

HILLSBORO.

Joe Vaughn of Forest Grove was observed in Hillsboro Tuesday. Wm. Jolly of Portland was transacting business in Hillsboro, Monday. H. V. Gates is looking after his light and water interests in Heppner. Justice J. I. Knight, who has been on a trip to California, has returned. Mrs. Michael M-ore was quite sick last week but is now convalescent. Quite a number of Hillsboro people attended the funeral of Martin Manning, Sunday. W. E. Brock and wife left Hillsboro last Thursday for Heppner to visit relatives of Mrs. Brock. The First National Bank held its annual election Tuesday afternoon. The old board was re-elected. Deputy Dist. Attorney Adams returned Tuesday morning from an extended business trip to San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. John I. Northrop of Mountaineer vicinity spent Saturday in Hillsboro the guests of W. J. Wall and family. W. E. Pruyn of the light and water company, visited friends here last week. He is now at Castle Rock, Wash., assisting with the plant at that place. It is reported that Mr. Wehrung lost a purse containing about $300. After considerable search it was found on the floor near the safe. The report is that the money was still in the purse, but some money orders were missing. Two young men from the vicinity of Forest Grove were before Justice Knight Monday on a charge of assault and battery. A fine of $20 and costs was assessed against each. In default of payment they were committed to jail. The Hillsboro Band gave a concert at Jackson Lake Saturday evening. Boats were lashed together so as to make room for all the members, and the boys say they enjoyed themselves, notwithstanding the cold. After landing they repaired to the residence of Judge Crandall and partook of lunch and hot coffee. Last Monday while playing foot ball on the school playground Theodore Osmund was quite badly hurt. While running he slipped and fell, some of the other boys falling about the same time on his leg. Fred Whitcomb took him in the delivery wagon to the Dr. Not finding Dr. Linklater he went to Dr. Tamiesie. The Dr. reported that the bone of his leg was cracked and that he would not be able to walk to school for two months, but that he might attend school in a few days if some body would bring him. After Dr. Tamiesie attended the injured boy he was taken home. Phoenix Lodge, No. 34, K. of P. and the Rathbone Sisters held a joint installation of officers at Masonic Hall, Monday evening. Following is a list of Knights inducted into office: P. C., F. G. Williams; C. C., J. M. Wall; V. C. Frank Kelso; Prelate, L. K. Adams; K. R. and S., L. A. Long; M. F., Geo Schulmerich; M. A., Chas. Cave; I. G. Ed. James; O. G., John Kelley. Officer of Phoenix Temple, No. 10, Rathbone Sisters are: P. C., Alma Dorrien; M. E. C., Susie Stanley; E. C., Janie Sewell; E. J., Eliza Imbric; M., Elsie Schulmerich; M. R. C., Mary House; M. of P., Ella Williams; Protector, Daisy Dennis; O. G., Lib Conklin. In addition to the installation ceremonies a short program consisting of music and speeches was rendered. Commander Wall, on behalf of the Knights, presented to the sisters a handsome jewel case. Senator Huston made the principal speech of the occasion. The hall was filled almost to overflowing and all went away feeling that it was good to have been present. Visitors were present from Cornelius, Glencoe and Forest Grove.

GREENVILLE

Mrs. A. Young is quite ill. Miss Bertha Reiling is very ill of fever. Mrs. T. A. Ritchey has been suffering from a severe attack of quinsy. Miss Barrett has gone to Wilbur, Washington, to visit her sister, Mrs. J. M. Parrish. The many friends of Miss Minnie Tittle will be pleased to know she is now home on a visit to her parents. Mr. C. Russel who came from California to attend the burial of his friend Mr. Manning, will remain about ten days visiting friends and relatives. Mr. J. M. Parrish, formerly of this county but now a merchant at Wilbur, Washington, while attempting to climb hand to hand out of a forty foot well lost his hold when near the top and fell to the bottom, suffering a double fracture of his left leg. No other serious injuries were sustained by Mr. Parrish. One morning last week our usually quiet town was thrown into a fever of excitement by what at first was supposed to be a visit from Judge Lynch, but upon closer investigation it was discovered to be a stuffed figure representing one of our citizens. It was suspended from a sturdy oak in the business part of town. On his breast was placarded the following inscriptions, Ex Postmaster, Physician

All Recommend It.

Ask your physician, your druggist and your friends about Shiloh's Cure for Consumption. They will recommend it. For sale at Clark's drug store.

& Surgeon, Notary Public, Notorious Republican and various others. It is to seriously hoped that the youth of this neighborhood may find more useful and profitable employment than carving such figures and for such purposes. It passes beyond the pale of a joke and is a wanton insult to a reputable citizen.

CENTERVILLE.

George Vancouver has taken a job of grubbing of J. W. Marsh. There is a weekly stage and freight wagon that runs between here and Portland. W. B. Corum of Nehalem, who has been with his parents, returned home Thursday. Will Hermens and C. De Groot of Portland were visiting with J. Van Loms' folks this week. Rev. Dunlap will hold a protracted meeting next week at the school house commencing Monday evening at 7 o'clock. Fritz Knecht and G. W. Marsh shipped a lot of fine hogs to the Portland market this week realizing 4cts. per lb. for the same. A McCurdy, the popular carpenter of this place, has just completed a new barn for J. Van Lom, the enterprising merchant of this town. Peter Kheck, our blacksmith, has proved himself to be a first class workman consequently he has all the work he can do most of the time. The creamery is doing a good business and its patronage is still increasing which speaks well for the manager who is a thorough business man, and a gentleman as well. At the annual election of the Sunday school the following persons were elected officers for the ensuing year: Supt. E. H. Watters, Asst. Supt. H. Corum, Sec. Miss Lizzie Moon, Treas. G. W. Marsh, Chorister and Librarian, Mrs. Fannie McCurdy. The literary exercises last Wednesday were attended by a large and attentive audience who expressed themselves as well pleased with the program. At our next meeting will be a debate on, Resolved that Commerce is more beneficial to a nation than Agriculture. Affirmative J. E. Wilson Negative E. H. Watters.

SCHOLLS.

The nights are frosty and ice instead of rain. J. W. and Geo. Baker did business in Hillsboro Saturday. Miss Agnes Ross who has been very ill is slowly recovering. C. LeBeau and family were visiting relatives in St. Paul last week. The literary society has been organized again at Mt. Side school house. Mrs. Lee Rue was very ill last week but is able to be out once more. Mrs. Jackson of Hillsboro is visiting her daughter Mrs. Emrick of this place. Mrs. Collier is lying in a precarious condition at her home suffering from a paralytic stroke. We noticed Sheriff Ford and Edd Lyons pass through here Tuesday enroute for Middleton. Mr. and Mrs. Edward spent the first of the week in Portland and Oregon City visiting friends. Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Flint left Monday for California where they contemplate spending the winter. Geo. Goudie has been very low with typhoid and pneumonia fever but is reported as improving. Mrs. Emmel of Ill. who purchased the Lawrence farm has arrived and will take possession immediately. Mr. Chas. Johnson and Miss Hettie Simpson of near Farmington, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Groner Sunday. There has been a great deal of sickness in this locality but most all are on the mend now, owing to Dr. Linklater's skillful treatment. Chas. Coarse and D. Savage have established a logging camp here, work began last Monday. They furnish logs for mills in Oregon City. Mrs. Clara Smock and daughter Dora, who have been visiting her uncle S. Seely here past two weeks, left Sunday for her home in Dallas, Oregon.

Your Boy Won't Live a Month.

So Mr. Gilman Brown, of 34 Mill St., South Gardner, Mass., was told by the doctors. His son had Lung trouble, following Typhoid Malaria, and he spent three hundred and seventy-five dollars with doctors, who finally gave him up, saying: "Your boy won't live a month." He tried Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles restored him to health and enabled him to go to work a perfectly well man. He says he owes his present good health to use of Dr. King's New Discovery, and knows it to be the best in the world for Lung trouble. Trial Bottles Free at Miller's Pharmacy.
