The sight of horses standing for hours in the mud and water, tied along Main street by the church square has led a sane citizen to suggest that a board fifteen feet or so feet wide be built across the length of the square. The cost would be slight with lumber as cheap as it is now and it would be a great convenience. The business men could well afford to subscribe the amount necessary. Forest Grove now has no fit place for horses to stand.

Birthday Surprise.

Mrs. George Boos was greatly surprised on the afternoon of Wednesday the 26th, by the arrival at her home of a company of ladies, each bringing a basket or parcel and all apparently in possession of some pleasant secret. It did not take the lady long to recover from her surprise, however and a gracious welcome was accorded the invaders. The occasion was the birthday of the hostess as it was also of one of the guests Mrs. J. Taylor. Conversation, music and a bounteous repast were the special features of the afternoon, and the merry hours sped swiftly bringing all too soon the time of leave taking. Many were the wishes for a long life and prosperity for the two ladies whose anniversary occurred on this day. Those present were: Mrs. G. Boos, Misses Lena Boos, Laura Boos and Eva Rose, Mesdames, Heitzhausen, Bisbee, Hague, A. E. Brown, Anderson, Wirtz, Jerome, Hudson, Taylor, Crosley, R. N. Taylor, Walker, Bowlby, Greer, J. N. Walker and Mrs. Ed Boos if we omit the gentlemen who, though not of the party, intuitively chose the correct time to appear and secure their share of the feast. The hostess bids fair to realize the hope that she may enjoy many more such anniversaries.
