

HAZELDALE.

Mr. Smith's folks with some of their friends, are spending a few days at Netarts beach.

Hazeldale had a picnic the fourth. Refreshments were sold at the stand, and all seemed to enjoy themselves.

The slumber of the people was disturbed the night of the Fourth by the free use of giant powder in the vicinity.

There was preaching Sunday in the school house by Mr. Rambo.

The school in district No. 94 celebrated the Fourth on last Friday with speeches appropriate to the occasion and with fire-crackers etc. All enjoyed themselves.

The fine weather is appreciated by the farmers of this vicinity as making hay is the order of the day and a fine crop is harvested.

Wild blackberries are beginning to ripen and the scarcity of other fruit will bring these excellent berries in good demand this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkens have gone to attend the funeral of her father who was killed by being thrown from a wagon in a run-a-way near Gervais, Marion county. Their neighbors mourn their loss with them.

Do you lack faith and love health? Let us establish your faith and restore your health with De Witt's Sarsaparilla. J. C. Clark, druggist.

MYRTLE PHILLIPS.

Myrtle Agnes, daughter of Chas. Phillips, was born September 24, 1894 and died June 18, 1896, aged 1 year 8 months and 25 days.

Myrtle was a bright amiable child. She is now gone from us. Her suffering was great but she is now free from all pain. We miss her prattle and play, though there is a vacant place in the home there no place vacated in our hearts, we mourn her departure but we rejoice that she was deemed worthy of our Master's service. The earthly flower that bloomed so short a time among us has been transferred to the garden of the Lord to bloom forever and she now becomes a treasure in heaven.

CENTERVILLE.

Adam Bell has bought and moved to the Buford blacksmith shop and is doing a general blacksmith and wagon business. Don't get your wagon tires cut. He has one of the newest kinds of shinkers that does good work and he does it cheap.

Eril Hill, Lumber City, Pa., writes, "I have been suffering from Piles for twenty-five years and thought my case incurable. De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve was recommended to me as a pile cure, so I bought a box and it performed a permanent cure." This is only one of thousands of similar cases. Eczema, sores and skin diseases yield quickly when it is used. J. C. Clark, druggist.

SCHOLLS.

The 4th is a thing of the past and with it has passed one of the most enjoyable anniversaries of the year, and one to which we look forward with joyful anticipations throughout the year.

Miss Emma Emel has returned from Hood River.

Those who attended the celebration at Forest Grove had a pleasant time.

Henry Hanson, of Oswego, was visiting his parents here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kimberlin and Miss Etie, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Wherung, of Hillsboro, were the guests of Mrs. D. B. Emrick Saturday and Sunday.

There will be a program of recitations, songs, instrumental music, etc., after which ice cream and cake will be served. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Bert Fonda attended a Grangers' picnic at Tualatin Monday.

Scholls celebrated on a small scale the 4th. Those who preferred remaining home rather than drive through the dust to some distant celebration, assembled in a beautiful grove in the suburbs, played croquet, swung, listened to a program by the young people and did ample justice to the bountiful feast of good things spread before them. There were about one hundred and fifty present and they report a pleasant, social affair.

Mr. Cady Vincott and Mr. Heaton, of Middleton, were the guests of Frank and Bert Rowell, Sunday.

Messrs. Jesse Emel and Chas. and Lute Miller, of Hood River, spent the 4th at Scholls.

OBITUARY.

The death of Mrs. Sarah Collier on Tuesday, June 30, at Scholls, was a sad bereavement to her many friends. Although it had been expected almost daily for months, it was nevertheless a shock when it came.

She was stricken with paralysis September, '95, and since then had been an acute but patient sufferer. Mrs. Collier was a good, conscientious Christian, and was beloved by all who came in contact with her for her nobility of character and gentle manner.

She leaves a husband, Mr. J. Collier, and a son, Herman, to mourn her demise, besides other relatives and innumerable friends. Mrs. Collier was born in Sangamon county, Illinois, in 1834, and so was 62 years of age at the time of her death. Her maiden name was Sarah Grzella. In 1861 she was united in marriage to Mr. J. Collier. They were most devotedly attached to each other, and he has the heartfelt sympathy of all in this, his great bereavement. The services were conducted at the M. E. church in Hillsboro, after which the remains were interred in the Masonic cemetery west of there.

Small in size, but great in results De Witt's Little Early Risers act gently but thoroughly, curing indigestion, dyspepsia and constipation. Small pill, safe pill, best pill. J. C. Clark, druggist.
