BRIEF PACIFIC COAST NEWS

A Resume of Events in the Northwest.

EVIDENCE OF STEADY GROWTH

News Gathered in All the Towns of Our Neighboring States—Improvement Noted in All Industries—Oregon.

Eight carloads of wool from Heppner were received in one day at a Dalles warehouse.

The graders are at work on Tansy point on the line between Flavel and Warrenton, leveling off the space on which will soon be built the car sheds of the Astoria road.

An effort is being made to place Pendleton and La Grande on the regular bicycle track race circuit.

One day last week a freight train ran into a band of cattle that were hemmed in between a bluff and fence, near Blacklock.

John Ritchie, who lives near Pendleton, is the father of a two-months' old boy that was born with ten fingers and ten toes, besides the thumbs and great toes, all of which are perfectly formed.

The farmers of the Grand Ronde valley are engaged in putting up hay, but the crop is so heavy that in some sections much of it will be left standing.

The National bank of Heppner of which E. R. Bishop is cashier, has gone into liquidation.

A whale was driven ashore at Bandon the first of last week.

The first car of fruit which left The Dalles last week billed for Chicago, consisted entirely of peach plums.

PORTLAND MARKETS.

Notwithstanding the fact that the wool and wheat markets are still in a state of stagnation, business is far from bad.

There is little new in the wheat situation. Harvesting is progressing rapidly all through the interior, and the yield and the quality is far and away better than was predicted before harvesting commenced.
