It is a fixed and immutable law that to have good sound health, one must have pure, rich and abundant blood. There is no shorter nor surer route than by a course of DeWitt's Sarsaparilla. J. C. Clark, druggist.

TUALATIN.

The Artisans will give a grand ball on New Year's eve for the benefit of the order. Mr. Harden, of Gaston, was circulating among his brethren the early part of the week. Messrs. Galbreath and Bailey, of Sand Pit, visited the metropolis the latter part of the week. Mr. C. F. Casteel has returned from Hillsboro where he has been courting on his case. Mr. Olmstead, of Portland, visited his brother Artisans on Thursday night. His counsel is highly appreciated. Miss Jennie Noble will finish a very successful term of school the present week. Miss Noble's services should be retained through the spring term. The event of a new public building in times so depressed is indicative of a progressive spirit and is welcomed wherever it is found an enlightened community. This is truly applicable to Tualatin and its progressiveness. Dr. Taylor seeing the necessity of a sanitarium secured a desirable location, erected a commodious building, and will, in the near future, be able to accommodate the public in that capacity. In the wing just erected he has furnished and equipped a large hall which is occupied by the Artisans. The doctor is to be congratulated for his enterprise and sagacity. May he continue in the good work.

"If it was in his big toe or his left ear DeWitt's Little Early Risers would reach it and shake it for him. On that you can bet your gig-lamps." J. C. Clark, druggist.
