A Wife's Comfort

Knowledge saves worry in many ways. A writer in the Chicago Record professes to know a man-not a Chicago man, but an Englishman-whose well-known constitutional tardiness once saved his wife from hours of the most terrible anxiety.

At the time of the fair there was a terrible fire in one of the buildings-I think it was the cold storage. On the afternoon of the fire the man-he was an Englishman-had an appointment on the top floor of the doomed building. The fire broke out, if I'm not mistaken, about 2 o'clock. In a short time the building was partially destroyed and several lives had been lost.

Some friends of the Englishman came to his wife at the Victoria Hotel and broke gently to her the fact that the cold-storage place was in ruins, and that Harry had on appointment on the

This happy couple were born in West Riding, of York, England, in 1820. In 1848 they emigrated to this country and settled in Derby, Conn., where they resided for a number of years. While there Mr. Moore, who was highly respected by his neighbors, was elected member of the state legislature in 1867.
