

LAUREL RIDGE.

Mrs. Nelson and son Chris were visiting at Laurel Monday. Mr. Fred Stark and Mr. Krugger made a flying trip to Portland Wednesday. G. M. Seely of Scholls is employed at Mr. LeBeau's. Chris Abisher has rented some land of W. W. Baker and has commenced to cultivate it. Miss Kate Dodge is making rather a prolonged stay in Portland, we understand she is studying telegraphy. Mrs. Wm. Vincent is having some slashing done on her farm. She is contemplating erecting a fine new residence there in the near future. Mrs. E. and Miss Myrtle Ladd returned to their home in Tualatin Thursday after spending several weeks with Mrs. Fannie Baker of this place. Miss May Pike has gone to Portland to stay with her father and attend school there. Will Baker left Saturday for Mountaine where he has employment in Andrews saw mill. Miss Jean LeBeau was the guest of Miss Ross of Scholls Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Shonac held services at East Chehalum church Friday evening. C. LeBeau and son Dave were in the metropolis Friday and Saturday. Mr. Mormon who has been suffering from a severe attack of LaGrippe, has recovered. Our school commenced March 3rd, with Miss Jack of Farmington as teacher. She gave such entire satisfaction last term that she was unanimously employed this term. Chas. Delaney has purchased a new sulky for his trotter and "no doubt will challenge the county for a race before long".

Quick in effects, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruption quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores, it is magical in effect. Always cures piles. J. C. Clark, Druggist.

GLENWOOD.

Misses Laura Westinghouse and Laura Garvin were visiting friends in Dilley last week. Miss Effie Baker will teach the Glenwood school commencing April the 1st. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Catching were visiting in Forest Grove the first of the week. Mr. Brice Wilson and wife went to Hillsboro Saturday. Some of our young folks attended the dance at Mr. Eli Smith's Friday evening and report a pleasant time. Mr. A. Fulton who has spent the winter in Forest Grove is visiting friends here for a few days and then will go to his home on Nehalem. Mr. Rich Raycraft and wife was visiting at Mr. R. N. Varley's Sunday. Mr. Thomas Johnson and wife was the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Morrill Sunday. Mr. T. B. Smith and family spent Sunday at Mr. W. H. Luster's. Mr. R. N. Varley made a business trip to Forest Grove Monday. Messrs. and Mesdames A. L. Smith and J. P. Allen were guests of Mr. A. M. Carpenter Sunday last. Mr. N. J. Goodwin who cut his foot some time ago is able to be about again by using crutches.

THATCHER.

Mrs. Wendorf from Portland was out Sunday at her ranch. Mr. Will Gordon was out and preached here Sunday. Mr. S. R. Bond has sold his place to Mr. Raymond and sons, Dave and Jay. Misses Rosy and Grace Morgan are visiting Miss Blanch Siers. Mr. Raymond's folks moved in their new home Friday. There will be a pie social at Purdin's school house on the 25th inst. for the benefit of the organ fund. All are invited to attend. Our debate at the Purdin school house closed last Wednesday night. Mr. Dave Raymond had a runaway last Wednesday night. The harness and cart were broken but he escaped injuries. Mr. Trow is working for Mrs. Wendorf on her ranch.

SKOOKUMVILLE.

Mrs. Elsie Howard of the metropolis is home on a visit to her father, Mr. Robertson. Mrs. J. O'Mearo left for San Francisco last week where she will spend some time visiting friends and relatives. It is surprising the interest the young folks take in the literary so late in the season. The question for debate last Saturday evening, was "Resolved, That the United States is a greater country than Great Britain." It was decided in favor of the affirmative. After this the society will meet every two weeks. Miss Irene Anderson went to Portland on business last Monday morning. It is uncertain how long she will remain. School Superintendent Craig made our school a visit one day last week which was appreciated by teacher and pupils. Prof. Ward Swope has been around in this vicinity with his magic lantern. The lecture which he gives makes it very entertaining, especially to the children.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. J. C. Clark, druggist.

ROBERTS.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hoodenpyl and Miss Daisy Matteson, of Forest Dale, visited Mr. H's parents last Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Willis Johnston will teach a spring term of school in district 49 on the Chehalum mountain. Mr. Sterling Blum's house burned down last week. They were quite fortunate in getting nearly everything out of it. A large number of people attended the populist meeting last Saturday night. They will continue their meetings. Mrs. Rounds is suffering from a broken arm. Mr. Phillip Hoodenpyl spent a few days in Forest Dale last week. Born, to the wife of Mr. B. Roe, a son, on Tuesday, the 10th inst.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. J. C. Clark, druggist.

LAUREL.

Gus Messinger is down with the typhoid fever. Chance McCormick will clerk in the store until Mr. Messinger is able to be around again. Miss Celinda Haynes has returned home after teaching a successful term of five months, near Amity. Mr. Jacob Messinger and family are all improving. They have had quite a serious time with the fever. Misses Annie and Janie Jones, of Newberg, made a two weeks visit at Laurel Heights. Friends and relatives were very glad to see them after such a long absence. Mr. Shires, of Cordoliver, preaches the second and fourth Sunday of each month. Everyone cordially invited. Nettie Newman has been having the rheumatism so badly that she has been unable to walk. Wednesday evening closed the literary exercises for the winter at Laurel Heights. Miss Mary Haynes, who has been working in Portland for the past five years, is home for a month's visit. Mr. James Springer closed school at Laurel Heights, Feb. 27. He will teach the Mountaine school this spring. Mr. Wm. McCormick has gone to Portland in the interest of Messinger Bros. Mrs. F. J. Ornduff has about recovered from an attack of la grippe. The people at the Mountaintop are hewing out timbers for the Evangelical church that is to be built there in the near future. Quite a number of our residents attended the concert at Scholls Sunday afternoon. Miss Georgia Nelson was the guest of Miss Gracie Barbo Sunday. A sheep belonging to LeBeau started out on a rampage Saturday and raised quite a commotion, bunting every thing that came in his way. Mr. Lee, an elderly gentleman who is residing at Mr. LeBeau's was knocked down several times and if not for the assistance of members of the family he would no doubt have been killed, as he was unable to protect himself, he escaped with a few bruises and a pretty thorough shaking up.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that it presents itself." J. C. Clark, druggist.

SCHOLLS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rowell and Frank were in the city Wednesday. Miss Grace Sutherland and a friend from McMinnville are visiting relatives here. A magic lantern exhibition at Flint school house was well attended Saturday evening. Miss Simpson and Mr. Bowly of near Farmington were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Groner Sunday. Misses Cassie and Maggie Koeber are quite ill. Maggie is dangerously sick. Dr. Tamsie is the attending physician. Elder Shonac conducted the services at Flint school house Sunday evening.

Mr. Morgan from McMinnville is a guest at Mr. King's this week. A large crowd of our young folks attended the literary at Skookumville Saturday night. Mr. King is busy with three teams hauling his potatoes. He has about 900 sacks for market. Oregon to the front for spuds. There will be another wedding in this vicinity in the near future. An accident occurred at Mrs. Barrett's last week. Her little son Eddie was playing at the barn and when he was found by his mother he was bruised about the head. How the little fellow got hurt is not known. He is resting easy at this writing. The leader of the Farmington band called on the Cedar Mill orchestra on business. The young folks were out in buggies, on horseback, on bicycles, in busses, on foot, any way to get out, trying our nice roads last Sunday. The literary at Skookumville last Saturday night was a grand success. A fine programme was rendered. Excellent music was furnished for the occasion by the Cedar Mill Orchestra. The fine weather has started the farmers to turning the sod in this vicinity.

Cure for Headache. As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Fifty cents and $1 at the Miller Pharmacy.
