The city council is setting a commendable example of enterprise and improvement about town. Councilman Large has just had a board sidewalk laid along his residence property opposite the postoffice.

Councilman T. C. McNamer has had the planking re-laid in front of his butcher shop. A ditch was put through which will carry off the surplus water this winter.

A straw taken on an excursion train from Ashland to the Exposition at Portland Tuesday gave McKinley 156, Bryan 57 and Palmer 7. The canvass was made three times with substantially the same results.

Messrs. Treve Jones and Fred Clayton went hunting Saturday. They shot five China pheasants and hid them in a straw stack while looking for more. On their return with five other birds they found to their chagrin that the first capture had been discovered and eaten up by pigs.

State Senator Geo. C. Brownell of Oregon City, will speak next Tuesday evening at 7:30 in Verts hall on political questions. Mr. Brownell is an eloquent speaker, able, well posted and of wonderful magnetism. He is a Republican but those differing from him politically will find that he treats the other side fairly and courteously. Tuesday night's speech will be one that no one should miss.

Carelessness in speech among those talking on the sidewalk and street corners has become so common that profanity and obscenity are frequently heard on Main street to the annoyance of passers by. If the talkers cannot guard their tongues the city authorities should see that they be given a proper lesson.
Ladies now find a walk along Main street embarrassing and disagreeable.

Rev. D. A. Watters with his family, leaves today for Portland where he will assume charge of the Central church, an important trust but one of which he has proved himself worthy. During the years of his residence here Mr. Watters and his family have made many warm friends, outside of his charge as well as of its membership, who regret that the limit set by the church to a pastor's stay in one parish prevents his return. Under his pastorate the M. E. Church has prospered until now he leaves it without a dollar of indebtedness and with a membership in full connection of 192 and with 44 probationers.

A very pleasant surprise party was were: Blanche Bailey, Vivian Bailey,

City council met in special session Friday evening with only Councilmen Smith and Stewart absent. The object of the meeting was to provide for additional help at the powerhouse, and so after the minutes of the previous session had been adopted a committee of Messrs.
McNamer, Buxton and Large was appointed to confer with the applicants for the position and make as advantageous arrangements as are possible. The charge for lighting the M. E. church was fixed at $2.50 a month. Bills were ordered paid: Hatchet Printery $3.75; Marshal Harris, $22.30; J. P. Elm, wood, $54.27; H. D. Stewart, collector, $25.00.
J. E. Bailey was credited with $25.33.

Sometime ago Hon. Ira E. Purdin and Mr. J. W. Wheeler of Greenville became engaged in an argument on the money question which so interested their friends that they requested the gentlemen to meet in a formal discussion. The result is that Mr. Purdin has challenged Mr.
Wheeler, and he has accepted, to meet in Forest Grove, and discuss the financial issues of the present campaign as set forth in the Chicago Democratic and the St. Louis Republican platforms. The date has been set for Saturday evening, Oct. 10, at 7:30. Both Mr. Purdin and Mr. Wheeler are fair and able exponents of their sides and the debate will be interesting and profitable. All are invited to attend.

In the central part of this county there is a farm run by a Swede with the assistance of his two daughters. No other man or woman has ever been allowed upon it during their occupancy, not so much from the girls' inclinations as by the father's will. The place is neat and thrifty in appearance.

The Rebekahs gave an old fashioned spelling match and social Friday evening in Odd Fellows hall, Mrs. Chanler and Prin. Thomas choosing up. After the first match an excellent lunch was served and after a second trial the winners spelled with the result that Prin. Thomas became the winner of the victor's prize.
These proved to be three mammoth watermelons which Mr. Thomas proceeded to dissect and distribute to the edification of all present.

Congress-elect T. H. Tongue addressed a large audience in Vert's hall, Monday evening, it being the regular weekly meeting of the McKinley club though held one day earlier for the accommodation of the speaker. The money issue clearly set forth, protection advocated and a tribute paid to the veterans whom the republican party delights to honor in striking contest to the cold shoulder they have ever received from the democrats. Mr. Tongue was at his best, and that is saying a great deal.

The condition of that part of the base line road which lies within the Forest Grove district is a crying disgrace.
There should be enough work in this district to at least put the roads in passable condition. It can not be urged as an excuse that the other roads have been worked to the neglect of this for neither the Gales Creek nor the Greenville road is in decent shape. The Dilley road is the only one that is in fair condition.
Along the road to Hillsboro gravel ranging in size from boulders to sand has been dumped in a ridge which, in the dust clouds which during the summer shut out the view when teams are passing, has been a constant danger for any one driving upon it would inevitably be upset. If longer neglected it will leave the same old half mile of mud wallow as last year and even if attended to it can now only be made an exceedingly rough road and in no ways creditable to those responsible for it.

The sudden stopping of the engine threw H. C. Bickett, brakeman on the freight, from the train while uncoupling cars Wednesday noon. He fell through the trestle by the cannery and suffered a fracture of the right arm near the wrist.
Dr. Large reduced the fracture and he returned home on the evening train.
Mr. Bickett resides on Union Avenue,

The Mahatma exhibition last night was not as well patronized as it deserved to have been. In fact only eight spectators graced the hall when the curtain rolled up. These were rewarded for they received their money back and had a free exhibition of the mysteries. Mind-reading, an excellent solo, harp music and puzzling spirit working were parts of an interesting performance. The entire program of course was not rendered but enough was given to show its character.

The newly appointed pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here is naturally an interesting person to many just now. Rev. S. A. Starr, that is his name, is stirring, up to date and withal a scholarly man who during his three years pastorate at Dallas has made an enviable record. Mr Starr was brought up in Oregon and educated at Willamette University, where afterwards for ten years he was professor of ancient languages. His ministerial education was gained at Boston Theological Seminary.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr.
King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at River Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding LaGrippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free
