The Twenty-four Presidents.

Washington first of the presidents stands, Next placid John Adams attention commands, Tom Jefferson's third on the glorious score
And square Jimmy Madison counts number four,
Fifth on the record is plain James Monroe,
And John Quincy Adams is sixth, don't you know?
Next Jackson and Martin Van Buren true blue,
And Harrison ninth, known as Tippecanoe.
Then Polk and then Taylor, the second who dies;
Next Fillmore, a vice, takes the president's place;
And small Franklin Pierce is fourteenth in the race.
Fifteenth is Buchanan, and following him
The great name of Lincoln make all others dim, Next to Johnson comes Grant, with the laurel and bays.
And next after Grant, comes Rutherford Hayes.
Next Garfield and Arthur, then Cleveland the fat.
Next Harrison wearing his granddaddy's hat, Adroit little Ben twenty-third in the train,
And last on the list, behold Cleveland again. —Ram's Horn.

AT THE 'VARSITY.

The floor of Prof. Ferrin's recitation room has been put in readiness for the Thanksgiving recess.
Fred Marsh '97 has returned from Molalla much improved in health and consequently will enter school next term.
John Miller '98 has been confined to his room for the past week on account of sickness, but is expected to make an appearance at chapel Monday next.
A college student was heard to remark that "any man with a name like Sappho ought to be able to write any kind of metre." He evidently thought it to bad Sappho had not been a man.
The reviews in the studies of the term have begun, and those who have not been faithful enough to have mastered their term's work have one more chance to save themselves on examination day.
The members of the class of 1903 have elected Miss Ruth Scott president, and chosen orange and black as their class colors. So hereafter on big days at P.
U. orange and black will flutter in the breeze.
A game of football has been arranged between the Hillsboro High School and Tualatin Academy preparatory for Thanksgiving day. This is one of a series of games between these two teams and no doubt will deeply interest the lovers of football.

The next issue of The Index will soon be out and bids fair to outdo its preceding issue. The Index ranks high among the college papers of the state and is entitled to the earnest support of the student body. As its name implies, it is an Index to the work done in P. U.

The spacious apartments of Herrick hall were opened Friday night for the annual reception to the Freshman class.
The reception was conducted as usual by the upper classes, each junior or senior deeming it his duty to entertain the bashful freshman. The time was pleasantly passed in formal introductions, games, conversation and lunch.
The following question was debated at the last meeting of the Gamma Sigma society. Resolved, "That the present unrest of the agricultural classes is due to imaginary causes." After a spirited debate the question was decided in favor of the negative. The society is doing good work and expects to hold a public debate the first of next term.

The program of the last meeting of the Philomatheans was devoted entirely to Sir Walter Scott. The following constituted the entertainment: Biography of Scott—Miss Thorp.

Essay—Scott as an Author, Miss E.
Walker.
Recitation—Selected from Scott, Miss Evans.
Essay—Review of Guy Mannering, Miss Baber.
Barjo Solo—Selected, Miss Watt.
Select Reading, Miss Garrison.
Aspirants for the medal to be given by the Inter Collegiate Oratorical Association of Oregon next February should begin at once to make preparation. This will be the fifth medal given by the association, yet P. U. is to receive her first medal. With the high standard of scholarship which P. U. holds compared with the other representatives of the organization it seems she should have an easy victory. Let us have a lively home contest and start out with the determination of winning. Who will enter the home contest? The names of Schoch, Rauer, Haskell, Alley and Bradley readily suggest themselves as probable aspirants.

The second rhetorical exercise of the Freshman and Sophomore took place in the auditorium last Friday before all the students and a number of the townspeople. The program showed careful study and faithful work on the part of the participants. The following made up the exercises: Declamation—Mr. Lancefield.

Essay—Miss Wilkinson.
Recitation—Miss Marsh.
Recitation—Miss Leiser.
Instrumental Solo—Miss Fluger.
Essay—Miss Parker.
Declamation—Mr. Luelling.
Piano Duet—Miss Tompkins and Mrs.
Cook.
Oration—Mr. Schoch.
Instrumental Solo—Miss Scott.
The next exercises of these classes will take place in Marsh hall the second Friday in December.

Absolutely pure, perfectly harmless, and invariably reliable are the qualities of One Minute Cough Cure. It never fails in colds, croup and lung troubles.

Children like it because it is pleasant to take and it helps them. J. C. Clark, Druggist.
