REPUBLICAN CLUBS.

ADDRESS FROM WASHINGTON COUNTY LEAGUE.

Hillsboro, Or., Nov. 30, 1896.
To the Republican Clubs of Washington County, Oregon:

The Executive committee of the Washington County Republican League most earnestly congratulates the officers and members of the republican clubs of Washington county upon the grand success that has resulted from their well directed and efficient efforts to carry the county and state for protection, good government and sound money, in the political campaign just closed.

Whilst working in entire harmony with the county republican committee, yet we believe that the earnest, sympathetic and persistent work of the clerks of the county contributed more than anything else to achieve the splendid republican victory in this county.

Early in August, pursuant to a call therefor, the clubs of the county, by their duly appointed delegates, met in Hillsboro to form a Republican County League. Twenty-six delegates from the various clubs throughout the county responded to the call, notwithstanding the harvest was not yet over; the result was the formation of a county league of delegates from all the local clubs of the county, and a board of management consisting of the Executive and Advisory committees of the league. The Executive committee consisted of the officers of the league and the Advisory committee of the presidents of the local clubs. To this board of management was entrusted the direction of the campaign for the clubs of the county. At once an aggressive campaign was begun.

It was found that the advocates of free silver had been very active for sometime in the distribution of their literature.

The first work of the league was to make a thorough canvass of the voters of the county. This was done, precinct by precinct, and the politics and tendency of each voter was noted. Acting upon the information contained in these lists, suitable literature was sent to each voter, and thus an educational campaign was begun and carried on until the election. Early in September meetings began to be held and speakers were procured and sent throughout the county. Besides this, an active hand to hand work was begun by the members of clubs, and was kept up until the close of the campaign.

The board of managers of the league held several meetings, discussed and put into operation several plans and devised means for rendering the clubs of the county more effective in their work.

The chairman of the county committee was considered an honorary and consulting member of the board of management, and rendered excellent service to the board.

We congratulate the officers and members of the republican clubs of our county upon the excellent majority obtained as a result of their efficient work.
This majority places her in the van of the rural republican counties of the state. Only Multnomah with her city of Portland, and Clatsop with her city of Astoria, surpass her by their majorities.

Washington county now has a representative in the national congress, five representatives (two senators and three representatives) in the state legislature, and a republican majority at last election, of 519, of which she may well be proud.

This all has been accomplished in the spring and fall campaigns, and is largely due to the effective work of the clubs of the county. The question now is, shall we maintain the position attained and continue to make progress, or shall we recede from the place achieved? We believe every member of the clubs of the county feels that we must go forward—this will mean continued organization and work—then, let every local club maintain its organization, keep active as to the movements of our opponents and be ready for service always.

If this be done, the victories of the past will not only be equaled but excelled by those of the future.

I. A. Macrum,
R. B. Goodin,
J. I. Knight,
J. R. Mays,
J. C. Buchanan, Jr.,
Ex. Committee.

Teachers Meeting at Hillsboro.

The teachers met in Hillsboro on Saturday. In the absence of the president J. H. Stanley, the vice president took the chair. The following program was given: Reading of minutes of last meeting by Miss Rose Wilcox. Language, a paper read by Miss Lucy Humphrey.
Mental Arithmetic, illustrated by Mrs.
Dora J. Elliott by work upon the black board. Neatness in the School Room, a paper by Geo. E. Madison, Miss Lucy Humphrey accompanist. Mr. Madison is a pupil of the school and displays great talent with the violin, playing the best marches for the school. He is a young man of Washington county whose home is near Farmington. An encore and vote of thanks was given Mr. Madison by the teachers.

Miss Boscaw and Miss Humphrey were appointed a committee to prepare a program for the second Saturday in January.

Farmers, Attention!

All persons interested in the production of sugar beets with the view of the establishment of a sugar factory, are hereby requested to meet at Verts hall in Forest Grove at 1 o'clock, p. m., on Saturday, the 19th of December, 1896, to take the necessary steps to promote and encourage such an enterprise by planting and cultivating a small tract of land in order to test in a satisfactory manner the adaptability of our soil and climate to the successful cultivation of the sugar beet for factory purposes.

Henry Buxton,
H. F. Gordon,
L. E. Smith,
Hubert Bernard,
Ira E. Purdin,
John B. Prickett,
Committee.

AT THE 'VARSITY.

The class of 1903 is preparing to give a party.

Rev. Cephas Clapp, now a trustee of P. U., gave a very pleasant talk in chapel Tuesday.

R. B. Lampson, an amateur photographer of Portland, busied himself Friday taking photographs of the several college classes, societies, quartettes and buildings.

The November issue of The Index will reach its readers the last of the week.
The issue reflects credit on its staff, but the tardiness of its appearance seems inexcusable.

Miss Goldine Darling, a former student of Tualatin Academy, has been recently married to Mr. W. H. Stevenson, of Condon. Mrs. Stevenson has the best wishes of her many friends at P. U.

Why could not the college students get out another annual? P. U. was the first college in Oregon to get out an annual, and should by no means let pass her opportunity of maintaining pre-eminence in this line of college work.

Already we have seen marked indications toward the restoring of confidence and return of prosperity. Money is being loaned on easy terms, wages are rising; but the most pronounced indication we have seen that money is again plentiful is that a few days ago one of the professors was seen with "dough" hanging to his finger-nails.

If you are present at the next meeting of the Philomathean society, you will be entertained and instructed by a rendition of the following program. Open debate: "Resolved that it is More Natural to do Right than Wrong." Music by the quartette; Essay, Miss Hibbs; Recitation, Miss Lamberson; News of the week, Miss L. Walker.

The last rhetorical exercises of the Freshman and Sophomore classes will take place in the auditorium on the afternoon of Dec. 11. Misses Brown, Baber and Garrison will read essays. Messrs. Fletcher, Haskell, Kirkwood, and Miss Lancelotti will deliver declamations.
The exercises will be interspersed with music by the pupils of the conservatory.

The gas machine which has recently been given to Pacific university by an Eastern church has arrived and will be put in use at once in the Chemical laboratory. This machine is capable of lighting 400 jets, and is certainly a very valuable acquisition. The water advantages which the laboratories enjoy, together with the new gas machine, will now make our laboratory equipments far ahead of those of any other college in the state.

The way in which periodicals in the reading room and books in the library are treated by the students has occasioned no slight degree of criticism and censure from those who are responsible, for these rooms. It seems too bad that worthy students should be deprived of the use of one of the best advantages of the university in order to deprive a few small boys and girls of the transcendent pleasure of marking, tearing and destroying valuable books and papers.

The last meeting of the Gamma Sigma society was unusually well attended, and for the first time the seating capacity of the new room was put to a severe test.
However, all were comfortably seated and a very enthusiastic meeting was held. The question, "Resolved that the Lawmakers are Deteriorating," was debated, and decided in favor of the negative. The following question will be discussed at the next meeting: "Is a Nation's Literature Affected by its form of Government." Affirmative, Kirkwood and Hartley; negative, Buxton and Dennis.

The northeast corner of the college campus witnessed a very pleasant game of foot-ball Saturday afternoon. The visiting team was the first foot-ball team McMinnville college had ever sent out, and consequently the P. U. Juniors had a very decided advantage over their adversaries. The line-up of the teams was:

P. U.	McMINNVILLE.
Linenweber	c
James	rg
Hickock	lg
Tongue	rt
Miller	lt
Bills	re
Wirtz	le
Holt	qb
Turpin	rb
Luelling	lb
Bauer	fb
	Hayes

The star plays were made by Linen-weber, Luelling and Turpin. Score 56-0 in P. U.'s favor.

Absolutely pure, perfectly harmless, and invariably reliable are the qualities of One Minute Cough Cure. It never fails in colds, croup and lung troubles.
Children like it because it is pleasant to take and it helps them. J. C. Clark, Druggist.
