

REEDVILLE.

Mr. H. R. Sibley of Portland visited with Ira Wheeler the past week. Miss Martha York of the Grove is spending a few days with her parents at this place. Miss Madge Heltzel spent Sunday with her parents at Greenville. The Salvation Army has been holding meetings in the school house the past week. Miss Ada Thing is visiting at Forest Grove for a few days. Mr. Shattuck and family have moved to the John Shute farm north of this place. Mrs. Johnson gave a masquerade ball on Thursday evening of last week. The attendance was small but a good time was reported by those who were present. Dave Miller of Ilwaco is visiting his parents at this place. Rev. Harburs of Beaverton preached an interesting sermon at the school house Sunday afternoon. Hon. Harvey Hudson of Gaston addressed the voters of this place in the streets of the Republican party Saturday.

Consumption Can Be Cured

By the use of Shiloh's Cure. This great Cough Cure is the only known remedy for that terrible disease. For sale at Clark's drug store.

DILLEY.

T. Smith and his little red wagon were in town Friday. Mrs. Armspiger visited friends in Portland Saturday. Mr. Anderson spent Sunday in North Yamhill. Prof. Jones who has lived in Dilley for the past year has moved to Hillsboro. The Bryan club held a business meeting Saturday. Miss George visited with Mrs. Prickett of Gales Creek Saturday and Sunday. Any one who has a hound to sell will do well by calling to see Mr. Purdy. There will be political speaking by M. E. Johnson and S. R. Stott Saturday Oct. 31 at 7:30 p. m., under the auspices of the Bryan club. All are cordially invited.

Nerves on Edge.

"I was nervous, tired, irritable and cross, Karl's Clover Root Tea made me well and happy." Mrs. E. B. Worden. For sale at Clark's drug store.

HILLSBORO.

Geo. James of Forest Grove worked in Castle's harness shop two or three days last week while the latter was on the sick list. Judge Cornelius drove up to McMinnville Saturday and returned Monday. W. W. McKinney, deputy county clerk, and Miss Emma Carstens also of Hillsboro, were married at Portland on Thursday evening of last week. They have taken up their residence in one of the Hanley cottages north west of the court house square. Commencing with next Sunday Elder Shelley of the Christian church will preach at Forest Grove on each alternate Sunday during the remainder of the year. M. E. Everett of the Delta drug store, took a few days vacation last week and visited his claim up beyond Buxton. E. C. Brown officiated behind the counter in his absence. Several car loads of hops have been shipped from here during the last few days. Mayor Pennoyer made a free silver speech at the court house Monday evening. Dist. Attorney Cleeton was in Hillsboro Tuesday. Attorneys Adams and Smith visited Portland Wednesday making the trip overland.

Tetter, eczema and all similar skin troubles are cured by the use of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. It soothes at once, and restores the tissues to their natural condition, and never fails to cure piles. J. C. Clark, druggist.

CORNELIUS.

Chas. Fairchild has opened up a barber shop in the building formerly occupied by T. R. Cornelius. Johnny Beal, of Gales Spur, has rented a shop in this city and will run a first-class shoe shop where all can get their soles repaired. Pete Wells returned from Tillamook last Tuesday. C. M. Johnson went to Newburg last Wednesday to attend the funeral of his niece. Carroll McNutt returned from Vernonia last Sunday where his wife has been visiting. Johnny Brooks has moved with his family to Gaston, where he has bought property. Johnny will also do the barber act in Gaston. Barnett Pruedential has opened up a meat market in the building formerly occupied by Johnny Brooks the barber. Their will be a literary entertainment given by the Epworth League next Saturday evening.

PUMPKIN RIDGE.

Mrs. Sadie Loftis and Mrs. Rice are visiting in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Jones spent a couple of days in Portland this week. Miss Ida Miller of Hillsboro is visiting at J. C. Miller's. Dances are all the rage. One at J. C. Miller's last Friday night and one at Mrs. Coburn's the coming Friday night. Mrs. Alma Meacham has gone to Portland to spend a few weeks. Miss Maud Butler of Mt. Vincent is attending school in Hillsboro. Mrs. Allie Delap was up on her ranch a few days last week. She intends to spend the winter with her father near Vancouver. John Fratchey had the misfortune to run a rusty nail into the fleshy part of his foot last week and is not able to use it much yet. The time of preaching at the M. E. Church has been changed from morning to evening.

Farmers! Bring your old clothes and have them made new. We will take potatoes, wood, or anything else we can use, in exchange. Forest Grove Laundry and Dye House.

SCHOOLS.

Miss Maude Hingley spent several days of last week in Portland. Mrs. Clara Skeels is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hartbaway, in Washington at present. The debate at Mountside did not occur as was announced. Rev. W. L. Skeels and wife spent Saturday and Sunday in Sherwood. Prof. Wirtz closed his lectures at this place Saturday evening. They were largely attended every evening and were both entertaining and instructive, and every one has a more definite idea as to the contents of their cranium since his arrival. Miss Ida Jack, of Farmington, is stopping with her aunt, Mrs. Rowell, at present. Mr. Dunbar, of Dilley, spoke at Flint's school house, Friday evening to a fair sized house. He was an able speaker and held the close attention of his audience.

The wolf trap which C. Molstead set in his grape arbor failed to produce the thief, but he is now aware who the real thief is and a monkey trap will no doubt prove effective.

Mrs. Elmer Schmeltzer and Miss Bessie spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland.

That it would be prudent for one of our young men to keep a firmer grasp on his thinking cap was fully illustrated one night last week by his forgetting to fulfill an engagement. He was only reminded of his forgetfulness upon his arrival at the church by the absence of Miss —. It would have been a favorable opportunity for a purchase had any of the ladies felt so disposed, as he would doubtless have sold himself for what he was worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Seelye were in Hillsboro Tuesday and Wednesday of last week visiting friends. Next Sunday evening, Nov. 7, there will be a temperance entertainment at the Evangelical church. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. W. J. Andrews and Mrs. W. W. Baker and Master Warde, of Mountside, were visiting at J. W. Baker's last week.

School commenced at Mountside Monday with Mr. Springer of LaFayette as teacher.

Last Wednesday evening while enroute for the lecture, Mr. C. R. Adams' team became frightened by the single-tree falling against one of the animal's heels, causing both of them to run. They commenced to run near Mr. Rowell's, and the vehicle was not overturned until they were turning the corner near Unity chapel where it turned completely over and set on its wheels again. The occupants were promiscuously hurled to the ground, one horse was entangled in the harness and the other was captured at Scholls' bridge. Those injured are: Mrs. C. R. Adams shoulder blade broken and injured about the chest, Etta Adams seriously injured about the head, Fred Adams left limb hurt at the knee, thought to be broken, Jessie Snyder left ankle broken, Miss Cassie Rowell left arm sprained and bruised about the face, Ina Rowell considerably bruised about the head and eyes. Mrs. Rowell and Miss Nellie and Bessie Adams escaped with several bruises and a thorough shaking up. It was feared at first it would result more seriously, but symptoms are more favorable and they are getting along as well as could be expected. Dr. Bailey is in attendance.

Mrs. L. R. Patton, Rockford, Ill., writes: "From personal experience I can recommend De Witt's Sarsaparilla as a cure for impure blood and general debility." J. C. Clark, druggist.

GLENWOOD.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Varley and F. Allen were in the Grove last week getting their winter's supplies. Wm. Luster went to the Grove Monday. We think the young man who kept late hours last Sunday night had better look out as we understand he came in contact with a large bear. He says it was so large that he took it for a horse. As old brain did not seem inclined to give up the road he had to halloo and then we could not say which ran the faster.

Mr. and Mrs. Adkins of Gales City were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Varley Saturday night.

Mr. J. K. Manning of Portland came out on his wheel Sunday looking after his ranch, returning Monday.

Rev. Mr. Dicks of Cedar Mill preached at the school house Sunday night.

Mr. Adkins preached at 11 a. m. Sunday at the school house.

Mr. Langley of Forest Grove spoke in the school house Friday night on Free Silver.

Miss Cora Scofield started to Portland Friday to be gone till Christmas.

Mr. A. H. Schofield made a flying trip to the Grove Thursday.

Mr. A. L. Smith is going in the sheep business, as he thinks McKinley will be elected.

M. L. Donahue came home Wednesday from Marion county, returning Saturday taking his cattle and himself out for the winter. He said he was afraid of the big snows we have up here.

S. W. Her of Forest Grove was in this vicinity Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith returned from the Grove Friday where they have been visiting the past week.

I. R. Hogan returned from Portland Saturday.

Quite a number of the Glenwood people went to Gales City Saturday to hear Mr. Moran speak.

Wm. Lee of Gales City visited friends in Glenwood Sunday and Monday.

A hacking cough is not only annoying to others, but is dangerous to the person who has it. One Minute Cough Cure will quickly put an end to it. J. C. Clark, druggist.

Karl's Clover Root Tea

is a cure for Headache and Nervous Diseases. Nothing relieves so quickly. For sale at Clark's drug store.

They are so little you hardly know you are taking them. They cause no griping, yet they act quickly and most thoroughly. Such are the famous little pills known as De Witt's Little Early Risers. Small in size, great in results. J. C. Clark, druggist.

Pills Do Not Cure.

Pills do not cure Constipation. They only aggravate. Karl's Clover Root Tea gives perfect regularity of the bowels. For sale at Clark's drug store.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill. was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at the Miller pharmacy. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.
