Woodsawing in any amount done promptly and well. Leave orders at our feed store. Hartrampf Bros. The Forest Grove band boys at the coast are preparing to give a concert in Tillamook on Friday evening. Abbott & Roe, agents for the Crescent line of Bicycles. Best wheel in the world for the money. Only $50.00. Mrs. Thos. Giuncheon, wife of the proprietor of the Imperial hotel, Portland, is in town, under Dr. Ward's medical care. Mr. and Mrs. Kemoorthy, of Portland, are visiting Mrs. Kemoorthy's brothers, Ed and Geo. Naylor at the family homestead. Mr. and the Misses Reuter who have been students here will attend the Agricultural College at Corvallis the coming year. Dr. C. E. Geiger is in the city, and in his profession he will remain here permanently. The Gaston Milling Co. has rented the Raymond warehouse and is fitting it up. Work is progressing rapidly on the ditch which to supply the power. Two children sent up a big kite Tuesday evening which attracted some attention. It flew up until two big balls of binding twine had been rolled out. A team of first-class work and driving horses, one or both to sell or trade for cattle at a bargain. Inquire of J. A. Vanderhey, three miles north of Forest Grove. George F. McConnell, grand K. of R. and S. of the grand lodge K. of P., was recognized by Judge Stephens, at Roseland, B. C., placed under arrest, and Portland wired. Why do you pay 15 cents for a shave and 25 cents for a haircut when the same can be had for 10 and 20 cents at the Eagle Parlor? Children's hair cutting 15 cents. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Will Bellingher and party returned Monday evening from a berry-picking vacation in the mountains. They found the berries very plentiful. Mr. George Hornbuckle, a well-known pioneer, residing at Beaverton, where he settled in 1850, suffered a stroke of paralysis a few days since. His numerous friends will be pleased to learn that he is getting better. Mrs. Inez Uhlman of Portland, was called to assist in caring for her mother, Mrs. Starr of this place, this week, who has had two or three profuse hemorrhages which have weakened her so she has been confined to her bed. Mr. John Holler, who six or seven years ago was Forest Grove's watchmaker, and now has a jewelry store at Chehalis, rode up to the Grove Wednesday from Hillsboro where he is visiting his sister, Miss Segrist. Harry Wescott's team came near effecting an entrance into the Forest Grove bank, Wednesday morning and it was only by the united efforts of Mr. Wescott, who caught the lines and another person who caught the horses by the bridle that they were stopped. The Forest Grove Laundry and Dye House is now conducted by Mr. Atwater. Mr. Baldwin having retired from the business on the first of the month. Mr. Atwater is thoroughly up in his line and is having increased patronage every week through the excellence of his work. Forest Grove needs just such an industry, and people should encourage it by giving the laundry their patronage. The work is done just as cheaply as in Portland and as well, and the money is kept here at home. Every one should make a trial at least before sending work outside.

Shirts 8c at Forest Grove Laundry. Paints, oils and glass at Abbot & Roe's. For gent's clothing, go to Haines & Bailey's. Mr. Laceyfield is building a barn on his property. For a good, square meal, go to the Western hotel. Dr. Contris of Salem visited Dr. and Mrs. Hovey over Sunday. W. S. Shiach, who has been teaching in Idaho, spent Sunday in town. Games, music, and refreshments of ice cream and cake were the features of the evening's program. Quite a number were present. Tooth extraction under the influence of anaesthetics is pleasure, no pain or other unpleasantness and nearly absolutely safe. Dr. C. L. Large will administer the new preparation at any of our dentists, Doctors Hiatt, Nixon, or Hovey. No charge if not entirely satisfactory. The Washington County Flour Mill now presents a busy scene. It is the liveliest season of the year and wagons loaded with grain are constantly coming in and sacks to be filled again going out. Their "free bags, cleaning and storage" offer is evidently meeting with favor among the farmers for large as is the new warehouse just erected it is probable that it will be crowded with the grain. The mill will soon be running night and day to fill the orders coming in and the flour is everywhere giving excellent satisfaction. Shipping will soon be made easier by a new switch, material for which is now on the ground. It will be completed early in September.

Teachers' quarterly examination is in session at the public school building. Thirty-three candidates: five men and twenty-eight ladies. Soda Springs as a place of outing is becoming quite popular. Last Sunday Lee Sparks took a load of children up to enjoy themselves, among whom were Grace and Wilda Crosley, Laura Boos, Fannie and Lella Dolstrum, Margaret Keene and last the HATCHET was represented by his Satanic Majesty. Mrs. Crosley chaperoned the party. Robie Hoffman and Archie Bryant also drove up and spent the day there. Columbia lodge D. of H. had a very pleasant social after its meeting last Tuesday evening, for which they are indebted to the gentlemen members. As these gentlemen treated the lodge to ice cream and cake. This was a complete surprise to the ladies, but they recovered from their astonishment sufficiently to do ample justice to the delicious repast spread before them and return a vote of thanks to the gentlemen. Card of Thanks. Mr. and Mrs. Fred McLeod desire to express their deep gratitude to their friends of Dilley, Forest Grove and vicinity who were so kind to them during their recent affliction. Notice. All accounts owing me not settled either by money or notes by August 20 will be turned over to an attorney for collection. T. C. McNAMER. August 12, 1896. Special Notice. To the people of Forest Grove: To those who will bring their bundles and call for them, I will give the following prices: Shirts, plain, 8 cents. Shirts, fancy, 10 cents. Collars, 2 cents. Cuffs, per pair, 4 cents. Handkerchiefs, 2 cents. Neckties, 4 cents. I make these prices to induce my customers to bring their washing and save hiring a man to pick up and deliver. Forest Grove Laundry and Dye House. Dissolution of Partnership. The partnership heretofore existing between J. W. Atwater and W. S. Baldwin in the Forest Grove Laundry and Dye House is this day dissolved by mutual consent, W. S. Baldwin retiring. The business will be continued by Mr. Atwater, to whom all accounts are payable. J. W. Atwater. W. S. Baldwin. Forest Grove, August 1, 1896. 21. Obituary. RENA McLEOD, of DILLEY. Rena, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McLeod, died at her parents' home, in Dilley, at fifteen minutes to three on Tuesday morning, August 11, aged nine years one month and ten days. For three months the little girl had been courageously battling with disease for her life, patiently enduring the suffering. In her brief life she had made many friends by a sweet, sunny disposition, ever thoughtful of those about her. A few lines in memory of Rena McLeod, by C. L. Large: Only a little child of mine, but oh how bright and fair, She was a gem of rarest beauty, a loving solace for each care; She is now a bright immortal, dwelling with the pure and best, Where the flowers bloom forever, and the weary are at rest. She now dwells in light forever, in the celestial realms above, And her voice with praises echo, shouting her dear savior's love; That sinless home is hers forever, where life's river gently flows, No icky hand can ever reach her, and the sun resplendent glows. She will be your guardian angel, as the years they come and go, Helping you to bear life's burden, through this wilderness of woe; Parting cannot be eternal, cease thy weeping, God is love, You will meet your lovely daughter, when you reach your home above.

The Free Methodist camp meeting closed Sunday night, or rather Monday morning 2 o'clock. Several souls were saved of the Lord and we hope many more moved to think of eternal things. We wish as a little Free Methodist class to return thanks to the friends of Forest Grove who stood by us and rendered help as needed, and especially to Mr. Naylor who so kindly furnished grounds and stood by us. May the Lord bless the people of Forest Grove. G. W. Bondurant, Pastor in Charge. Campaign Song Book for 1896. We have just received from the music publishing house of The S. Brainard's Sons Co., 151 Wabash Ave., Chicago, copies of the "True Blue Republican" and the "Red Hot Democratic", Campaign Song Books for 1896. They are not cheap word editions but, contain solos, duets, mixed and male quartets, and are especially arranged for campaign clubs. They are sold at the low price of 10 cents each, or $1.00 per dozen. A Valuable Prescription. Editor Morrison of Worthington, Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache as a general system tonic, it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2625 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. Prices 50 cents and $1.00. Get a Bottle at Miller's Pharmacy. For Sale. Fifty-two acres one mile east of Forest Grove, occupied by R. M.
