Haskell; Banjo Solo by Beno Bradley; Debate: Resolved that the U. S. government should complete and control the Nicaragua Canal; Music by the famous jubilee quartette, Bradley, Bauer, Fletcher and Marsh.

A. S. Staub broke the bicycle record between here and Portland. He is said to have made it in one hour, forty-two minutes, thirty-nine seconds and fifteen thirds.

Honesty in Politics. "The prevailing impression that to be a successful politician a man must be a dual character, a sort of Dr. Jeckyl and Mr. Hyde, as it were, is a mistake and founded in error. The most successful public men we have ever known were men of the strictest honor in all the relations of life. There may have been a time when to dissemble and cheat was thought necessary, but if that course was ever profitable, it is no longer so. To a great extent this has become a nation of politicians, and this is as it should be, for through our system of education no boy's soul is considered half complete until he is familiar with the constitution and forms of government, and all well informed, patriotic citizens, recognizing each their responsibility, feel the importance of being well informed and of asserting themselves, according to their views, on all public questions, and to this extent all are politicians. But the day of the post-horse politician has gone. Selfishness, bores and whiners have lost their power. "The people rule," and they should demand that the men of the best intelligence, integrity and uprightiness be selected for all places of honor and importance. It is no reproach to be called a "politician" for the word itself implies one versed in the science of government and the advancement of public interest. In this we see the importance of organization, and it is commendable in our young men that they are taking this view and are preparing for their better development and better fitness for the practical and responsible duties before them."—Port Townsend Leader.

Mrs. Wallace Peterson and children moved from this place to Hillsboro last week. Miss Maggie Ingles of Forest Grove made her sister a visit at this place last Sunday, returning Sunday evening. Mr. John Sexton and family of Buxton are now located near Hillsboro. They have behind a host of friends who feel sadly the loss of such valuable people to the community.

Mr. Travis of Portland, a member of the West Minister Presbytery and organizer of Sunday schools, gave the Buxton Sunday school a talk Sunday afternoon and also preached in the evening to a well filled house. Mr. Travis has been working up the Sunday school of this place and Manning for the past three years, and now thinks the people should establish a church here and build a church house. This is a subject in which everyone should be interested as it is a great benefit to any community to have a church.

Report of school district No. 72, Buxton, Or., for the month beginning Sept. 30 and ending Oct. 25, 1895. Total number of pupils enrolled for the month, 42; average attendance, 34; number of pupils tardy, 6; teacher, L. W. Traver. Ed. McMahon made a sale of nine acres of land near Buxton. Mr. Stowell being the purchaser. School began in the Manning school house with Miss Gordon as teacher.

Mr. G. W. Hall and Miss Jennie Brown were married at Forest Grove, October 23d, Rev. C. A. Miller, officiating. The young couple returned to the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Brown, in the evening and were duly surrounded by the tin pan brigade, aided seconded by the Scoggins Valley cow bell quartette.

Wm. Baxter has returned to his farm in the hill and is burning slashing for pasture and making general improvements on his place. Remember the sociable at the school house Nov. 8. Everybody invited. A good program for the evening. Music, instrumental and vocal recitations, dialogues, tableaux, music. Sale of tickets immediately after the exercises are over. First and second prizes to be auctioned off. Come one and all and have more fun than Cain and Able had with the measles.

Mrs. Alex and John Baxter are in Portland with a load of produce, and say, John, don't Portland getting to be an interesting town? Mr. Bradley of Forest Grove gave us an interesting Sabbath sermon last Sunday afternoon. Come again. Mr. Andrew Porter of the Grove was up the valley last Friday.

GLENCOE. Frank Chambers has returned to Astoria to work. John Zimmerman of Poverty Hill was doing business in our city today. V. A. Billim and wife, also Mrs. Boss and Albert Chambers were visitors to the fair at Portland this week. The Lenox mill has increased to two trips per week. D. Harvey and family, accompanied by friends from Ohio, visited Willamette College. They intend to try and enter a few cat fish to bite at the bait. George Darcy has a load on his ankle so he is excused from work this week. F. W. Goodin has carpenters working on his new house.

Jacob Jackey lost a few sacks of potatoes last week. He tracked the wagon to the house of one of our (supposed) good citizens. J. S. Jackson, J. R. Mays and J. C. Bills, appraisers of the estate of Christian Carl, deceased, were attending to their duties Monday. Some of our young people got disappointed last Sunday. They were informed that there would be a basket dinner at the Hahn school house, but when they got there, there was no dinner for them.

SCOGGINS VALLEY. Mr. G. W. Hall and Miss Jennie Brown were married at Forest Grove, October 23d, Rev. C. A. Miller, officiating. The young couple returned to the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Brown, in the evening and were duly surrounded by the tin pan brigade, aided seconded by the Scoggins Valley cow bell quartette.
