Vacant House Burned.

Fire has caused another loss in the Grove. Friday evening about 9:30 Geo. R. Hughes noticed smoke coming from a vacant house in the southeastern part of the town and shouting fire the alarm was taken up and finally the bells began to strike the call. By the time the truck got on the ground the flames were beyond control but the boys watched until all danger to the neighboring dwellings was past. The fire burned quickly and the flames shot high into the air then the chimney fell with a crash and the large crowd which had assembled was driven back by the intense heat. The firemen pulled down one wall with the hook and then the others fell in. Charley Robinson over-exerted himself in running to the fire with the heavy Babcock extinguisher and was ill. Another cause was that in throwing one of the heavy ladders over the fence he was struck by the end.

The building was a seven room house built two or three years ago by Mrs. Crowthers. It was only partially finished inside. The house was the property of Mr. John F. Haynie of Gaston and occupied only by Mr. Craft who was away at the time of the fire. All the doors, windows and bedstead and bedding, cooking utensils, chair, table, stove and clock were saved so that little in the way of contents was destroyed. The loss is thought to be about $800 insurance $500 with Bank of Forest Grove. The origin of the fire is unknown, the flames first came from above the kitchen. The house is located just outside the city limits on the lane south of the Cornelius road.

Patton Valley Farms.

Some of the largest and most productive farms of Washington county are situated in Patton's Valley, nearly west of Gaston.

Among these is the 500 acre stock farm belonging to A. Hinman of Forest Grove. It is under the able management of S. H. Dunbar, who makes a specialty of Black Percheron horses, and is owner of the well known stallion "Oregon", and some of the best colts in the state. The farm also keeps a good herd of Holstein and Durham cattle.

Darling Smith owns a tract of 1400 acres, four miles west of Gaston, and also raises Durham cattle extensively, owning at present about forty head. He owns fifteen head of percheron horses, and has received premiums on his colts for the past two years. Mr. Smith has about 160 acres in meadows, and the timothy seed raised on his farm won the premium at the World's Fair. The farm is also well stocked with the best breeds of poultry. It contains one of the largest spawning grounds for trout in our state, and is a popular place for sports men.

Thos. Seth owns a large farm in the vicinity and is running a dairy of twenty cows.

Hon. Thos. Roe also has a farm of 500 acres, adjoining the last mentioned, and like him, keeps cows and sends the milk to the Forest Grove creamery. Among the many influential citizens of Patton's Valley, might be mentioned: William Kertson, J. D. Corbett and T. B. Lott.

Hillsboro School.

Theodore Osmund, a pupil of the Hillsboro school, was severely hurt at football, sustaining a severe fracture of one of the lower leg bones. He was taken to the office of Dr. J. P. Tamiesie who dressed the wound. It will probably be two months before he can attend school.

The attraction of the popular game seems to lie in the fact that broken legs, unjointed backs, and "masked noses" can be had to form a pleasing change to the program, which otherwise might prove most monotonous.

The teachers of Hillsboro public school, have each chosen a flag day, commemorative of some event. The pupils of Mr. G. W. West, 7th grade, celebrated Dec. 20, Landing of the Pilgrims, with excellent recitations and readings.

Prin. J. H. Stanley and wife invited the Hillsboro teachers to spend a pleasant evening at their home; but as the distance was so great, all met at the home of Mrs. M. M. Pittenger. A most pleasant occasion, varied by music and refreshments, and long to be remembered by all. The teachers present were: Mrs. Dora J. Elliott, Mr. G. W. West, Misses Grace Boscow, Grace Cronkite, Lucy Humphreys, E. M. Coleman, Rose Wilcox and Mrs. M. M. Pittenger.

Bachelors Party at Glencoe

Mr. Dave Buckley gave a stag social to his young bachelor friends, on Christmas night, at his new residence on Punkin Ridge, and from the report, the boys must have had a jovial time. One young man at least must have enjoyed it, as he came away wearing a coat and vest six sizes too small for him.

Death of Martin Manning

Telegrams were received Monday by Mr. Anton Pfanner and Mr. S. Hughes, announcing that Mr. Martin Manning of Manning had been found dead in bed at a hotel in Senora, Cal. that morning. Mr. Pfanner, who was his intimate friend, started the same evening for Senora and will bring the body to Forest Grove. It is now in charge of the Masonic lodge there. It can not be told yet when the funeral will be. The burial is to be at the Wilks cemetery, Greenville, beside his nephew's grave. The services will be conducted by Holbrook lodge, A. F. and A. M. of this city where he was made a Mason and always retained his membership.

Martin Manning was at his decease about sixty-three years of age. He had gone to California ten days previously in company with Judge Baber and was in apparent good health though suffering slightly with rheumatism. Mr. Manning was an old settler in Washington county having located at Manning in '65. There with Mr. Russell, whom he went to California to visit this recent trip, he engaged in saw milling. Before this he had been in the mines. He had accumulated considerable property of which he made generous use. He was a large hearted public spirited man, known throughout all this region and his sudden death is felt as a personal loss by many. An aged mother and a sister it is said survive him, residing in his native state of New York.
