UNCLE SAM AND SPAIN

IT NOW SEEMS THAT A WAR BETWEEN THEM IS INEVITABLE.

The United States Senate by a Decisive Vote Recognizes the Belligerency of the Cubans—The News in Spain—American Consulate Attacked.

Washington, March 2.—By the overwhelming vote of 64 to 6 the senate today adopted a concurrent resolution favorable to Cuban belligerency and independence. The resolutions adopted are as follows:

"Resolved, By the senate, the house of representatives concurring, that, in the opinion of congress, a condition of public war exists between the government of Spain and the government proclaimed and for some time maintained by force of arms by the people of Cuba; and, that the United States of America should maintain a strict neutrality between the contending powers, according to each all the rights of belligerents in the ports and territory of the United States.

"Resolved, That the friendly offices of the United States should be offered by the president to the Spanish government for the recognition of the independence of Cuba."

When the result was announced, the densely packed galleries broke into loud and continued applause, which the vice-president checked, with difficulty.

The main feature of the debate was the speech of Sherman, chairman of the committee on foreign relations. As a rule, the veteran senator from Ohio, speaks with conservatism; so it was the more surprising when he arraigned Spain and her governor-general, Weyler, in the most scathing language.

Sherman read specific instances in which Weyler was pictured as stripping young girls held as captives and compelling them to dance before the Spanish soldiers.

ATTACK ON THE CONSULATE

Violent Demonstration Against the United States in Barcelona.

Barcelona, Spain, March 3.—The fever of indignation and hate against the United States, which seems to have taken possession of the heart of all Spain over the action of the United States senate in recognizing the provisional government of Cuba as belligerents, and in calling upon President Cleveland to use his good offices with Spain to secure the independence of Cuba, culminated in violent scenes here today, and an attack upon the United States consulate.

The trouble did not arise out of the spontaneous formation of the mob which did the violence, but was the outcome of a public meeting, which had been influenced by fervid speeches. The public demonstration to protest against the United States senate's action was organized by the political leaders, including Republicans and men of all shades of political sentiment.

It was 3 o'clock in the afternoon when the meeting had assembled, and there were 15,000 people present, all in a state of high patriotic enthusiasm and ripe for any manifestation of the emotions which possessed them. They were addressed by the orators provided for the occasion, and the purpose of the meeting explained as one of protest against the recognition of the Cuban government as a belligerent power by the United States senate. The spirit of the crowd took fire, and they set out for the United States consulate. The leaders who had originated the meeting seem to have realized the serious consequences which might follow upon a demonstration that took this direction, and they made every effort to dissuade the mob from its purpose; but their utmost efforts were of no avail, and the crowd set off for the United States consulate.

The authorities of the city had by this time taken alarm, and a force of police was sent to the consulate. The excited crowd was not intimidated by this show of force from gathering before the consulate and shouting: "Long live Spain," and "Down with the Yankees."

These verbal missiles did not long satisfy the aroused passions of the mob, and in a short time stones began flying from the crowd, which broke a number of windows in the United States consulate. The force of police waited for no further manifestation, but charged the crowd under the orders of their officers and roughly dispersed them, wounding several. So far as learned there were no fatal results.

Being driven away from the United States consulate, the crowd marched off to the newspaper offices. There they listened to more fervid oratory, and worked themselves up to the highest pitch of enthusiasm and patriotic spirit. The military club in the city was also a center of excitement, and there, also, were glowing speeches indulged in in honor of the army, which were eagerly listened to and greeted with loud cheers.

HOUSE RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Substituted for Those of the Senate and Passed by a Large Majority.

Washington, March 4.—Cuba libra had a field day in the house. Despite the war talk from Spain, the struggling patriots in Cuba were enlivened and sympathized in two hours' debate, and the rules were then suspended and the resolutions by the house foreign affairs committee were adopted as a substitute for those of the senate by an overwhelming majority, 263 to 17. An analysis of the vote shows that 188 Republicans, 70 Democrats and 5 Populists voted for the resolutions, and 9 Republicans and 8 Democrats against them. The debate which preceded their

THE RATE ON WHEAT

SUBJECT CONSIDERED BY RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS.

Same Schedule From Umatilla Points to Portland as From Walla Walla to Portland—This Means a Reduction of Thirty-five Cents Per Ton.

Salem, March 4.—The board of railroad commissioners considered the decision of the interstate commerce commission, recently rendered in the case of Evans vs. McNeill, receiver of the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company. This is the outcome of a company claim made by the petitioner (Evans) that the rate on wheat between Walla Walla and Portland then obtaining, $4.70 per ton, was excessive, and that it should be reduced to 1 cent per mile, or $2.45 per ton from Walla Walla to Portland. The present rate is $4.25 per ton. The decision of the interstate commerce commission is that a reasonable compensation to the carrier for the service is 19 1/2 cents per 100 pounds, or $3.90 per ton, a reduction of 35 cents per ton from present rates.

INDIGNATION IN SPAIN.

Feeling Against This Country Increased by Cable Dispatches.

Madrid, March 4.—Cable dispatches from the United States are increasing the feeling of indignation aroused among the masses when it became known the United States senate favored the recognition of the Cuban insurgents as belligerents. The newspapers here confirm the report that the Spanish naval squadron, consisting of four cruisers and a dispatch boat, is to be sent to Cuba without delay. In addition, the Spanish naval officers and marines are to be attached to Spanish mail boats, which are to be armed and equipped as auxiliary cruisers.

The greatest activity is being displayed in the government navy yards, and every precaution possible is being made by the naval and military forces for the most serious eventualities.

The Imparcial today declares that the utterances of the United States senate consist of an "unqualified and unreasoning provocation," adding:

"If the desire for war were in response to a fault committed by Spain, the senators would have accomplished their duty, but no provocation has been given to the United States, and the Americans judge rashly of the results of a Spanish-American war. The distasteful language of the senate ought not to surprise any one. United States senators are accustomed to exchange gross insults without crossing swords or exchanging balls. These are the cowards who are seeking war, and one awaits death with more coolness with a good conscience than with pockets filled with dollars."

In conclusion, the Imparcial counsels the Spaniards to reserve their strength and energies for an opportune moment.

A demonstration against the United States was attempted during the day by some students, but it was quickly dispelled by the police. In Barcelona mounted gendarmes have been kept busy patrolling the city and dispersing gatherings of persons plotting to wreak their wrath upon the representative of the United States government in that city, and renewed attempts were made during the day to do violence to the consulate. Crowds were repeatedly charged by the police and dispersed.

THE CHINESE EXCLUSION LAW

It Prevents a Celestial Returning to Give Evidence in Court.

Washington, March 2.—A case which presents a somewhat complicated state of affairs has been referred to the treasury department for determination. The record shows that several years ago a Chinaman named Chung Lung Fat came to this country and opened a laundry in the city of Boston. He was successful and frugal, and in time accumulated approximately $15,000. Joe Tye, another Chinese and a merchant, it is alleged, stole $14,500 of his countryman's money and sailed to China. Fat followed him, but before he could be apprehended he returned and was arrested and jailed. The question brought to the attention of the treasury department is whether, being a laborer, Fat, under the exclusion laws, can return to the country and give testimony against Tye, without which it is said he cannot be convicted of the larceny. Judge Reeve, the solicitor of the treasury, in rendering his decision, states that under the law he must hold that Fat is debarred from landing, even for so laudable a purpose as giving evidence against a criminal, who, it is alleged, has robbed him of the results of many years' hard labor. Tye will be released.

BRADSTREET'S REPORT.

Unfavorable Influence of Changeable Weather.

New York.—Bradstreet's trade review says: Changeable, and at times unseasonable, weather has continued to unfavorably influence the distribution of general merchandise. Jobbers at large Western centers do not anticipate a heavy spring trade, as the outlook is for retailers carrying over larger stocks than was expected. The price movement of leading staples is more favorable. Exports of wheat, flour included as wheat, from both coasts of the United States this week showed a marked falling-off, not only from the total a week ago, which was 3,184,000 bushels, but as compared with corresponding totals for concluding weeks in February in four preceding years. One year ago the week's exports amounted to 2,839,000 bushels, and two years ago it was 2,972,000; in 1893 it was 3,251,000, and in 1892 it was 2,908,000. The falling off in the total number of business failures throughout the United States a week ago is continued, the total being 271, compared with 276 last week and 234 in the corresponding week of 1895.

DOINGS OF CONGRESS.

Routine Work of the Fifty-Fourth Session—Senate.

Washington, March 2.—In the late today Allen withdrew his motion for the appointment of Mr. New as a senate official after a discussion to adding a Populist official to rolls. During the debate on the resolutions, the floor was yielded to the adoption of a conference report on the pension appropriation bill relating to the anchorage and movement of vessels in St. Mary's river. Minor amendments of Oregon, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, gave approval on Friday next he would call the Dupont contested election cases involving the seat from Delaware.

Washington, March 3.—The senate committee on naval affairs had Assistant Patent Examiner Stauffer stand in connection with the inquiry concerning the armor-plate contract today. He produced the records of patent office to show the action of the office on the Harvey application patents. The committee has succeeded in ascertaining among other things its recent inquiries that four-fifths the stock of the Harvey company owned abroad, and that the company receives a royalty of two cents a pound on all the Harveyized steel used in European countries. These facts were accepted as an explanation of the rates at which foreign contracts are to be passed by the senate today for increased navy attracted considerable attention, in view of the tension over Spanish-Cuban affairs. The bill as passed authorizes the addition of 1,000 enlisted men to the navy, the enlistment for not more than two years and chartering of transport ships in case of emergency. The bill passed under a five-minute rule and by unanimous vote. Another bill of general interest passed which established a retired pay for the revenue service, similar to the retirement system of the army and navy. Most of the day was given to the senate calendar and many minor bills were passed.

HOUSE.

Washington, March 2.—There was an enthusiastic demonstration in the house today, when Secretary Cox, the senate, shortly before 4 o'clock, appeared and announced the passage of the upper branch of congress of the Cuban resolutions, but the matter did not come up in any other form during the day. After encountering the unexpected opposition of Boutelle yesterday, the house leaders concluded to postpone taking up the resolutions until the legislative bill was disposed of. The whole day was passed in the consideration of the legislative appropriation bill, and considerable progress was made. An agreement was reached whereby the bill to change the compensation of United States attorneys and marshals from the fee to the salary system is to be offered as an amendment to the bill.

Washington, March 3.—The presidential veto of this session of congress was overridden by the house today by a vote of 200 to 38, 122 more than the requisite constitutional two-thirds. All the Republicans at thirty-one Democrats voted for the bill, while the votes to sustain the president were all cast by Democrats. The bill authorizes the governor to lease the school lands of the territory for educational purposes. The president's objection to the bill was that it did not give the secretary of the interior power to disapprove the leases, and did not throw proper safeguards about the timber on the lands.

Washington, March 4.—In the house a bill to retire Lieutenant-Commander R. M. G. Brown, U. S. N., one of the officers injured in the Samoan wrecking pump as commander, was defeated, 58 to 80. The senate joint resolution directing the secretary of agriculture to purchase and distribute the seeds authorized by the current law, was adopted. After the Cuban resolutions were adopted the house went into committee of the whole, and resumed consideration of the legislative appropriation bill. The bill to abolish the fee system was offered as an amendment to the bill, but without action the committee rose, at 4:55 P. M. the house adjourned.

THEIR LAST REPORT.

Accounting Rendered by the Discharged Northern Pacific Receivers.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 2.—Henry C. Payne, Thomas F. Oakes and Henry C. Rouse today filed their reports in the United States court as receivers of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company for October, November, December 20. All that the gentlemen have to do is to file their final accounts and to settle the matter of salaries in order to procure the discharge of their bondsmen. The report dates from the time of the appointment of Receivers Bigelow and McHenry. Messrs. Payne, Oakes and Rouse remained as receivers for the property in New York until their discharge last week, and up to which date their report is made. As receivers of the New York property, however, the gentlemen had very little to attend to, simply reporting as to the ticket sales in that district, the receipts of traffic charges and the payments of interest and in the bond transactions.

The report shows that the receivers had on hand the afternoon of February 20, $1,339,823, together with the books of the company. Before the bondsmen are discharged the matter of the amount of salaries will have to be passed upon. The receivers have each taken $15,000 per annum. It is stated that the Northern Pacific Company will protest against the allowance of this amount.
