(The gentleman, when last the teacher: seen, was going down an Alley looking for a job.)

The college reception was unusually well attended, and if anybody failed to shake hands with everybody it was anybody's fault. A short musical program was given, after which Dr. McClelland, who had just arrived from the east, made a short talk. He expressed his delight in seeing so many new students, spoke of his trip out East, and asked to be excused from making a speech as he was very tired from his trip. A drawing contest between the twenty-two most famous artists of the school took place. Each artist was given one minute in which to draw the caricature of some animal. The prizes were not awarded to competitors, but to the judges who best interpreted the caricatures. Miss Lancefield was awarded first prize. At ten o'clock the crowd dispersed, all having been highly entertained.

Sweetness and Light.

Put a pill in the pulpit if you want practical preaching for the physical man; then put the pill in the pillory if it does not practise what it preaches. There's a whole gospel in Ayer's Sugar Coated Pills; a "gospel of sweetness and light." People used to value their physic, as they did their religion,-by its bitterness. The more bitter the dose the better the doctor. We've got over that. We take "sugar in ours" gospel or physic-now-a-days. It's possible to please and to purge at the same time. There may be power in a pleasant pill. That is the
