$10,000 A YEAR WASTED.

The board of railroad commissioners held its first monthly session of the year Monday week. In the case of Joseph Foster, the board found he was run over and killed by a Southern Pacific overland train near Grant's Pass, December 20.
The deceased was intoxicated, it is alleged, and there was no negligence on the part of the company.
In the matter of depot facilities at Gaston, the commissioners dismissed the case without prejudice.
The people offered certain other lands for a depot. The commissioners hold that the business did not warrant directing the company to accept the proposition of the people. The commission finds that R. M. Moore's death was occasioned by attempting to alight from a freight train at New Era, upon which he was stealing a ride. He was ordered off by the brakeman and jumped while crossing a bridge.
The report of the January session reads much the same as the reports that have gone before it and makes us fear that the $10,000 which the taxpayers of the state have to pay the three commissioners and their clerk for this and the eleven succeeding meetings will be spent for nothing as in other years. If the railroads need twelve coats of Kalsominer a year let them pay for it and not put the burden on the people.
If the commission wants to earn its salary let it turn its attention, give five or ten dollars' worth of its expensive time, to the freight rates of the Southern Pacific, schedules fearfully and wonderfully inconsistent unless based on competition rather than distance.

OUT OF A MOLE HILL.

The teachers and patrons of the public school would doubtless be greatly pleased if certain people of the community were not so ready to start the cry, "mad dog, mad dog," when there is no mad dog nor any prospect of one.

We are well aware of the terrible significance of the word "diphtheria," and do not wish to be understood as not realizing the fearful effects of the disease should it appear among us. But we also believe that such epidemics are aggravated by the feverish state of excitement into which a community may be thrown by the carelessness or carelessness of some who thoughtlessly or otherwise circulate reports which are entirely uncalled for.

The teachers of the public school as well as the board of directors have at least common sense and are watching with the greatest care for the appearance of any sign of the disease, and will in any and every case take all the precautionary measures within their power to prevent the disease from reaching the schoolroom.

It would be a great help and the only way proper, when anyone knows of any fact which concerns the safety of the school, to report it to the teachers in person or to the board of directors and not send the report broadcast among the children to cause a panic. The quieter the matter can be kept, if anything should happen, the better the thing can be handled, and the less liability of its becoming epidemic.

The man who sets up the meeting notices on the Daily Oregonian is fast winning fame for himself.
It is said that the Scottish Rite emblem has appeared in a Good Templars notice. On the 6th the cross and crown of the Knight Templar was evidently considered the fitting ornament of the W. C.
T. U. The I. O. O. F. insignia always appears upside down as did the Royal Arcu Keystone on Wednesday last. This compositor must be a relative of the Gervais Star printer who is still running a Jr. Order of American Mechanics emblem in the Masonic lodge card.

The city of Forest Grove is very gallant. At the close of its ordinance prohibiting the riding of bicycles, velocipedes, tricycles or roller skates on certain sidewalks, it adds: "Provided nothing in this shall be construed to prohibit any female from riding a bicycle, tricycle or velocipede on the above named sidewalks." If our women haven't the rights they have the privileges. But even a woman can't ride on roller skates on Forest Grove sidewalks with impunity.
Where the city fathers draw the line.

And so the threatened war with Great Britain proves only a passing cloud. The lion is too busy holding on to his prey in Africa to bother with South America.

Highwaymen at Cedar Mill.

Hands up! was the request that met Richard Forestel, about 4 p. m. Monday last when he had reached a point half way up the mountain on the Cornell road.
As the demand was emphasized by a couple of six-shooters in the hands of two desperate looking characters with masks over their faces, "Dick" concluded that discretion was the better part of valor and his hands at once sought the perpendicular. His pockets were then systematically gone through, the robbers securing about $1.00, then ordering their victim to proceed. After which the high-waymen evidently held a consultation and concluded the amount obtained was hardly sufficient for the risk and decided to try it again which they did with the next passerby who chanced to be J. Sullivan. Johnny received the same attention from their hands as had Forestel a few minutes previous, merely telling them not to shoot. They replied, "they would not if he kept still," after securing about $4.75 they ordered him ahead, telling him "not to look back" or they would put a bullet through him. Those who have passed over this road will remember that it is an ideal place for a "hold up" and the only wonder is that it has not occurred before. The robbers showed considerable agitation indicating that they were novices, while their evident desire not to be recognized by concealing their faces with masks, and their clothing by rubber coats seems to confirm the suspicion, for it was known that Forestel was to receive a considerable sum of money on this day and therefore that they are persons of this immediate vicinity. He had taken the precaution however to deposit this money in the bank before leaving town.

Christmas Babies.

I noticed in the official paper of this county, The HATCHET, that a daughter was born to a Mrs. Lepschat, residing in this county on last Christmas. If this lady will secure a statement signed by the attending physician, and forward it to the publishers of the San Francisco Weekly Chronicle, they will forward to the baby a beautiful silver cup, neatly engraved and lined with gold. This little souvenir, as the years come and go, will be looked to with fond remembrance by the family, itself and friends.

Not Sisters but Relatives.

The surprise to the Knights of Pythias last Saturday evening week was by the Knights wives, not by the Rathbone Sisters as we had it. All Sisters are wives, daughters or sisters of Knights but not all the latter are Sisters. A delegation from the Temple left their cards for the fighting editor Friday and this retraction is made so that we may be at home next time they call. Anyway it was the fault of a brother Sister and ought to be forgiven.

More Stealing.

Last Friday night, about nine o'clock some one attempted to break into the granary of Thos. Otchins, living near Lenox. As the granary was locked, the would-be thieves were trying to saw their way in, and their dark lantern was seen by the people at the house. They were frightened away, and were tracked, the next morning to where they had left their team. Among the many things Mr.
Otchins has lost in the past few years, are: a set of harness, 500 lbs. bacon, 50 lbs. binding twine, a load of oats, a sheep and a plow. Mr. Otchins also lost several hundred dollars by fire in the past year.

Death of Thomas Seth.

Thomas Seth, a prominent citizen and old resident of this county, died in his chair, it is supposed of paralysis of the heart, on Wednesday evening at his home in Patton Valley.

He was born in Scotland seventy-four years ago, was in California as a miner and came to Oregon. He made his home in Patton Valley for the past thirty-two years and had accumulated considerable property including a farm of 320 acres.
The funeral will be at eleven o'clock Friday morning. Burial at the Hill Cemetery.

City Election.

Monday was city election day. Six tickets were in the field and excitement ran high. Interested workers, doggers and knots collected on the corners were features of the day. At the council chamber was the polling place and there were the judges, Ed. Buxton, S. A.
Walker and H. H. Clark, and Clerks J. P.
Wagner and M. D. Markham. Mr. Clark and Mr. Markham being elected by the voters to fill vacancies. During the afternoon the band was out playing and serenading and in the evening the enthusiasm manifested itself in a bonfire.

regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters.
This medicine does not stimulate and

School District No. 21

School progressing nicely. Average attendance last month 38. Although the weather has been quite rainy, we are glad to see so many pupils holding out faithful in attendance. We would be glad if parents would visit the school frequently. A hearty interest manifested by parents may prove a great encouragement to pupils as well as to the teacher.

Mr. Moore lately moved into our district. There seemed to circulate among the young people last week an idea that it would be nice to promote acquaintance and friendship and to have a good time generally, to give a surprise party at Mr.
Moore's. Last Friday evening was the time chosen. There were twenty-six persons present. Games were enjoyed till 11:30 o'clock, refreshments being served at 10 o'clock. All reported an enjoyable time.

Recently there seemed to be a little excitement in the neighborhood, at least with one fellow living about seven miles northwest of Hillsboro. The horses in some way were out of their proper places and in the night one of them stepped on the porch. Dan, as we will call him, saw through the window the horse's white face and thought it was somebody's white shirt. He stepped quietly, got one of his guns and said; I dare anyone to come in without knocking. His father told him it was the horse.
