Columbia Academy Picnic.

Friday June 12th, was the last day of school at Mountindale. Mr. Latham the teacher invited several other schools to join with them in a picnic that day. Columbia Academy school was one of the number invited, it being their last day also. A large delegation of pupils met at the Academy early Friday morning. Wagons had been provided, and about 8:30 o'clock the party started for the picnic. One wagon, decorated with evergreens so arranged as to form a shade for the occupants, was almost loaded with little girls dressed in white, and it was surely one of the prettiest and happiest loads of little girls that could be found in the county. The day was fine and pleasant and the picnic a decided success. Columbia Academy thanks Mr. Latham and the people of Mountindale for the kindness extended them.
