

GREENVILLE.
There were revival meetings at Greenville every night during last week.
The man who left the rope tied to a hog's leg in Mart Kieling's hog pen on a certain night can have it by calling at Mr. Kieling's as he has no use for it.

LAUREL HEIGHTS.
Marcella Savage visited Harvey Haynes Sunday last.
School commenced Monday with Miss Maggie McMaugh as teacher.
Bud Otis, who has been working near Newberg, was home on a visit Sunday.
Miss Ida Wholschlegel, of Mountain-side, is visiting friends in this neighborhood.

The people of this place enjoyed Thanksgiving day, but the fat chickens, ducks and geese had to suffer.
Most of the people of this place have been prevented from digging their late potatoes by so much bad weather.

Misses Martha and Viola Robinson, of Farmington, spent Saturday and Sunday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCormick.
John Haynes went to Tualatin Saturday after material to make crawfish traps. He intends to make his traps this winter so as to be ready for fishing next spring.

Those present at the party at Mr. McCormick's Saturday evening were: Misses Teana McCormick, Martha Robinson, Viola Robinson and Lillie Haynes. Messrs. Lou Hult, Thos. and Benj. Haynes, Chance and Joseph McCormick, Jay and Samuel Hult, and Ira McCormick. The evening was spent in playing games until eleven o'clock, after which they retired to their respective homes and places, feeling as though they had spent an enjoyable evening.

It is a fixed and immutable law that to have good sound health, one must have pure, rich and abundant blood. There is no shorter nor surer route than by a course of DeWitt's Sarsaparilla. J. C. Clark, druggist.

FERN HILL.
Miss Cora Adams visited with relatives in Portland last week.
Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Mooberry visited with Mr. G. G. Hancock Sunday.
Mrs. P. H. Gray and Miss Mooberry were shopping in Hillsboro Saturday.
Mr. John Schmetz, who left here last fall, has rented a large farm near Eugene.
Mr. John Freudenthal has rented the farm formerly owned by Mr. John Smith.
Earl Gray, who has been sick for the past three weeks, is able to attend school again.
There were no church services held here last week on account of the high water and bad roads.
Miss Anna Hillsman spent last Sunday and Monday with her parents here, returning to Forest Grove Tuesday.

The old way of delivering messages by post-boys compared with the modern telephone, illustrates the old tedious methods of "breaking" colds compared with their almost instantaneous cure by One Minute Cough Cure. J. C. Clark, Druggist.

Stands at the Head.
Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and to-day stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at the Miller pharmacy.

Consumption Can Be Cured
By the use of Shiloh's Cure. This great Cough Cure is the only known remedy for that terrible disease. For sale at Clark's drug store.

The old lady was right when she said, the child might die if they waited for the doctor. She saved the little one's life with a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. She had used it for croup before. J. C. Clark, druggist.

Nerves on Edge.
"I was nervous, tired, irritable and cross, Karl's Clover Root Tea made me well and happy." Mrs. E. B. Worden. For sale at Clark's drug store.

Soothing, and not irritating, strengthening, and not weakening, small but effective—such are the qualities of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. J. C. Clark, druggist.

Wanted—An Idea
Who can think of some simple thing to patent? I have a few ideas they may bring you wealth. Write JOHN WEDDERBURN & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C. for their $1.00 price offer and list of two hundred inventions wanted.
